POLITICAL. fr. Yancey in Peteroburg.-The Opinions of the Northern Press-Mr. Bachanan and the Seceders-Senatar Fitzpatrick, &c.

Hon. William L. Yancey, with two or three other delegates to the Baltimore Con-vention, arrived in Petersburg, Va., Wednes-day evening, and was saleded with 100 guns.— At night Phoenix Hall was crowded to hear him speak. In the course of his remarks, he mid that Mr. Seward, of Georgia, who spoke at Mechanics' Hall, in the same city, on Tuesat mechanics Hall, in the same city, on Tuesday night, had, he understood, asserted that he (Mr. Yancey) desired the election of the Biack Republican candidate for the Preadency. If this was true, he pronounced Mr. Seward a base calumniator. During the evening, a resolution satisfactor. ution ratifying the Breckinridge nomination and endorsing the secession of the delegates from the Petersburg district, was carried by a tremendous "aye!" Some two or three voices responded "no."

The Washington Constitution, speaking of course for the Administration as well as itself, goes without hesitation for Breshinridge and Lane. It says:

and Lane. It says:

In the present crisis of affairs both as regard the Democratic party and the best interests of the country, it is the duty of every true Democrat and honest patriot to announce his opinions, fearlessly and explicitly; to declare the course which he purposes to pursue, without equivocation or reserve; and to indicate the candidates whom he intends to support in the approaching Presidential contest, with decision and firmness.

For ourselves we mean to perform that duty fully and faithfully. We place at the head of our paper to-day, and shall keep them there until the people decide in November next, the names of John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, for President, and Joseph Lane, of Oregon, for Vice-President.

The Boston Post adheres to the Breckinridge

The Boston Post adheres to the Breckinridge ticket, on the ground of its regularity and its nationalty. The Douglas nomination, it says was not only made by a Convention irreguharly constituted, but was in itself a sectional nomination. "It had not the support of the old Democratic States; and thus, lacking in declared for either ticket. Its preferences are declared for either ticket. Its preferences are for Breckinridge. In the meantime it points out one of the consequences of the division:

In discussing the questions connected with the late breakdown of the Democracy at Baltimore, we are apt to confine our yiews mainly to the effect it will have upon the Presidential election. But there is another aspect of the question, quite as important, and equally adlecting the interests of the people of the several States. We refer to the almost certain effect which it must have upon the local political organizations, in every State, county and district, throughout the Union. Failing to agree upon candidates for the Presidency, separate organizations will be demanded, to promote the success of the different nominees, and when these organizations are once provided, there is no ground for expectation that they will abstain from meddling with other questions of a more local character. Hence we may reasonably anticipate throughout the whole Union, double organizations, and as a consequence, conflicting and rival tickets, for all offices, from President down to member of assembly and town constable.

The Missouri Republican is strongly for Douglas. The two Louisville Democratic papers are divided the Democratic papers are divided the Democratic papers are divided. eclared for either ticket. Its preferences are Douglas. The two Louisville Democratic pa-pers are divided, the Democrat supporting pers are divided, the Democrat supporting Douglas, and the Courier Breckinridge.

On Wednesday, the antional Democratic Committee, appointed by the Breckinridge Convention, visited President Buchanan. He received them cordially and approved of the received them cordially and approved of the received from the other body. The Constituecession from the other body. The Constituion savs :

tion says:

A very pleasant informal conversation between the President and the different members of the committee followed, in the course of which Mr. Buchanan's corduality and earnestness in the cause impressed every one present. Upon their taking leave the venerable Chief Magistrate said: "God bless you, gentlemen, one and all. You go home to your different States; and there I am sure you will do your whole duty; and I fervently trust that you may be successful!" One of the committee turned and said, with emotion. "Think not, sir, that in going eagerly into the atruggle to secure the ascendancy of our candidates, we shall ever cherish the less veneration and devotion for the setting sun." Senator Fitzpatrick, in his letter declining

Senator Fitzpatrick, in his letter declinin the Vice Presidential candidacy on the Dougas ticket, says:

the Vice Presidential candidacy on the Douglas ticket, says:

The Binck Republicans have harmoniously (at least in Convention) presented their candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. So have the Constitutional Union party, (as it is termed.) Each party is already engaged in the contest. In the presence of such organizations we still, unfortunately, exhibit a divided camp. What a melancholy speciacle! It is calculated to cause every Democratic citizen who cherishes the Constitution of his country to despond, if not to despair of the durability of the Union.

