

THE DAILY DISPATCH

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16, 1854.

SHAREFUL CONDUCT OF THE ARCTIC CREW.—The New York Herald says: "It is time that the world should know, that while the water was pouring through the seams in the bow of the Arctic, and death advanced with fearful strides, the men composing the crew of that vessel, including seamen, engineers and firemen, were, with one or two exceptions, engaged in providing for their own safety, to the utter disregard of that of the lives entrusted to their charge. They who were strongest; who knew best how to escape the danger; who were most accustomed to front death in this shape; who were most familiar with the boats and their tackle, and who were best fitted to combat with the perils now threatening men, women and children alike, were the first to selfishness and cowardice, the first to save themselves at the expense of those they were bound to rescue at all costs. They have succeeded: thirty-one more seamen have been brought ashore, but not one passenger."

What a contrast to this conduct was that of a British regiment mentioned by the Herald, who, when the ship on which they were embarked was going down, stood each man at his post, like a pillar of stone, till the lady passengers had departed, and then sank with an unmurmur beneath the inevitable death! What a contrast to the crew of the U. S. brig Somers, who, when their vessel was going down, not only made no rush for the boats, but calmly abode on the sinking wreck, and in some cases gave up their own places in the boats, after they had obtained them, to secure the safety of others. It is but justice, however, to state that of the 141 crew and officers of the Arctic, but twenty-eight were seamen; the rest were engineers, stewards, firemen, stokers, waiters, and other land-men.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION IN NEW YORK.—The New York Express says that the primary elections in the city of New York, "have become, within two or three years, not only corrupt and rotten, but disgusting and demoralizing." Offices, says the Express, are bought and sold like beef in Fulton market, but not from respectable butchers. There is a class of bullies and black-legs who control the primary elections of New York, and who make more or less of all the nominations. The Express adds, that the names of these men are well known; that they openly sell the tickets they create in the primary elections, to the best bidders for them, and that for so much "stuff," as the phrase is, you can have such and such a delegation, and the delegation is sold, with a shamelessness that would disgust a negro trader in Havana. These men live through the year upon the money they get in elections, and of the ten millions of spoils they receive a large share. To this cause, the Express ascribes the increase of taxes in New York, the inefficiency of the police, the frequency of murders, the insecurity of property. In its indignation, the Express declares that it is "in a life for any sort of Revolution." It knows not how to "confine these Huns and these Goths who are growing up within the very bosom of refinement and civilization." This is a problem which the despised and hated South has alone successfully solved.

THE WOMAN AND BABY QUESTION.—The New York Express and the New York Mirror are at issue on the baby exhibition. The Mirror thinks "there should be as much effort made to improve the breed of babies as there is to improve the breed of sheep and cattle." The Express agrees with this, but thinks the motive for the duty should be a higher and nobler one than a gold or silver medal from a rough-and-tumble assemblage of strong-minded men and women. The Mirror has an account of another kind of exhibition: "Broadway," it says, "was astonished at a late hour last evening, by the actual appearance of this female military company, which has heretofore been considered mythical. Twenty well dressed young women marched through the street, two abreast, in military order, preceded by a male drummer, who beat time vigorously. They giggled like so many girls just let loose from school, and were followed by a large crowd; their object seemed merely to attract attention, which of course they succeeded in doing, to their heart's content. We presume the drill rooms are in Mercer street."

THE ELECTIONS.—The political victories in Pennsylvania and Ohio are claimed by the Northern Whig journals as anti-Nebraska victories. It is therefore not strange that their shout of triumph awakens no responsive echoes south of Mason and Dixon. It is the hurrah of the Cossacks advancing upon Constantinople. But there are Balkans yet to be crossed more formidable than those which intercept the progress of Nicholas, and a people to be encountered who are at least as capable as Turks of fighting against heavy odds, and successfully defending their rights and honor. NEW PUBLICATION.—"Donna Bianca of Navarre. An Historical Romance, by Don Francisco Navarre Villoslada." We have never heard of this worthy gentleman before, but presume that he must be "some pumpkins," from the statement of the preface, that "the high order of excellence which characterizes this romance, and which has secured for it a brilliant success in Spain, has induced the publishers to give the following translation to the American public, to whom they trust it will prove a welcome novelty." For sale by J. W. Randolph.

GUANO.—A pamphlet, for which we are indebted to Mr. J. W. Randolph, has some most valuable views and facts upon the following subject: "Agriculture: its Essentials and Non-Essentials, including an examination of the properties of Guano and other Manures." By H. N. Fryette, of Belleville, New Jersey.

