

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 28 1863

The DAILY DISPATCH is sold to carriers and others at TEN CENTS per copy.

THE WAR NEWS.

Yesterday, contrary to the general expectation was a comparatively quiet day in every direction, and we have consequently very little news from the armies to lay before our readers this morning. We give below such facts as were available to collect.

THE WAR NEWS.

A courier arrived last evening from Gen. Beauregard's headquarters, and reported that no new movement had taken place. A slight skirmishing continues, with an occasional discharge of artillery, but the enemy does not venture outside of his entrenched positions to make an attack upon our lines. It is probable that this state of quiet cannot be long duration, and we may soon have stirring news from the Southern side.

THE WAR NEWS.

In the light of Friday last, near Warrenton Church, Evans' brigade, commanded by General W. S. Walker, which made the daring and successful charge upon the enemy's works, lost two hundred and twenty-two killed and wounded. This brigade is composed of the 17th, 19th, 21st, and 25th South Carolina regiments, all of which are equally entitled to credit for gallantry on the occasion.

FROM GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.

From Manassas Junction we learn that no general engagement has yet taken place. On Monday evening, as stated yesterday, Warren's corps assaulted General A. P. Hill's lines, and were checked. On Tuesday there was heavy skirmishing all day, and about midnight the enemy assaulted Pearson's division, commanded by Brigadier General Mahone, who repulsed them. On Wednesday, Mahone charged the enemy, driving them back, capturing a number of prisoners, among them (says one informant) "A. A. G." to Barnard and a Quartermaster.

FROM GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.

With the exception of a little cannonading in front, all was quiet up to 1 o'clock yesterday, at which hour the train left Taylorville for Richmond. The following official dispatch was received yesterday morning:

TAYLORVILLE, May 24—9:30 P. M. Gen. Lee's Army.

The enemy has been making feeble attempts upon our lines to-day, probably with a view of ascertaining our position. They were repulsed. Gen. Sigel's division, consisting of three regiments of colored and white troops, among them an old regiment of colored troops.

FROM GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.

Our wounded to the equipments above mentioned were brought down last evening and sent to the various hospitals. They all appear to be doing well. We have had a number of cases for encouragement in the hospital. A bloody battle may occur any day, which the constant skirmishing would seem to be the precursor of. According to the opinion of many persons, Grant may seek to avoid a collision in the present line, by making a movement towards the Peninsula, taking West Point as his base of operations.

FROM GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.

The second train last evening brought down one hundred and thirty Yankee prisoners captured, we understand, on Monday morning. They were sent to the lines. This captured by Mahone on Tuesday was reported by another train.

AN AFFAIR IN CHARLES CITY COUNTY.

Many rumors were in circulation yesterday of an exaggerated character, concerning an affair with the enemy in Charles City county. Occupation at headquarters last night we learned the following facts: On Tuesday evening a portion of Gen. Fitz Lee's cavalry moved into Charles City on a reconnaissance and found the enemy, composed of white and colored troops, about five miles from Richmond. They were repulsed, and the enemy retreated to a point in this county, where they were again repulsed. The result was a bloody battle, in which the enemy lost a number of men and horses. The Confederates captured a number of prisoners, including a Quartermaster and a Surgeon.

THE FIGHTING IN GEORGIA.

The Atlanta Appeal, of the 20th, has the following intelligence from the fighting in Georgia. The last account received from the front by train was that the fighting was still in progress between Charles City and Kingston. Both armies were within two miles of each other, and the fighting was expected to continue for some time. The reported capture of twenty-two hundred Yankees by General Sherman's army was also mentioned.

THE FIGHTING IN GEORGIA.

There was no fighting Thursday. The Federal soldiers have retreated and our army has moved forward. The fighting was expected to continue for some time. The reported capture of twenty-two hundred Yankees by General Sherman's army was also mentioned.

Burnley, whose fate has not been ascertained.

The facts of this murder are not based upon rumor. They are from the sworn statements of persons who witnessed the deed. The regiment was the 99th regiment U. S. colored troops, Col Draper commanding.

CONFEDERATE STATES CONGRESS.

Senate.—The Senate met yesterday at 12 o'clock. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Misonroe, of the Episcopal Church. Mr. Wason, of Ala., introduced a bill to explain and amend the law relating to imprisonment of debtors to the Joint Committee on Improvements.

Mr. Johnston, of Ala., introduced a bill to create a Department of Foreign and Interior Affairs, and to regulate the collection of import and export duties. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Hill's motion to reconsider the vote by which he passed the bill to allow reports to be made to the Joint Committee on Improvements was taken up, and the vote being reconsidered, the bill was rejected.

The bill to regulate the pay of a General assigned to duty at the seat of Government under the provisions of the act approved March 25, 1862, was taken up.

Mr. Orr, of S. C., addressed the Senate at length in opposition to the bill, and especially in opposition to Gen. Bragg, the present incumbent of the office of Commanding General.

Mr. Sprague and Sumner, of La., and Mr. Henry, of Tenn., addressed the bill and defended Gen. Bragg.

Mr. Barnett, of Ky., favored the bill, though he did not admit Gen. Bragg. The fact of his opposition to the bill was postponed till to-day, and the Senate then resolved into secret session.

House of Representatives.—Prayer by the Rev. Dr. J. C. of the Baptist Church. Mr. Taylor, member elect from Texas, and Messrs. Kiser and Hodges, managers elect from Louisiana, appeared and took the oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States.

A communication was received from the President, in response to a resolution of the House, concerning the distribution of the mails in the city of Richmond, which was referred to the Committee on Post-Offices and Post-Roads.

Mr. Russell, of Virginia, called up his resolution, and the House proceeded to consider it. The resolution was adopted.

ADDITIONAL FROM THE NORTH.

The New York Herald, of the 19th, contains some news which is condensed in its "edition" article given below:

Mr. Stanton dispatched to Gen. Dix, at a quarter past twelve last night, that an official intelligence had been received by the time of his writing, and that he designed to move against the Government. Mr. Stanton was further informed that the Government was to be notified of the rebellion in the morning, and that the Government was to be notified of the rebellion in the morning.

A large proclamation, alleged to have come from the President, called for four hundred thousand men, and proposing a day of humiliation and prayer, was sent from the White House to the press of this city yesterday morning, with the view of its being distributed to the press of this city yesterday morning, with the view of its being distributed to the press of this city yesterday morning.

The Baltimore Transcript has also been suspended for publishing a report that the President had ordered a military force to be sent to the city of Baltimore, and that the President had ordered a military force to be sent to the city of Baltimore.

Our correspondents from Gen. Butler's force give a very perfect account in our columns of the late attack on the city of New Orleans, and of the capture of the city of New Orleans, and of the capture of the city of New Orleans.

Everything that relates to the operations of our army has the most favorable appearance. As the result of the late operations, the army has been victorious, and the result of the late operations, the army has been victorious.

A Yankee Keelboat Point Lookout.

A writer in the New York Herald gives a description of the prison arrangements at Point Lookout, Md., through Yankee spectacles. It will be a matter of interest to many of our brave soldiers who have experienced the hospital facilities of the place, as well as the general public to read an account, however true-colored it may be, of this famous prison house.
