

ADDITIONAL FROM THE NORTH.

We give some further extracts from our New York file of the 9th inst. NEW YORK ELECTION—SPEECH OF GOV. SEYMOUR. The election in New York, for members of the Legislature and other State officers, was to take place yesterday.

Both parties have covered their eyes chiefly with the election of members of the Legislature—the Democrats, anxious to get a body willing to second their Governor, and the Republicans hoping to embarrass him by an opposition Senate and House. Gov. Horatio Seymour made a speech on Friday last at Syracuse, before a very large meeting.

The most noticeable fact (according to the newspaper papers) connected with the meeting was that of the list of Vice-Presidents. The party most endeavored to elect for President, and for Wadsworth last year Governor, but who in the approaching election intended to vote the Democratic ticket. We copy one or two extracts from Gov. Seymour's speech:

One year ago we were a people united in purpose—to-day we are divided. We are divided in our views on the great question of the Union and the Constitution. To-day the South, which was strong to fall to pieces, is united, and apparently as strong as ever. Why? The party most endeavored to elect for President, and for Wadsworth last year Governor, but who in the approaching election intended to vote the Democratic ticket.

For every 100 men were drawn, in order to make sure of the hundred. General Fry reports that he has reported for every 150 drawn. Of those reported, he says that 30 per cent. are ex-convicts, and the remainder are men of good character. The second section of the act, leaving 40 per cent. of every 100 men to be drawn, is a mere formality. The act is a mere formality. The act is a mere formality.

For every 100 men were drawn, in order to make sure of the hundred. General Fry reports that he has reported for every 150 drawn. Of those reported, he says that 30 per cent. are ex-convicts, and the remainder are men of good character. The second section of the act, leaving 40 per cent. of every 100 men to be drawn, is a mere formality.

For every 100 men were drawn, in order to make sure of the hundred. General Fry reports that he has reported for every 150 drawn. Of those reported, he says that 30 per cent. are ex-convicts, and the remainder are men of good character. The second section of the act, leaving 40 per cent. of every 100 men to be drawn, is a mere formality.

For every 100 men were drawn, in order to make sure of the hundred. General Fry reports that he has reported for every 150 drawn. Of those reported, he says that 30 per cent. are ex-convicts, and the remainder are men of good character. The second section of the act, leaving 40 per cent. of every 100 men to be drawn, is a mere formality.

For every 100 men were drawn, in order to make sure of the hundred. General Fry reports that he has reported for every 150 drawn. Of those reported, he says that 30 per cent. are ex-convicts, and the remainder are men of good character. The second section of the act, leaving 40 per cent. of every 100 men to be drawn, is a mere formality.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Charged with a Heinous Crime.—Yesterday morning John Johnson, a colored man, was arrested before the Mayor to answer the charge of feloniously shooting and killing Richard Morris, of C. D. City. Johnson was a negro of the name of Johnson, and was a resident of the city of Richmond.

Violating an Order.—We have to thank the Second Division for a ticket from the Second Division, dated October 3d, for 1515 in a folder, which was seized by some of the Confederate officers and sent to the Hon. Mary Hill, who is a resident of the city of Richmond.

Need for Grain.—The occupation of every farmer in the State who has not already covered all his land with corn and rye. The scarcity of grain will make the oat and rye crop exceedingly valuable next spring, and the price will be high.

Lost Stray.—A white horse, one year old, with a white blaze on its face, and a white star on its forehead, was lost on the 24th of October, near the intersection of the main road and the road leading to the city of Richmond.

Incident.—Between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning the carriage-house of Mr. E. C. Pleasant, near 30th Street, Church Hill, was broken into, and the flames were discovered the neighbors were aroused, and hastening to the scene, began the work of rescuing such property as could be moved.

Stealing a Watch.—Yesterday morning a young man, who gave his name as Henry Clark, was arrested by the Mayor for stealing a gold watch from Theodore Holins, on the 28th of October. Clark was arrested in Petersburg, by officer Doan, of that city, and was brought to Richmond.

Light Weights.—Ballard Kersey, an attendant at the Second Market, was before the Mayor yesterday morning to answer the charge of selling for sale a pound of meat for one hundred, for which he received $100. Kersey sold the meat by measure, which is a violation of law—and at first refused to make up the missing eight pounds, but on finding that he had been deceived, he paid it over. The Mayor reprimanded him for selling by measure instead of weight, and after assuring him that a second violation would cost him heavily, discharged him.

Occupying the Sidewalk.—Yesterday morning the Mayor called the attention of his police to the ordinance concerning negroes on the streets, and directed the chief to enforce it rigidly from this time if he had to call to his aid all the force of the night and day departments. By this ordinance negroes are commanded to give the sidewalk to the crossings to white persons—they are to walk on the outside of the footway, and if necessary to make room for white persons, they are to go into the carriage-way.

Receiving Stolen Goods.—Edward Meyer, the keeper of a shoe-shop at the corner of 8th Street and Cary Street, was before the Mayor yesterday morning to answer the charge of receiving stolen goods. Meyer was arrested by the Mayor's police, and was found in possession of a pair of shoes which had been stolen from a merchant in the city of Richmond.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The President arrived here this evening by special train from Charleston, and was received at the Manchester Depot by Gen. Whiting, at his residence, and was welcomed by Wm. A. Wright, Esq. The President replied in an able speech, in which he stated that he was proud to be greeted by so large a concourse of North Carolinians to the ancient and honored town of Wilmington, upon whose soil he hoped the foot of an invading foe might never fall.

PROCLAMATIONS.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

By the Governor of Virginia.—A Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, in which he announced that he had received from the Executive of the State of Virginia, a copy of the Constitution of that State, and that he had caused it to be printed and distributed to the several counties of the State.

MILITARY NOTICES.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICE TO Young Men.—Those who have enlisted in the United States Army, and who are now serving in the ranks, are ordered to report to their respective regiments, on the 15th of November, 1865, for the purpose of being mustered out of the service.

NOTICES.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICES.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.

NOTICE.—A young man, 20 years of age, with a fair complexion, and a good education, is seeking a situation in a mercantile office. He is a native of the State of Virginia, and is a member of the Baptist Church.