

THE DAILY DISPATCH

The circulation of the Daily Dispatch exceeds considerably that of all the Daily papers of Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA. Thursday Morning, May 26, 1853.

MRS. STOWE EXPECTED IN PARIS.

We translate from the Courier des Etats Unis the following extract from a letter written by Eugene Guinet. We think it will be a source of amusement to many of our readers, the ladies especially.

"The approaching visit of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe to Paris was announced yesterday. The famous American Blue Stocking owes it to herself to follow the course of her trans-Atlantic excursions, evidently undertaken under the inspiration of a very natural vanity, which counsels her to gather the flowers of her success in those countries wherein her book has created the most profound sensation.

Paris is, beyond dispute, the city of Europe which has responded most warmly to the ultra-marine success, saluting it with echoes repeated by a multitude of translations. After so much politeness, the authoress of 'Uncle Tom's' ought not to be contented with sending us her card, and cannot do less than make us a visit in person.

"The news of the intended visit created quite an excitement among the Parisian women of letters. It appeared to them a favorable occasion for a manifestation. They were convoked, and assembled at the house of one of their number, who placed a large apartment at their disposal. The session was a curiosity. First and foremost, they resolved that the proceedings should be secret!

"Contributions for the Washington Monument.—It is to be hoped that our citizens will embrace the opportunity offered to-day, to contribute something towards the completion of the monument now in course of construction in Washington city.

"At the meeting of PHENIX FIRE CO. held at the Exchange Hotel, Monday evening, May 23rd, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: JOHN J. FRY, Foreman; JOHN H. RICHARDSON, 1st Assistant; JOHN H. RICHARDSON, 2nd Assistant.

"A GREEN TURTLE was served up to our patrons, this day, in our usual unsurpassed style. Lovers of the sea, who wish to please bear it in mind. Soup ready at 11 o'clock.

"NIAGARA FALLS AND LAKE ERIE.—Professor Silliman, the eminent geologist, discredits the opinion advanced by some that the gradual wearing away of the rocks of Niagara Falls may possibly result in draining Lake Erie. In a recent lecture he remarked: 'They will not halt at their present station, but retreat slowly and surely about two miles farther, where they will stop again for an unknown period, and probably forever, since at this place the hard limestone will form both base and top of the falls, and thus stop the rapid destruction of the rock.'

"EXCESSIVE DROUGHT.—The Augusta Chronicle, of the 20th inst., says: 'We are aware that it is very common to speak of the weather as extraordinary and unprecedented, yet we think that either epithet may be applied to the present drought with perfect propriety; for we have no recollection of having witnessed such an one at this season of the year as has prevailed for five or six weeks in this section.'

"A GRAND IDEA.—Victor Hugo says, 'God is throwing years upon thrones as we throw spades full of earth upon coffins.'

"A man died a day or two since in Salem who weighed between three and four hundred pounds; his coffin was two feet deep and two feet four inches wide.

HAVANA.—We extract the following from the Havana correspondence of the Charleston Courier:

HAVANA, May 14, 1853. The two days that have elapsed since my last, afford but little space for news. A soldier is to be garroted in a few days time for having shot a Sergeant. Perhaps it will strike you when I tell you that upwards of 300 have been executed every year for crime in this island. This is below the mark, and from good authority, and the Government has to pass over many crimes at that.

Dr. Tomlinson.—We a day or two ago published a telegraphic despatch stating that the Rev. Dr. Tomlinson had committed suicide. We now learn that such is not the fact, as we find by the Christian Advocate, published in Cincinnati, under date of May 18th.—The editor of that paper states that the Reverend Doctor died suddenly of a heart disease, at his residence in Clermont county, Ohio. He was in Cincinnati on the day previous, and the editor of the Advocate conversed with him not thirty hours before his death, when he seemed in his usual good health.

A Havana correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says that Buenavista, Vives, the newly appointed minister to Mexico, Spain, was taken from the deck of a slave by the French, was condemned as a pirate to the galleys at Brest, and now bears the brand which marks these felons. He is a Mexican by birth, of Castilian parents, and was educated in Catalonia.

