

Richmond Dispatch

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1862

Burnside and Goldsborough's Proclamations

As soon as the Yankees got a foothold on Southern soil, their leaders have a proclamation in which they contain as with a description of their character and purpose. According to their own account of themselves, they are the most humane and honest people in the world, and have no intention of interfering with the property or rights of any body, even when they have them.

Resolved, That the Messenger of the Council be instructed to notify each of the daily papers of the city, to attend a meeting of the Council in the hall.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A like petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

LOCAL MATTERS

City Council—A special called meeting of this body was held at the City Hall, at 4 o'clock on Monday evening.

Whereas, the existing war with the United States of America, and the appointment of the City Council has voted, and is likely to continue to vote, a large amount of money for the equipment of volunteers, and the support of their families during their absence.

Resolved, That it is deemed advisable by this committee that so far as possible the amount of money to be raised should be reduced, and for the purpose of carrying out these views, the committee be requested to submit a report to the City Council.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

A petition of the German Hebrew Cemetery, asking a donation of land for the enlargement of the cemetery, was read and referred to the Committee on the City Grounds and Buildings.

CONFEDERATE CONGRESS

SENATE, Tuesday, March 11th, 1862.

In the Senate yesterday the open session was principally taken up in discussing a bill introduced by Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, chairman of the committee on Indian Affairs, entitled "an act to provide for the organization of the Arkansas and Red River superintendency of Indian Affairs."

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES

SENATE, Tuesday, March 11th, 1862.

At 11 o'clock, prayer by Rev. Mr. [Name]. A number of House bills introduced this morning were referred to the committee on the part of the Confederate States for the consideration of the House.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

The bill was read and referred to the committee on Indian Affairs. The bill relates to the relations and general control of the Indian tribes of the West, and provides for the appointment of agents to be stationed at various points on the frontier, and also the appointment of a general superintendent.

Official Report of Brig. Gen. Floyd of the Battle of Fort Donelson

Yesterday afternoon the President of the two Houses of Congress in a official report of the battle of Fort Donelson, accompanied with the following brief message:

Executive Department, March 11, 1862. To the Speaker of the House of Representatives: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the report of the battle of Fort Donelson, and to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the War Department for their consideration.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

The report of the battle of Fort Donelson, as given by the commanding general, is a most interesting and valuable document. It shows the bravery and skill of our troops, and the gallantry of our officers.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

LATEST FROM THE NORTH

THE FEDERAL ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE AT HAMPTON ROADS. The great naval battle of the 5th and 6th, and the disaster to the Federal army, reached the North on Sunday last. The Herald says it is a slight victory, combined with recitation on the part of the Union army.

It was the intention of the Union army to have the Merrimack, having a 700-ton crew, to be destroyed. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.

The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats. The Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats, and the Merrimack was destroyed by the Federal gunboats.