Desirous, as far as I am capable of exerciting any influence, to remove every obstacle which may prevent a restoration et the peace, harmony, and perfect concord of that glorious old party to which I have been inflexibly devoted from early manhood—a party which, it my deliberate opinion, is the only real and reliable ligament which binds the South, the North, the East, and the West together upon Constitutional principles—no alternative was left to me but that which I have herein most respectfully communicated to you.

The Lynchburg, (Va.) Republican, (Douglas

left to me but that which I have herein most respectfully communicated to you.

The Lyuchburg, (Va.) Republican, (Douglas paper.) hoisis the name of Breckinridge and Lane, and says in explanation:

The Sinte cannot be carried for either candidate except the friends of both cardially units. We hope this may be done, and shall wait to see if it is not done. We think, perhaps, the Sinte can be more easily carried for Breckinridge than for Douglas, and hence we have hojeled the name of the former. But the friends of the latter munt be treated with proper respect and deference, or both will be hopelessly defeated. No war should be made upon Judge Douglas or his friends, nor should any war be made upon the Secedara and their friends. Let all agree to disagree, and vote for a common electeral tichet.

The National Democratic Committee, of the Breakinridge wing of the party, is as followe: Issac I. Stevena, of Oregon: George W. Haghes, of Maryland; John W. Stevenson, of Contucky; Wm. Filtus, J. G. Berret, Walter Leanon, George W. Biggs, of Wachington, D.

Cleveland his stock of goods, and an inventory was true and completed on Saturday afternoon, and he was to have taken possession on Monday last. In the meantime, he had lodged two checks, of $400 each, with the Monticello Bank, and two of $600 each with the Monticello Bank, and two of $600 each with the Monticello Bank and two of $600 each with the Farmers' Bank, payable in Baltimore. On Saturday night he purchased a gold watch for $125, of Mr. J. W. Lipop, and sate him a check on the Farmers' Bank for the same, which was paid, after its endormation by It. he then drew $600 from the Monticello Bank, as his Baltimore checks had been entered to his credit by Mr. Flannagan, the cashier; and on Monday morning he hired a horse of Barksdale & Fatwell, and took himself off to parts unknown. The checks which he had deposited in our banks were forgeries, as they have been returned protested. A Convention of the National Democracy of Georgia is called for the Mith of Juty.

The following are telegrams of interest:

Tolano, June 26.—The friends of Mr. Dongias held a ratification meeting here last night, A salute of thirty-four guns was fired, with honfires, music, speeches, &c.

TRENTON, June 26.—A large Democratic meeting was held this evening to form a Bestocratic Club for the support of Stephen A. Douglas for the Presidency. Speeches were made by C. W. Joy, Charles Shelton, &c. Arrangements were made for a large mass ratification meeting.

PROVIDENCE, June 26.—One hundred guns were fired here this evening for Breckinridge and Lane.

STAMFORD, June 26.—One hundred guns were fired for Breckinridge and Lane this afternoon, and an immease enthusiasm prevailed.

BUPFALO, June 26.—A salute of 105 guns were fired here to-night, by the friends of Breckinridge and Lane.

ST. Louis, June 26.—The demonstration of the Breckinridge faction last night at the Planters' House was interrupted by a large body of Bouglas men. Judge Bowlin, inte Commissioner to Paraguay, endeavored ineffectually to speak, and finally withdrew. A collision at one time was imminent. Another Douglas jubilee comes of to-morrow night.

PARKERSBUEG, VA., June 27.—A large and enthusiastic Breckinridge and Lane artification meeting is being held here to-night at Union Hall. Hon. Albert S. Jenkins and other speakers are present.

ERIR, N. Y., June 27.—One hundred guns were fired here yesterday in honor of the nomination of Douglas. Military companies paraded, and the enthusiasm was very great.

The brig Ida Rogers arrived at San Francisco on the 1st inst., 25 days from Kanagawa. A battle had been fought near Jeddo, in which a Prince was killed. "The climate is pleasant and healthful—so mild that the camelia japonica, which here, on its native soil, grows to a large tree, blooms all the winter as well as summer. We have heavy spring rains, and in summer the rain is generally sufficient to prevent great drought. Wheat is now in the ear, and the rape which produces oil, in full bloom. Peas are also in flower, and the whole face of nature looks gay. The air is redolent with perfume, and were it not for human degradation and misery everywhere apparant, we might almost think this a paradise."

