CIVIC AND MILITARY BALL.

The Montgemery Guard, Capt Patrick T.

Moore, beg leave to inform their friends in their first Civic and Military Ball on Monday evening, January 10th, 1833, at La Fayette Hall, in celebration of the anniversary of the Company, on which occasion they hope to receive the liberal support of their friends and fellow citizens.

Their arrangements are such that they hope to be able to give satisfaction to all who may honor them with their company.

An engagement has been entered into with an experienced caterer to furnish supper and other refreshments, and from his known skill in such matters, we have a sure guarantee that nothing will be wanting in his department. Good music, and plenty of it, has been engaged for the night.

Tuesday, the 18th instant, commencing at 3 o'clock, 160 scres of Land, being the Eastern portion of the "Windsor" tract, situated on the South side of the plank road, about 24 miles West of Richmond. The Land has a front on the plank road of about three eighths of a mile, and extends back to the capal, on which it has about the same front.—
About 30 to 40 acres are cleared, and the balance, say 120 acres, heavily wooded, and a part of it well timbered. It will be divided into lots or otherwise to suit the views of bidders.

From the proximity of this Land to the city of Richmond, and the goodness of the road to it, together with the great value of the wood and timber
upon it, it offers peculiar advantages to persons wishing to engage in a profitable enterprize, as the wood upon the land will probably pay the whole purchase money.

Chronic Rheumatism of 30 Years's tanding Cured.

Starcely able to work for seventeen years, and the flesh withered from his limbs. Lev! Hills, Esq. writes: "Ottawa, Lassile county, Illinois, August 10." Have suffered from Chronic Pheumatism for thirty years; for seventeen years I was scarcely able to walk or stoop to the floor; my lett limb had perished away considerable, and was very weak. I had used so many prescriptions from physicians and other remedies, all to no purpose, that I despared of ever being cured. I was influenced, however, to try Mortimore's 'Rheumatic Compound,' and I rejoice to say, it acted like a charm. This was eight months ago. I have exercised much every day since, and have been exposed to all kinds of weather, but have continued to my limbs, which have become strong as ever.
