

VOL. 2--NO. 191.

THE DAILY DISPATCH

HAS A COWARDIN, Proprietor.

HUGH R. PLEASANT, Editor.

CASH TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

One insertion 50 cts. 1 square, 1 month $4 00

Three insertions 1 25 do 2 months 7 00

One do 1 00 do 3 do 10 00

Two do 1 75 do 6 do 16 00

Three do 2 25 do 1 year 30 00

Advertisements are charged at the same proportions as for the same space in any other newspaper. The lines or less make a square; longer advertisements in exact proportion, and payable in ad-ance.

Advertisements inserted once a week, twice or three times a week, will be charged 50 per cent. less. For the first insertion, and 37 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Marriage notices inserted for 25 cents; Funeral notices 25 cents. Deaths, without obituary or funeral notices, 12 1/2 cents.

The Daily Dispatch is served to subscribers at a quarter cent per copy, payable to the order weekly. Price for mailing, $4 a year in advance.

THE WEEKLY DISPATCH

Published every Friday morning, and mailed free of charge to the subscribers. To Clubs, for $5 six copies, for $10 thirteen copies, for $15 twenty copies, for $20 twenty-seven copies.

THE DAILY DISPATCH

Wife's Blast against Tobacco.

He sits in the corner from morning to night,

And smokes, and smokes, and smokes,

He lives at dawn his pipe to light,

And chews and chews with all his might,

Till the hour of sleep. 'Tis his delight,

To smoke, chew, smoke.

The quid goes in when the pipe goes out,

He chews, chews, chews,

Now a cloud of smoke goes up from his throat,

Then his mouth sends a constant stream aloft.

The cheer, cheer, cheer.

He sits all day in a smoke or fog,

To puff, puff, puff.

He grows at his wife, the cat and dog,

And gives with flint the carpet and rug,

And only answers when I give him a jog,

Is puff, puff, puff.

These all o'er from end to end,

He smokes, smoke, smoke,

In whatever room his way he takes,

He takes his pipe to match and mend,

And scolded perfumes will ever ascend,

Of smoke, smoke, smoke.

At home or abroad, afar or near,

The smoke, chew, smoke;

His mouth is stuffed from ear to ear,

Or puffing the stamp of a pipe so dear.

And his days will end in a puff,

In smoke, smoke, smoke.

MORAL.

Yankee beware, live single indeed,

Who carry a wife, who uses the weed;

For she who husbands you should ever lack,

Will marry a man that uses tobacco.

DEPARTURE OF THE SWEDISH NIGHTINGALE.

The wharf at the foot of Canal street was crowded from an early hour this morning, with a large number of persons anxious to witness the departure of the Swedish Nightingale.

The ship, chartered by the U. S. steamer Atlantic, at half past 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Goldschmidt arrived in a close carriage and as

THE ESCAPE OF MEAGHER.

The manner in which this Irish patriot effected his escape from the British penal settlements does not cast the slightest stain upon his honor, nor has any other person been compromised by it.

It may be recollect that shortly after the arrival of the Irish exiles in Van Dieman's Land, a proposition was made them by the government officials there to the effect "that if they gave their parole of honor that they would not make any attempt to escape, they would be permitted to move to all will in circles they would be allotted to each." Of this proposition all the exiles availed themselves except Smith O'Brien. Mr. Meagher's ticket of leave ran thus, "I undertake not to escape from the colony as long as I hold this ticket of leave."

Everything being in readiness for carrying out his plans, early in February Mr. Meagher sent his "parole of honor" to the magistrate bound by it two hours after its delivery and no longer. On receiving it the magistrate gave immediate orders to the constable in Bothwell (where Mr. Meagher resided) to arrest him without delay. This the Constable refused to do, stating that he was himself an Irishman, and would do nothing to hinder Meagher's escape. This placed the magistrate in a position somewhat unpleasant as there was not another officer within twenty-four miles.

He however, mounted horse and proceeded to the nearest point of land, with a view of bringing back an officer to take charge of Mr. Meagher who waited for his return until the time promised had expired, after which he took horse and proceeded in an opposite direction, in which course he is said to have traveled as fast as his horse could carry him, for over one hundred miles, or to the point where his friends had another conveyance in waiting.

After reaching Pernambuco, he is said to have been taken on board the brig Aurora on the 23d of April, and by her brought to New York.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—Officer Pollard, of

Jersey City, on Wednesday arrested J. Wilson

Smith, a California ticket dealer, at the depot as he was leaving in the cars. He had the control of New Orleans of a miserable old steamship, the Fanny, and put her up for a voyage to San Francisco. After selling $36,000 worth of tickets, at $350 each, he fled to the North.

The vessel was obliged to put into Savannah, where she was seized by the Custom House officers as unseaworthy, and many of her passengers came to New York. He was committed to Berzen jail in default of bail.—Newark

Daily, 28th.

AN AMERICAN.—A few days since, a man named

Miller arrived at Memphis with a woman, calling her his wife. He got up a respectable school, he to teach the boys, and she the girls.