THE CHARLOTTEVILLE JEFFERSONIAN remarks, that if, as is probable, the 30th of November is fixed upon as the day for holding the Democratic State Convention, it will be on the anniversary of the birth-day of Mr. Shelton F. Leake, one of the most prominent and talented of the candidates for Governor, who was born and raised in Albemarle county.

JOSEPH MAXWELL, the senior of the firm of Maxwell, Wright & Co., of Rio Janeiro, is dead.

LOCAL MATTERS.

MR. WELLES COWLING, of Henrico, died on Wednesday evening last, under mysterious circumstances. Tuesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Cowling were in the city, and Mr. Cowling's neighbor's sat down to breakfast, and Mr. C. took some fried beef on his plate, and putting a piece in his mouth observed that it tasted very bitter. He then went to the great French oven, and there, in the process, he observed that it tasted very bitter. He drank some coffee, and complaining of being sick, laid down. His wife observed the bitter taste of the beef, and rejected it, and called his wife and complained much of his feelings, and expressed the belief that he was poisoned, and that the poison was in the beef. He was immediately thrown into convulsions and soon died. A doctor was promptly sent for who treated Mr. Cowling and remained with him until Tuesday in the day, when it was thought that he was better. In the afternoon the spasms were renewed and he died. It is supposed that the beef was poisoned with strychnine. Such however was the kind feeling of every one for Mr. C. that it was supposed that the person would meditate his destruction. The greatest confidence had been placed in the cook. A rigid examination will be made of the contents of the stomach.

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—The Board of Managers of the Mechanic's Institute, will hold a meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall to-night, at half past 7 o'clock. As the time for the opening of the fair is near at hand, it is deemed important that a meeting of the Board should be a full one in order to perfect arrangements before the 23d inst. We understand that a large amount of articles of various kinds will be sent to hall rooms for exhibition, and that other mechanics than those of Richmond, will be competitors for the various premiums offered. Our clothiers and Tailors in particular, should become members, and exhibit specimens of their work.

BROAD ROCK RACES.—The fall races over this famous course will not commence until tomorrow, one of the parties to the $1000 match for the day of the pair, forfeit, on account of the Cowling case.

THE DOG LAW.—The city ordinance concerning dogs is very defective and requires amendment. It supposes that much the larger portion of dogs in the city pay no tax. The names of those who pay tax on dogs should be furnished to the police, and it should be their duty to report to all who are not on the list, and to those who are on the list, and such persons should be made to pay a fine which should be equal to the tax, and a proper penalty should be imposed on those who do not pay.

THE MAYOR'S COURT.—Saturday there were sundry cases, of no importance, however, before the acting Mayor, Alderman Farrar. Two of the most interesting cases were those of a woman who comes from "Araby the blest," nor such as would bear the translation into type. The most peculiar and striking of these two was that of a woman who was charged with abusing and threatening with bodily harm Mary Murphy. Now, Mary Murphy is the sister of John Sullivan, and Mrs. Sullivan is the same spirited and pious woman who is so well known to the people of this city. She is the wife of a man who is a member of the Board of Managers of the Mechanic's Institute, and she is a woman of high standing in the community. She is a woman of high standing in the community. She is a woman of high standing in the community.

THE BALLOON ASCENSION will take place at 3 o'clock, with the YOUNG GUARD, and arrive in time to witness the Ascension. GRAND CIVIC AND MILITARY BALL will be given in the Cottage, under the auspices of the Young Guard. Ladies and Gentlemen desiring to attend the Ball, and who cannot leave in the morning or afternoon train, can visit the Cottage in the Mail Train, which leaves at 7 o'clock, P. M., or immediately after the Ball on Tuesday, the 17th inst. The second Train will leave an hour later; and the third Train will leave about 2 A. M.

KUNKEL'S OPERA TROUPE will give one of their grand entertainments at the Cottage at 3 o'clock. The BALLOON ASCENSION will come off at 4 o'clock; and the BALL will be opened at 7 o'clock. Tickets for the Round Trip, $1.

OTILLION MUSIC from SMITH'S ARMOYER. Refreshments (edibles) at city prices, and furnished in abundance. No spirituous liquors allowed on the grounds during the day or evening, and a special police force on duty to preserve order. THE YOUNG GUARD thus present a rare combination, which they trust will meet the entire approbation of the public. Tickets for sale at the Depot in Broad street; at the Exchange, American, and Broad Street Hotels, and at the Ballistic, Dispatch and Penny Post counting-houses. PROGRAMME: 1.