In the afternoon seven of the principal officers of the Embassy, including the princes and the chief interpreter, all of whom expressed their great pleasure at the Metropolitan ball, visited the widow of Commodore Perry, and were handsomely entertained. The officers of the naval commission, and the government interpreter, Mr. Portman, accompanied the Japanese. The collation was served up upon a Japanese table service, and the party were regaled with Japanese seki, or wine, imported by the Commodore. Com. Perry's children and grand-children were introduced to the Ambassadors. In response to Mrs. Perry's welcome, the chief Ambassador said that it gave him great pleasure to make Mrs. Perry's acquaintance. The memory of the late Commodore was held in high esteem by the government of Japan and by himself. Since the Commodore's visit, Japan had made great advances of the greatest importance to its prosperity. With so many articles of Japanese manufacture, the Japanese could not but feel entirely at home. He returned the thanks of the Ambassadors to Mrs. Perry and her friends.

After the conclusion of the mass in the Cathedral last Sunday, Archbishop Hughes ascended the pulpit and made a vigorous and stirring address of twenty minutes or so, on the position and difficulties of, the Sovereign Pentiff, and explained a plan he has adopted for conveying to the 'Holy Father' a substantial expression of the sympathy of this diocese. In the bold and expressive language of which the Archbishop is so great a master, he denounced with unmeasured severity the "transient emperors and contemptible kings," meaning, of course, Louis Napoleon and Victor Emmanuel—who, though pretending to be Catholics, had co-operated in despoiling the Pope of a part of his "pairimony," which, said his Grace, has been "anatched away by the sacrilegious hands of assesins and invaders." He announced that next Sunday he would preach a sermon which he has "no objection to see in prist," in which he will explain at length, as far as is possible in a single discourse, his views on this whole Italian question, and refute the lying statements of "Protestant papers and infidel bureaus established for the purpose of misleading the Catholic world." says:

THE NEW COMET.—The new comet was visible at Hoston, Monday night, about 9 o'clock, with the naked eye. The Journal says:

It presented in the telescope a beautiful appearance, throwing off a light filmy train of seven or eight degrees in length, from a bright, starlike nucleus. It increases in brilliancy from night to night: betowing to the bad state of the sky since its discovery, sufficient observations were not obtained by the astronomers at Cambridge for determining its elements till lest evening. A CHILD DEVOURED BYTHARS.—On Wednesday, 6th inst., a child flout four years of age, was carried off and devoured by a bear in the town of Ellenburgh, (fliaton county, N. Y. The child, a boy, went a short distance from his father's house, with a brother about eight years old, to fish in a brook. At schoollime, the oldest boy went into the house to prepare for school, and told his mother that his brother had remained at the brook, and would return in a short time. In a little while his mother went after him, but he was not to be found. She then called him, and heard him crying at a distance. The sounds rapidly receded und passed beyond hearing. The woman immediately alarmed her husband, who made search for the child without success. The neighbors were then notified and a general search took place till nightfall. Next day the alarm became more extensive, and the search, was renewed with increased energy. It was continued from day to day, without avail, till the following Monday, when a man passing a hollow log was growled at by a black bear. The bear was fired upon and killed. In the log were found two young bears, the missing child's clothes, and a portion of one of his legs. The cubs were dispatched, and upon and in the stomach of all three were found portions of the devoured boy.

SLACK ROPE PERFORMANCE BY A RAT.—Rats are somewhat proverbial for their natural instinct, which often manifests itself in expedients resorted to by them for self-preservation. We were witness of an instance of this a day or two since. Dick, our family cat, had caught a rat, and in its struggles for liberty and dear life the latter animal escaped upa post on which was stretched a clothes line. Out upon this the fugitive walked, a la Blondin and De Lav till he had reached what he doubtless considered a safe distance from his pursuer, where he paused to await the issue, watching, with distended orbs, his enemy the cat. The latter, meanwhile, had lost no time in pursuing his prey, and having reached the top of the post, attempted to imitate his ratiship in his slack-rope performances. But finding this impossible, he descended to the ground, and after pansing for a moment watching his prey he apparently became bewildered at the strange turn matters had taken, and returned to watch the hole from whence the rat had emerged. This was the rat's opportunity, and seizing upon it he descended to the ground and made good his escape.—Newpert (K. I.) News, June 25.