In a few days a gentleman from New Orleans landed at Memphis and put up at the same hotel, and made known to the citizens they were patronizing a man supposed to have stolen

Prof. Anderson's money, and the woman, a girl of bad character—and that they were not man and wife. The woman took a pistol in one hand and a cowhide in the other, and commenced on the gentleman; but the gentleman persisted in his statements, and the couple left for Arkansas in a skiff, and are now probably off to some other place to get up a school.

A difficulty occurred in Jackson, Mississippi,

LOCAL MATTERS.

SQUARE FOR THE NORTH WESTERN PART

OF THE CITY.—The city council, a few months since, very properly took up the subject of providing public squares for different sections of the city.

Several squares were purchased, and every section was pretty well provided for, except the Northern quarter. The council failed to procure a square for that section, for what reason we have not forgotten, if we ever knew; but in coming to the conclusion to forego the purchase of a lot there at the time they consigned the people concerned with an invitation to visit the Poor House Ground as a sort of substitute! The invitation was a remarkable one. The burial ground was a strange place for recreation for young people and children. Meditation among the tombs is salutary to people who are in the evening of life, and whose sands are running out with a rapidity that invites them to such contemplations as may be suggested amidst the habitations of the dead. But such relections are not demanded by the young, and children do not need the sanitary benefits of graveyard atmosphere! We do not perceive the philosophy of the suggestion of the council, and therefore cannot look upon the proximity of the people we allude to, to the Poor House Cemetery, as at all re-levating them from the want of a public square—one of those breathing places for dense populations.

They need such a comfort as much as any of those provided for, and we hope they will have it awarded to them. The proposition to make the burial ground more public, was unfortunate, as late occurrences have proved—the place having been desecrated by a congregation of idle and rowdy persons, very much to the annoyance of people whose interest in the dead carried them there, while injury was done to the ornaments placed by the hand of affection as tributes to the memory of friends and relatives.

We understand petitions numerously signed have been sent into the Hall, requesting that Jackson's Garden be bought by the city and set apart as a public square. There could be no better place selected, and we should be gratified at the purchase of that square for this purpose. It is admirably located, and would suit the people in that quarter of the city exactly. At the same time, the dwellers in the centre of the city would have a fine resting place at the termination of walk in that section.

There are already a number of trees upon it, and very little expense would make it a fine public square. We do hope it may be bought by the city; we are sure the measure would meet with universal approbation.

SOAP.—Some time since, Dr. Millsap submitted to our examination several specimens of a new kind of Soap, invented by some one at the North, and the patent for which is in the hands of a company in New York, who are manufacturing the article on an extensive scale. Dr. Millsap is the proprietor of the patent to make and vend in this place. Having had these soaps on hand for some time, they have received a full and fair test in the hands of proper persons, and their judgment which has been communicated to the Dispatch, is that these soaps have many important advantages.

Clothes washed with them, require a great deal less labor, and they are especially excellent for washing muslins, calicoes, and gaily colored dress es. For removing stains, for washing paint, silver, and for various other purposes in household economy, we are assured by one whose judgment without appeal on these points, that they are su-

THE ATTENTION OF CAPITALISTS AND OTHERS asked to the sale of a most beautiful dwelling and building lot, on 12th street, between Marshall and O'ley street, to take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock, on the premises.

WHITWENTURE.—Yesterday was a season of general holiday enjoyment. There were numerous picnics, military, military, and social gatherings.

The sable portion of our population gave a broad grin to usually grave broad street, and the neighboring thoroughfares, as regards summer and vegetated dresses, appeared to have emerged from their chrysalis state into a butterfly existence.

DISCHARGED.—The security of Henry C. Scott, the free negro who failed to appear at court Saturday, was yesterday proven before the Mayor to be good, and the charge of perjury against Scott's brother was therefore annulled.

DISMISSED.—A second warrant was tried before his Honor yesterday, charging Sally, hired to Mr. Kimbrough, with entering Mr. Lucy's house with a felonious intent, but no satisfactory proof being adduced to sustain the charge, the warrant was dismissed.

MECHANICS' UNION ASSOCIATION.—Office in Exchange building, next door to the Post Office, Richmond, Va.—ACCU-MULATED AND GUARANTEED CAPITAL, $50,000.—M.

B. DEAN, President. Finance Committee: Wm. Patton, G. C. Wood, H. B. Judkins, A. Wilbur, Actuary.

This Association has declared a dividend of thirty-five and one half per cent. for the year ending April 1st, 1852. No liability to assessment.

This is an Association of Working Men and others for the mutual assistance of each other in case of sickness or accident.

By the payment of the following annual deposits, you will become a life member, and will be entitled to a weekly benefit (first week excepted) during life, if you should be disabled by sickness or accident from attending to your ordinary business or conducting your own business, or in case of sickness common to both sexes.

YEARLY DEPOSIT OF MEMBERS UNDER 50

YEARS OF AGE.

$2 pr. dr. 3 pr. dr. 4 pr. dr. 5 pr. dr. 6 pr. dr.

3 "

4 "

5 "

6 "

Those over fifty years of age will be charged 25 per cent. extra. One dollar and fifty cents admission fee will be charged, in addition to the above, the first year, and must be paid at the time of application, and the first year's deposit within thirty days.

REFERENCES.—Dogget & Anderson, Upholsterers, corner 13th and Governor sts., Richmond, Va.;