Chance to speak of me and mine;

Tellem I am where no riston.

Tell'em I am where no vision— Though twere demi-Paradisian— Can impierce the bright Elysian, Where my kindred spirits shine

Tell'em they are arrant liars, Full of foul and black desires, Only fit for Satan's fires, Whence their wanton orgies spring:

That, though Paine and Ethan Allen Had no care for higher callin'
Than to halt at any dwellin'
For the sake of tipple-ing. They would scorn, by even proxies
To converse with vulgar doxies
Like the Fishes and the Foxes,
And the asses in their train.

That true spirits speak with trumpets, Not through liars, fools and strumpets, And their toe and finger thump-its, Which are Satan's own, refrain.

In my life! scorned such cattle,
And from my celestial battle,
They must call with other rattle.
Ere they bring me down to earth,

They have Moses for a prophet, And his teaching—if they scoff it, They have Christ's indorsement of it,— 'Tis enough - if aught has worth!

FOREIGN ITEMS. Macaulay's third and fourth volumes of English History are delayed, it is stated, in consequence of new information he has recently obtained in relation to King William the Third.

D'Isreali's Life of Lord George Bentick has already passed to a third edition. He asserts in this book with renewed vigor, his favorite doctrine of the superiority of the Hebrew to all other races.

The articles are said to be exceedingly rich and beantifully worked. It is said that the Duke of Wellington has consigned the publication of his papers to Lord Mahon.

Judge Carpenter, of Rome, N. Y., has in-wented a method of preventing Railroad trains from running off. It consists of a middle rail in the centre of, and raised considerably above, the two out rails, and fastened to the same cross-ties. A saddle is attached to the Engine and Cars at both ends, which sets over the middle rail, with friction rollers to play on both sides of it, thereby preventing the cars from rocking or running off. Whenever there is a tendency to run off, these friction rollers play against the middle rail, and bring them back to their place again. It costs $500 a mile.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The schooner Zephyr, Capt. Byers, left this port yesterday morning for the West Indies, but had not proceeded much beyond the bar, when one of the seamen, named Nicholas Kirk, a native of the county of Cork, Ireland, was knocked overboard by the jib, and drowned before assistance could be rendered him, which rendered it necessary for her to return in order to supply the place for her to return in order to supply the place of the hand so unfortunately lost.—Charleston

"Treat your wife," says Dr. Franklin in a letter to a young friend, "with respect; it will procure respect to you, not only from her, but from all who observe it. Never use a slighting expression towards her, even in jest; for slighting in jest, after frequent bandyings, are apt to end in angry earnest." This very sensible remark will apply equally to both sexes.

This truly great medicine still goes on, conquing disease, and snatching many a poor, powerlay stim lating, penetrating and Anodyne qualities, it stores the use of limbs which have been pais for years; and by its singular power of repiducing the Synovial Fluid or Joint water, it cut all diseases of the Joints withjaurprising rapidly For Rheumatism, and affections of the Spine a Spleen, it has proved itself a specific; and infections of the Lungs, Liver and Kidneys, it is most valuable and powerful suxiliary; also, all diseases of the Glands, Scrofula, Goitre Swelled Neck, &c. &c. And indeed for almost a disease where an external application is require this medicine stands unparalleled.

From the Hop Peter Minard, one of the Olden's

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the virtues of your great medicine. One of my blooded horse had a swelling over the cap of the kuee, about the size of a hen segg strain, and some, that it was joint water from the knee, and could not be cured. I tried oil cedar on it, and all the liniments and ointments, and they did no more good than water. I then, by persuasion of my friends, tried H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, and I was happy to find it take effect after a few days, and it finally cured the noble animal entirely. I think it is decidedly the greatest liniment for horse as well as human flesh, I ever knew.

liniment for horse as well as human flesh, I ever knew.

[Esq. Barker, of New Canton, Ill., says:]

Mr. H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment has cured some bad cases here, which every other remedy had failed in; one was a white swelling and contracted cords in the leg of a boy twelve years old. The leg has withered away, and was so contracted that he had no use of it. Three doctors had tried their skill upon it in vain, and hewas fast sinking to the grave, when the boy's father was induced to try H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Before the first bottle was used up he came into Mr B.'s store, and the first words he said were, "Mr. Barker, I want all that Liniment you have in the store; the one bottle I got did my boy more good than all that had ever been done before." That boy is now well and hearty, and has free use of his legs. It is good for sprains, bruises, cuts, burns and swellings.

Fig. To guard against imposition, read the following carefully:

The public are particularly cautioned against a base Counterfeit which has lately made its appearance, and is called by the Imposter who makes it, "W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment." This is a dangerous fraud, and more liable to deceive from his bearing the name of Farrell. Therefore be particular never to call for it by the name "Farrell's Liniment," for unprincipled dealers will fimpose this SPURIOUS Mixture upon you for the genuine, but always ask for H. G. Care on the part of the public in receiving money

Mr. E. Stokes McElroy:—Dear Sir—Hearing you are about offering your valuable Medicine for aale, I deem it my duty to you, as well as to the afflicted, to offer my testimony in its favor, and of the extraordinary cure it made of me. It is known by many that I had for a long time a distressing Cough, accompanied by a very acute pain in my side, back and breast, with high fevers and loss of appetite, and when my coughing would come on, I was so much prostrated that I could not stand, and I would raise a very large amount of matter, in pieces almost as large as my finger, having the appearance of my lungs I finally got so weak that I gave up all hopes of ever getting well. About that time I commenced taking your Fecteral Cordial, more to please my friends than from any expectation of obtaining relief; but strange to say, SIX BOTLES made an entire CURE OF ME; and I am fully convinced if I had not taken your medicine, I could not have recovered.

You may use this certificate in any way that you choose, and refer persons to me if you think proper and will evicted me an information in search

You may use this certificate in any way that you choose, and refor persons to me if you think proper, and I will give them any information in regard to my case that they may desire.