This was the rat's opportunity, and seizing upon it he descended to the ground and made good his escape.—Newpert (K. I.) News, June 25.

A ROYAL PRIEND.—The means in use by the degraded King of Naples for torturing suspected persons among his subjects, as described by the London Times, are most revolting. One person, for merely carrying a letter in cypher, was placed in a sack and kept beneath the water until he had loet consciousness three times. The thumb-screw was used to extortconfessions, and also an 'nstrument called the tourniquet, which was applied to the head, which makes the eyes start forth and almost drop. Pontillo, a lieutenant of Maniscaler, invented an arm chair, in which the victim is seated on a sorrof gadinos, nader which is a pan of coal. Another way was to tie the head of the victim between his legs, and leave him in that position until he confessed. Another instrument was the sbini, or "angelic instrument," in which, by turning a screw, the limbs of a victim are crushed. On one occasion a man was suspended in the air, his arms being tied to one wall and his legs to another, and in that position an officer of the police jumped upon him and beat him.

SUIT FOR FORPEITURE OP THE ISABEL.—The Charleston Mercury of the 20th inst., says that in the United States District Court, in the case of the United States against the steamship Isabel, which has been pending since June 8, Judge Magrath delivered his opinion yesterday, dismissing the libel on the ground that the evidence had not sustained the charge made against the vessel. The libel in this case was filed for a violation of the act prohibiting the delivery of foreign goods brought into an American port, before sunrise and after sunset, without the special license of the naval officer or collector of the port; and upon the delivery of any such goods to the amount of $400, the vessel is liable to forfeiture. The application was for the forfeiture of the steamer Isabel, on the charge of landing, without a permit, twenty-five thousand cigars, valued at near $800.

CHARMING VALEDICTORY.—Mrs. Dr. Lydia Sayre Hasbrouck has been compelled to vacate the editorial chair of the Sibyl temporarily. Hear her reason: "We are the fortunate owners of a clover field, and we have just returned from walking through and inhaling its sweets—such as no cosmetic can imitate. But above all the fruits, plants and flowers, we have another little nursing plant to tend and nestle to cur heart in the form of a little boy of ten days old, who lays quietly sleeping near as as we write this. A blue-eyed, fair-skinned, golden-haired and tender plant, he seems to meet the roughness of this world in striking contrast to aur dark-eyed little Daisy, whose place here seems, if possible, more vacant now that the little brother she so often asked us to get her has come among us."

TRIBUTE TO A NOBLE WOMAN.—Miss Medkirk, a teacher in the Fourteenth District
School at Cincinnati, who, during the memorable tornado in that city on the 21st of May, at the peril of her own life, nobly preserved the lives of the pupils under her charge, by resolutely standing at the door, although painfully wounded, and preventing their egrees, was, on Saturday last, presented by a number of citizens with a gold watch, valued at $175, and suitably inscribed. She was also granted
the freedom of the street railroads of the city, and about twenty of the railroads running

VIRGIBIA POST-OFFICE APPAIRS.—On route 4,560, Parkersburg to Jackson C. H., a second weekly trip is ordered, which is important to the good people of that region. The name and site of office at Republican Mills Fairfax county, is changed to Thornton's Depot, on the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, and Wm. H. Thornton appointed postmaster, vice John Powell. The office at Avo, Patrick county, is discontinued. Appointments to fill vacancies created by resignations: Robert S. Anderson postmaster at Applewood, Caroline county, vice Benson M. Wright. Josiah R. White postmaster at Hillsboro', Loudoun county, vice James Carroll. John Haines postmaster at Knob Fork, Wetzel County, vice B. B. Anderson.

