ENGLAND.

A company, with a capital of two millions five hundred thousand pounds, has been started at London, to establish a line of steamers between the Thames and New York, touching at Cork for passengers.

A new Austrian loan of £250,000, bearing 5 per cent. interest, had been reissued in London by the Rothschilds.

The principal feature of the political news is the address of Lord John Russel to the electors of the city of London. He announces himself a candidate for the city at the approaching election, which refutes his rumored appointment to the peerage. His address reviews the career of the late ministry, and bids high for popularity and office. career of the late ministry, and bids high for popularity and office.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION .- Our telegraphic dispatches relate almost exclusively to the reception of the Democratic Nominations in the cities North and South. We insert those of chief interest:

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.-The Democratic meeting for this evening, in Independence Square, to ratify the late nominations, was compelled to adjourn to the Chinese Museum, owing to the heavy rain. Notwithstanding this an immense number were present.

Hon. Geo. M. Dallas presided, and delivered to be located and the control of the c an eloquent address on taking the Chair, which excited frequent bursts of applause.

NEW YORK, June 7 .- The New York Even NEW YORK, June 7.—The New York Even-ing Post (Barnburner,) says that the nomina-tion of Gen. Pierce gives general satisfaction to the Democratic party, and, intimates that the Van Buren wing will give him a warm support.

New Orleans, June 7.—The news of the nomination of Franklin Pierce and Wm. R. King, was received here on Saturday, by telegraph.

The nominations have been well received by the hominations have been well received by the Democracy, and gave rise to much excite-ment and greet rejoicings. A salute of one hundred guns, has been fired in Jackson square, in honor of the nominations.

ALBANY, June 7 .- The Democracy fired two hundred guns on Saturday afternoon, in honor of the nomination of Gen. Pierce as their candidate for the Presidency. They also illa-minated the city with bonfires amid their re-joicings. The nomination appears to be well joicings. The received here.

Gen. Pierce's Nomination-Public Receptions Declined.

Boston, June 6 .- Col. Barnes, late United Sta es Murshal, a personal friend of Gen. Pierce, on hearing of his nomination, at once started with the tidings, and met the General at Cambridge. He manifested great surprise, and intirmated that he thought it might be a hoax. About a hundred personal and political friends called at the Tremont, and congratufriends called at the Tremont, and congratu-lated the General during the evening; but there was no public demonstration, and in or-der not to be molested, the General gave all hands the slip by quietly taking up his quar-ters at Cambridge. For the present he de-clines meeting his fellow citizens publicly.— He has also declined a public reception at Concord, N. H., tendered him in a telegraphic dispatch received to-day. Mrs. Pierce is with him, and in delicate health. He goes to Northampton on her account, where he will remain a few days. remain a few days.

Great Fire at Montreal-Loss $1,000,000. MONTREAL, June 7 .- A destructive fire occurred here yesterday, involving a loss roughly estimated at $1,000,000. It commenced at 6 o'clock, A. M., in a carpenter shop, at the corner of Lemoyne and St. Peter, streets. The residence of J. Martin, adjoirning, was burnt and two of his children residends in the flavor. two of his children perished in the flames. The fire thence extended to old St. Andrew's church, which was destroyed, together with the dwelling of J. Mahoney, and the house and store of Ryan & Bro.'s, No. 21, occupied as a warehouse. The southwest wind then carried warehouse. The southwest wind then carried the flames to St. Paul street, destroying the roofs of several houses in their passage. OUTRAGE.—A friend from Fauquier informed us of an outrage in Loudoun a few days since unparalleled in this day of outrage and wrong. A young man from the North, a grad-uate of Yale College, and of highly reputable uate of Yale College, and of highly reputable connexions, was engaged as a teacher in that county. He became enamored of a beautiful young girl in the neighborhood, with whom he eloped and married at Washington. The young lady had many suitors, who being greatly disgruntled at thus being outwitted by a Yankee Schoolmaster, determined on revenge. One of them went to Washington and invited the bridegroom and bride to his house, and sent his carriage further to some point on and sent his carriage for them to some point on the Railroad. In returning, the carriage was waylaid, the man dragged from the side of his wife and despite her screams and imploring appeals for mercy, he was bound hand and foot and beat until life was nearly extinct.—Fred. Virginia, Kentucky and Georgia now ready—each 62% cents.

In this series of histories the author, while presenting a concise but accurate narrative of the domestic policy of each State, will give greater prominence to the personal history of the people. The dangers which continually hovered around the early colonists; the stirring romance of a life passed learlessly amid peril; the incidents of border warfare; the adventures of hardy pioneers; the keen watchfulness, the subtle surprise, the ruthless attack, and prompt retaliation—all these having had an important influence upon the formation of the American character, are to be faithfully recorded, while the progressive developments of the citizens of each individual State, from the rough forest life of the earlier day to the polished condition of the present, will exhibit a picture of national expansion as instructing as it is interesting. the 28th day of January, 1852, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of Henrico County the 29th day of the same month, 1 shall, on Monday, the 14th day of June, 1852, at the hour of 5 o'clock in the evening, proceed to sell at public auction, to the highest bidd-r, part of the property conveyed by said deed, as follows, to wit: the House and Lot on Broad street, in the city of Richmond, known as Brack, ett's Tavern; and on the 15th day of June, 1852,
at the same hour, I shall proceed to sell two brick Tenements and two frame Tenements, with three and a half acres of land thereun'to attached, at Rocketts, partly in the county of Henrico and part ly in the city of Richmond.

Upon the Brackett's Tavern there is a lien for three thousand six hundred and fifty dollars, in favor of G. W. Toler, payable on the 23rd day of October, 1852.

The terms of the sale will be, for the Rocketts'
property one-third cash, and the residue on a credit of twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale. For the Brackette's Favern property, one-third cash; the sum of three thousand six hundred and fifty dollars, payable on the 23rd day of October, 1852, and the residue eighteen months from the day of sale, with interest from that day.
Negotiable notes will be raquired from the purchasers for the credit instalments, and deeds of trust upon the property sold, to secure the payment of said instalments. The trustee will only convey such title as is in him. The sale to be conducted by Toler & Cook.
