

ST. J. A. DONAHUE & CO. THE DAILY DISPATCH is sold to carriers and others at TEN CENTS per copy.

THE WAR NEWS-OPERATIONS ON THE RICHMOND FRONT. The report from the Southside is full of interest. With the exception of some skirmishes on the past three days, our troops have held the enemy in his entrenchments near Bermuda Hundred, where he has an opportunity to communicate with the sea.

Information has been received that the Yankees have based an old negro named Columbus who for many years past has been in the employments of the Petersburg railroad company. Columbus stayed in the 'Fort Walker' camp of the company. The negro will soon begin to find out who his friends are.

The heavy firing on Monday night is supposed to have proceeded from the Yankee gunboats, pointing their usual aimment of shelling the woods down the river. We have no further particulars of the operations of Saturday night. It appears that our forces were picketing very heavily, and were in the enemy's camp.

During the engagement Capt. Marshall, of the 1st Virginia Cavalry, commanding Smith's battery, was severely, but not mortally, wounded. A Minnie ball struck him in the month, carrying away two or three teeth and fracturing the jaw. This is the only casualty that we have heard of.

On Saturday last, our troops were engaged in capturing one of the enemy's picket posts, and took twenty-three Yankee prisoners, who were forwarded to Petersburg. Among the troops who did the hardest fighting on Friday, in the vicinity of Ware Branch Church, and to whom proper credit has not heretofore been given, were the 17th and 18th South Carolina regiments.

Confederate States Congress. The Senate met at 12 o'clock yesterday, Mr. Hunter, of Va., in the Chair. The credentials of the Hon. Hester V. Johnson, of Va., were read, and he was admitted and took the oath of office.

Mr. Sparrow presented resolutions of the General Assembly of Louisiana in relation to the military and commissary departments to be detailed or assigned to the duty of auditing and paying claims of the citizens of Louisiana for property impressed by order of the military and commissary departments.

Mr. Barnwell, of S. C., from the Finance Committee, reported a bill to authorize certain officers to receive and disburse money for the purchase of supplies and transportation, and to provide for the payment of the interest on said certificates in specie.

On the conclusion of Mr. Graham's remarks, the resolution was read, and the committee on the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus, to take effect on the expiration of the present term of the present Congress.

Mr. Miles also reported back with amendments, Senate bill to amend the act to allay State in communicating with and receiving aid from the enemy's troops, and the bill was taken up and passed.

FROM GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT. We had a little excitement last evening, but it was all quiet as a summer morning. It was ascertained yesterday that the enemy was again retreating from our left front, where he had been so long and so successfully entrenched.

REPORTED CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER. It is currently reported that the steamer Greyhound was captured by the blockade fleet off Wilmington. She had eight hundred bales of Government cotton on board, and among her passengers was Mr. Edward A. Pollard, of this city, who was on his way to Europe to superintend the publication of his History of the War.

DEATH OF GEN. ALBERT G. JENKINS. Intelligence has been received of the death of Brig. Gen. Albert G. Jenkins, who was severely wounded in the fight near Dublin Depot, southwestern Virginia, on the 8th inst. It is but a few days since a dispatch was received announcing his improving condition, and his friends looked forward with pleasure to the period of his recovery.

PROMOTED. It is announced that Major Gen. Richard Taylor, who has for the last eighteen months conducted operations in the Trans-Mississippi department with signal ability and success, has had conferred upon him the rank and title of Lieutenant General. We understand that this distinction was conferred at the instance of the General commanding that department, as an acknowledgment of his recent brilliant and triumphant campaign against Banks.

CONFEDERATE STATES CONGRESS. The Senate met at 12 o'clock yesterday, Mr. Hunter, of Va., in the Chair. The credentials of the Hon. Hester V. Johnson, of Va., were read, and he was admitted and took the oath of office.

Mr. Sparrow presented resolutions of the General Assembly of Louisiana in relation to the military and commissary departments to be detailed or assigned to the duty of auditing and paying claims of the citizens of Louisiana for property impressed by order of the military and commissary departments.

Mr. Barnwell, of S. C., from the Finance Committee, reported a bill to authorize certain officers to receive and disburse money for the purchase of supplies and transportation, and to provide for the payment of the interest on said certificates in specie.

On the conclusion of Mr. Graham's remarks, the resolution was read, and the committee on the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus, to take effect on the expiration of the present term of the present Congress.

Mr. Miles also reported back with amendments, Senate bill to amend the act to allay State in communicating with and receiving aid from the enemy's troops, and the bill was taken up and passed.

Mr. Miles also reported back with amendments, Senate bill to amend the act to allay State in communicating with and receiving aid from the enemy's troops, and the bill was taken up and passed.

Mr. Miles also reported back with amendments, Senate bill to amend the act to allay State in communicating with and receiving aid from the enemy's troops, and the bill was taken up and passed.

THE GREAT ASSAULT ON NEW CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina met on the 17th inst., and Gov. Vance's message was read before it. Gov. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

THE GREAT ASSAULT ON NEW CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina met on the 17th inst., and Gov. Vance's message was read before it. Gov. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

THE GREAT ASSAULT ON NEW CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina met on the 17th inst., and Gov. Vance's message was read before it. Gov. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

Mr. Vance's message was full of interest, and contained many important suggestions for the improvement of the State. He alluded to the state of the country, and the progress of the war.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Arrest of a Thief.—Some time since the store-room attached to the residence of John D. Harvey, on 9th street, between Clay and Main streets, was broken into, and a quantity of goods were stolen.

Unfounded Charge.—A man named John C. Davis was yesterday arrested on the charge of stealing a pig from the premises of Mr. B. B. Burke, on 12th street.

Prisoners.—There being an ordinance prohibiting drivers from running their vehicles on the streets, a number of drivers were arrested yesterday.

Deaths.—There were several deaths reported yesterday, including a young man named John D. Harvey, who died of a fever.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

Public Notice.—The undersigned has for sale a quantity of goods, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, at a low price.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM NEW YORK. The New York Herald reports that the Yankees have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM RICHMOND. The Richmond Dispatch reports that the Yankees have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM WASHINGTON. The Washington Post reports that the President has issued a proclamation regarding the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus.

FROM NEW ORLEANS. The New Orleans Times reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM MEMPHIS. The Memphis Commercial Appeal reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM CHARLOTTE. The Charlotte Observer reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM CINCINNATI. The Cincinnati Commercial reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM ST. LOUIS. The St. Louis Dispatch reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM PHOENIX. The Phoenix Gazette reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO. The San Francisco Chronicle reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.

FROM LOS ANGELES. The Los Angeles Herald reports that the Confederates have captured a large quantity of goods from the Petersburg railroad company.