A CREIOUR OLD CANSON.—The cannon with which the Brockport (N. Y.) people intend to fire the 4th of July salute is thus described by the Republic: It was cast at a government arsenal of Prussia, at Berlin, was taken from the Prussians by the English during a battle in the year 1778; was subsequently taken from the English by the Americans during the war of 1812. It is ten and a half feet long, has a four and a half inch bore, carries a twelve pound ball, and requires two and a half pounds of powder to charge it to its proper capacity. The gun weighs over two thousand pounds, aside from the carriage, which weighs as much more. It was purchased at the New York State Arsenal at Batavia. The price paid for it was 2300.

prisoners were set to the bar, Mesers. Johnson, August, and Orane, appeared as their coursel, and interrogated the withease who testified in behalf of the Commonwealth. We appead the anistance of the swidence, as follows:

About 10 o'clock on Saturday night, the 2d of Jane, watchmen Mundin and Hockler, while on their beat in the western part of the city, heard a noise near the comes of 2d and Broad, and started to ascertain the cause.—
Before getting to 2dstreat they not the prisoners, who seemed to be intoxicated, but as they were then quiet and accompanied by a sober man, said sothing to them. Soon after they pessed the party Mr. Fischer told them that he had been jostled from the sidewalk by the prisoners, and as they seemed disposed to get into a "muse," the watchmen turned about and followed them to Grill's corner, where they stopped and got into a scaffle. The watchmen then spoke to them, but did not arrest them, as Win. Aherrs promised to get them home. About this time Granville Roatell crossed from the south to the north side of Broad street, and when he got to the prisoners, they stopped him, Gill declaring that he could whip anything that walked on two feet. Montell told them to go away, and immediately after exclaimed that he was stabbed, at the same time showing a slight feeth wound on his left side. Watchman Heckler them took hold of Vanhorn to arrest him, and the officers holding on to their prisoner. When the parties souffied across 1st street, Mundin gave the distress rap for aid, the lookers on refusing to help him, and watchmen Davis and Orafton hearing the call, hastened up.—When they reached the scene, Orafton approached the prisoner, who was in the custody of Mundin and Heckler, and took hold of his right arm. Soon after he did so, he received a severe stabin the left side, near the ninth rib, and finding that he was badly injured, released his hold, exclaiming that he was wounded. Davis, not knowing that the parties were armed, and seeing that Gill was endeavoring to release Vanhorn, put h paring for short country trips, and any num-ber of private pic-nic parties are already made up. Certainly no better mode of cele-brating the 4th could be desired, than in so-cial gatherings and pleasant trips for recrea-

Hustings Judge.—We understand that Judge Lyons will qualify on the 1st of July, and will hold the first term of his Court on the 16th, that being the third Monday in the month. No criminal business can be transacted in this new Court before the August term, because of the simple fact that all felony cases have first to go before a Grand Jury, and that body does not meet until the second Monday in August, and every third month thereafter. The Judge will sit every three months, and will transact most of the civil business now disposed of by the Court of Aldermen. He has no jurisdiction over misdemeanors, all of which belong to the Hustings Court. When the Grand Jury meets and files bills of indictments against felons, they are then tried before the Judge, at any of his sessions; but until the Grand Jury has acted, the accused parties cannot be brought to trial. The Hustings Court will meet on the second Monday in each month, as heretofore, and will dispose of misdemeanors, etc., as well as sit as an examining Court on criminals charged with felony. Their duties will be materially abridged by the new Court.

Universalists' Sabbath School Pic-Nic.—The members and friends of this school held their annual pic-nic in the Fair Grounds, on Wednesday last. The company left the city in a special train of cars, at 9 o'clock A M., and returned at 7 P. M. Short religious services were held in the pavillion, consisting of singing, prayer and addresses, by Rev. Mr. Shrigley and J. W. Shields, Esq. Although the company was much larger than on any former occasion—many more being present than were expected-all were most cordially welcomed, and there were provisions enough left to have fed an hundred more. The chairman of the committee, Mr. Joyner, is certainly deserving of much praise for his zeal and efficiency in perfecting the arrangements. The school is now in a more prosperous condition than at any former period in its history, and numbers among its members some of the most efficient teachers in the city. Everything connected with this pic-nic passed off to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

with this pic-nic passed off to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Open the Books.—If books were opened for subscription to stock in the street railway from Rocketts to Brooke Avenue, there is very little doubt that all the money needed to complete and equip the road, could be secured in a single week. In other cities such improvements have proved profitable to the stockholders as well as serviceable to the community in which they are located, and similar results, with proper management, might be anticipated hive. Street railroads in Richmond would grobably not pay more than six per cent. for a year or two; but as the population increases the profits would become greater, and thus the company would be enabled ogrid-iron the city with their rails, and sapply every family appleasure carriage for visiting and shopping, at trifling coat.