GEN. HARRISON'S REMAINS.—It is proposed to remove the remains of Gen. Harrison, which are now entombed at North Bend, to the battlefield of Tippecanoe, there to slumber with those of the intrepid Col. Joe Davies and their compatriots.

PLENTY OF CHIPS.—Richard Smith, a journeyman carpenter at Leicester, England, has twenty-six children.

A WINEFALL.—The Wheeling Times states that a rumor is current in that city, that a citizen of Wheeling, has fallen heir to an estate in England, estimated at $35,000,000. Upon the receipt of it, it is said, he will realize the interest for one hundred years. When!

THE NEW HAVEN ROUTE.—The cars on the New Haven Route, it is said, run as full as ever. The late calamity at Newark appears to have very little effect in checking the migration of the people.

At a meeting of PHENIX FIRE CO. held at the Exchange Hotel, Monday evening, May 23rd, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: JOHN J. FRY, Foreman; JOHN H. RICHARDSON, 1st Assistant; JOHN H. RICHARDSON, 2nd Assistant.

ATTENTION FISHMEN.—A Quarterly Meeting of the Richmond Fish Association will be held at the office, on Saturday next, 1st inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., to hear excuses for non-attendance, and to elect officers for the past quarter. By order of the Board of Directors. J. N. BOSHER, Secy.

A GREEN TURTLE was served up to our patrons, this day, in our usual unsurpassed style. Lovers of the sea, who wish to please bear it in mind. Soup ready at 11 o'clock.

FOR LYNCHBURG.—The steamer 'Lynchburg' will receive freight for Lynchburg, and will leave on Saturday, 28th inst., without fail. A. S. LEE.

BOOKS FOR EVERYBODY AT B. J. EDDINS & CO'S, 104 Broad Street.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Tobacco or other merchandise, shipped by us to Jacob Brandt, Jr., Agent of the Powhatan Steamboat Company for shipment to Wheeling, Cincinnati and the South and West generally, will be forwarded free of commission by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Shippers will find this the most certain and expeditious route.

SLAVERY.—A man died a day or two since in Salem who weighed between three and four hundred pounds; his coffin was two feet deep and two feet four inches wide.

Buenos Ayres was still besieged March 22, when Bark Udine left Montevideo.

LOCAL MATTERS.

INCENDIARIES.—Yesterday morning William, a slave, hired to Mr. McGruder, and aged about 8 years, was arraigned before his Honor upon a charge of attempting to set fire to an out house upon the premises of Mr. Joseph Berry, located on 5th street between Clay and Leigh streets, about 5 o'clock on Monday evening last.

Mr. McGruder stated that William was very sprightly for his age, and that since this affair had occurred he had resolved to send him into the country.

Mr. McGruder stated that William was very sprightly for his age, and that since this affair had occurred he had resolved to send him into the country.

Mr. Mayo deposed that John had helped move his things into his room when he took possession of it, and that he had been in and out of it two or three times since. He, (Mr. M.) some time last week, asked him what he was doing there, and was answered nothing, just walking around.

Thomas Cooley, a negro in the employ of Dr. Patterson, and who attends to the rooms and sleeps in the house where Mr. Mayo stays, stated that on Sunday evening, between 10 and 11 o'clock, as he was coming into the door of the house in which Mr. Mayo resided, he saw John creeping softly down stairs. He waited for him at the door, and by the light of the moon scrutinized him closely.

Mr. Isaac H. Marrow testified, that about 9 1/2 o'clock on Sunday evening, while talking on the steps of the Exchange Hotel with some friends, they observed this negro John, who worked in the Express office, peculiarly dressed, playing in front with a dog. He had on a straw hat and a long skirted coat, and a shirt open. One of the party said he looked like a person, and asked the boy to go with them.