The Yerk River Raitroad Company are hastening arward he completion of their works, and will soon be ready to land passengers at west Point, in a few hours' run. Superintendent Sharp is bending all his energies to the perfection of the read, and to that end has completed a neat and roomy shed at the corner of 23d and Dock streets, from which point the passenger trains will hereafter take their departure. This are arrangement, will save passengers a long ride or walk to and from the depot, and, as a consequence, will reduce back hire and posterage considerably lower than at present.

Soirce Maricale. By the the most pleasant and agreeable evaning that the friends of education have had the privilege of speading, was in attendance on the soirce sussicale of the Richmond Female I politizate, on Wednesday evening last. At an early hour—although the President had limited the number of ticket—the hall was densely crowded by a very intelligent and appreciative audience, and when the young ladies who were to perform on the occasion entered the hall, there was a voluntary burst of applease at the beauty and grace displayed. The exercises consisted of pieces of the finest and most difficult music, both vocal and instrumental, and the solos, duests, trice and choruses were readered in that happy style that only well practiced performers an command, and displayed a high state of cultivation.

There have been a number of interesting exercises held by the Institute during this Commencement. On Friday last, Rev. A. J. Huntingdon, of Farmyille, addressed them; on Sabbath evening last, Rev. Dr. Barrows delivered the Valedictory; on Konday evening, Rev. T. G. Keen, of Petersburg, addressed the Literary Society, and on Tuesday sevening, the Commencement Exercises proper were held at the First Baptist Church.

Charged with Felony—Yesterday afternoon, a man named James W. Richardson, a salior, was arrested on the dock charged with atealing $110 in money, and a yawl, worth $25, from Lake P. Malloy, Capusin of the schooser Irey, now lying in this port. The robbery is said to have been committed in the waters of Maryland. Mr. Malloy, while his vessel was at anchor, went ashore on business. In his absence, Richardson helped himself to the money, took possession of the yawl and left, making his way to this part, where he was discovered by the Captain and arrested. He will probably be examined before the U.S. Court for trial.

The Encampment at the Fair Grounds part

The Encomponent at the Fair Grounds, next. November, promises to be a grand affair for the Cavalry, hundreds of whom will assemble to receive instructions in their duties as soldiers. One of the officers informs us that he expects to see at least ten commands of horseon the field; and others have hopes that they will be joined by infantry companies from the adjoining counties, and that the display will surpass anything of the kind ever witnessed in Virginia.

Imposition on Travelers.—To prevent the continual complaints of exorbitant charges by hackmen, it has been suggested that the Superintendents of the various Railroads leading into this city, should have the ordinance rates printed and posted in their cars, and that the various boarding-house and hotel keepers also post them in conspicuous places, so that their patrons can see and understand them at a glance.

U. S. Attorney.—John M. Gregory, Esq.,
U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, has resigned his office, and P. H. Aylett, Eq., of this city, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Aylett is an able lawyer, and will no doubt discharge the duties of his office with promptness and fidelity.

HONORARY DEGREES.—At the commencement of Columbia (D. C.) College, Tuesday, the henorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred on the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, of Marietta, Ga., and on Henry R. Brown, artist, now of South Carolina. Also, the honorary degree of Doctar of Divinity upon the Rev. Robert Ryland, president of Richmond College, and on the Rev. Henry R. Tucker, professor of metaphysics and belies letters of Macon University, Georgia, both of whom are alumni of this college.

ELOPEMENT OF A LOUISVILLE BELLE WITH HEM MUSIC TRACHER.—A day or two since, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, one of the reigning belies of Louisville, Ky., a member there of the beau monde, and the only daughter and helress of a druggist, worth at least half a million, eloped with her music teacher, a middle-aged German, and, after going through the necessary formula of the hymenial connection, at Cincinnati, departed en route for Europe.

A FEMALE RAIL FENCE BUILDER.—In Frankin county, Tenn., there is a woman who can beat Abe Lincoln all hellow at his favorite game. One of the Deputy Marshals for that county made the acquaintance of a lady 75 years old, who built 300 yards of good rock fence within the last year, with her own hands; and what is more, she gathered and carried in her arms all the materials of which the fence is built.

THE STRAMER BEN LEWIS.—The total number lost by the explosion of the Hen Lewis is about twenty, including three whe died of their injuries. McGinnis, the Chief Engineer, thinks the boat listed at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to such as extent as to empty one boiter for possibly one minute. The Ohio river is very low, and the Mississippi quite high.