A free negro named Charles Scott, apprenticed to Mr. Samuel D. Denoon by the Hustings Court some three years since, was then examined on the charge of setting fire to the foundry of Mr. Denoon, on Main street, near 9th street, on Sunday evening last.

Mr. Denoon stated that his daughter gave Charles a pass to go to St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock. Soon after the alarm of fire sounded, caused by the burning of Mr. D's foundry, Mr. Denoon, who was at home with a sick child, went towards his foundry and at the door found Charles. He asked him why he did not come and let him (Mr. D.) know of the fire, and was told that he was at Mr. Allen's when the alarm was given, and ran to help get the engine, of which he was a member—number 6—out, and to aid in putting the fire out. Mr. D. then went round to the back door of the smith shop, in the rear of the store, and there had his attention called to a padlock which fastened the door of the smith's shop which gave admission to the foundry, and which hung upon the door unlocked, but not forced open.

The entrance to the yard was very difficult and a high fence had to be leaped, so that a person must be very well acquainted with the premises in order to get into the yard. He then left Charles to assist another boy named Robert to clean off some grates, wet with the water, and went off. Soon after the alarm sounded for the fire which broke out in Mr. McAllister's shop, and on going back to his foundry he learned from Robert that Charles ran off to the fire as soon as the bell rang. On his return, when questioned as to his absence, he replied, latterly, that some one had called him to go, which Robert said was not the case. Next day Mr. Boshier called on Mr. D. in order to get from Charles a key to the engine house six which it was unlawful to have in his possession. Charles gave it to them, and it was found that by a peculiar movement it could unlock the padlock of the door which had been found open and by which the incendiary obtained admission to the foundry. A person unacquainted with the lock could hardly have opened it. Mr. D. would state also that some very inflammable tanks were found buried in the shop and had evidently been fired in preference to some charcoal near at hand because they would burn quicker. Charles was a very ingenious boy.

Robert Tompkins testified to seeing Charles run from the alley which led from the rear of Mr. Denoon's foundry, on Sunday evening, and run along the middle of the street at the time the alarm was given. Charles said he was going for No. 6.

Messrs. Boshier and Rust testified to the location of the shop—the difficulty of entrance to strangers—and the finding of the padlock unlocked.

Watchman Granger recognized Charles working on the fire, and heard him say somebody must have set the shop on fire. Charles told him that when the alarm was given he was in the second Baptist Church.

Jordan, a negro, living with Dr. Edmunds next door to Mr. Denoon's foundry, testified to hearing a noise as if somebody in Mr. Denoon's yard just before the fire broke out. His wife also heard it.

Mr. Denoon estimated his loss at about $150. The Mayor then remanded Charles to jail for trial, on the charge of arson, before the Grand Jury of the Hustings Court in June next.

FAIRFIELD RACES.—SECOND DAY.—Another rainy day for the second day's race somewhat dampened the ardor of the sport. The contest was to have been between J. Tally's b. f. by Pamunky, and T. D. Watson's Firenze—two mile heat. The race was won by Firenze, her competitor having been withdrawn. Time 4:25.

MUSIC ON THE SQUARE.—The newly organized and efficient Richmond Cornet Band will give our citizens a free concert this evening in Capitol Square, at 8 o'clock.

EDWIN ROBINSON, whose first breath was drawn in Richmond—ever true to his friends—practical, sensible, generous—in before the people for a seat in the House of Delegates to vote for him, is to bring into service precisely the man Richmond needs, in the opinion of one who has been

LOCAL MATTERS.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs. There are three out of the four best calculated to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs. There are three out of the four best calculated to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.

WHIG VOTERS will not all agree with the Richmond Whig in its opinion of the political situation in the House of Delegates. The reason is plain. Her interests are great and varied, commercially and otherwise. The country members come here with strong prejudices against the Whigs, and with a determination to vote for the Democrats. The Whigs, therefore, cannot expect to elect a Democrat to represent the great and varied interests of Richmond, and have the ability and industry to understand and maintain the interests of the Whigs.