

THEIR soft-money colleagues because they did not choose that the Republican minority should lay down financial planks for them. But the majority have voted for these resolutions to help make party capital, although contrary to their own sentiments, and have been exceedingly reticent, and have given notice that they were getting tired of voting in Democratic resolutions which they did not desire to do.

IN DEFERENCE to this significant intimation the hard-money Republicans abstained yesterday from their accustomed pastime, as they were not desirous of exposing the split in their own party. It is believed that had Mr. Holman succeeded in getting his specie-resumption repeal resolution before the House it would have received some Republican support, as the Republican vote would have dodged. Each day shows that the inflation party still rears its hydra head. Mr. Kelley professes to represent one million Republican voters who want more currency, and in this assumption he is perhaps not over-enthusiastic. The signs of the times indicate that the movement among the Republicans to have no advantage over the Democrats in the presidential campaign, but will be equally split up and divided. As has been stated, it is to be expected, as a matter of course, that President Grant will veto any act repealing the specie-resumption act, and within the last day or two some are beginning to say that it depends? At all events, if Congress should adjourn without action in this respect there are those who confidently anticipate that a demand for repeal will be inserted in the national platform of both parties.

THREE NOTABLE MEN. (Washington Correspondence of Boston Journal.) While Lamar was making his speech in the Senate, a notable group of men gathered near him. Everybody on the floor and in the galleries, even to the unwashed, white and colored, in the upper tier, who daily there congregate to be soothed to sleep by the soporific influence of congressional eloquence, was listening to the slow, impassioned words of the orator of the South as he stirred phrase by phrase the apostrophized Union. But of the listeners all, none wore an air of such peculiar interest as the aged and venerable man who stood against a desk and occasionally leaned over to exchange hurried comment with the others. He was a man of about sixty years of age, with a full head of white hair, and a face that had the appearance of having been weathered by the winds of a long and stormy life. He was dressed in a simple, but elegant, suit of dark cloth, and his manner was that of a man who had seen much of the world and was not easily impressed. He was the late Senator from Virginia, Mr. Wm. W. Hunter.

THE $30,000 RACE AT SAN FRANCISCO. SAN FRANCISCO, February 22.—The attendance at the Bay race-track to witness the four-mile and repeat race for a $30,000 purse was very large. It is estimated 20,000 persons were present. The track was in fine condition, weather fair, light wind. Rutherford was the favorite in the pool. The race was started at 12:30 o'clock. Foster, Hook Hocking, Chance, Katie Pease, Revenue, and Golden Gate. Both beats were won by Foster; Rutherford second, and the rest distanced. Time, 7:39, 7:53. At the finish of the fourth mile in the first heat Hock Hocking was apparently a fair third, the rest being distanced, and for the remainder of the whole ascent Hock Hocking was excelled and distanced. The ruling in his case excited universal dissatisfaction. Much unfavorable comment was made on the judges, it being claimed by many that Hock Hocking had run a waiting race and was shut out purposely to prevent such a result.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONNECTICUT GREENBACK CONVENTION.—Resolutions were adopted declaring the national finances to be in a deplorable condition; demanding the repeal of the resumption act; claiming that that act, by creating distrust of the future, has paralyzed enterprise and thrown the producers of wealth out of employment; that the national note should be made a legal tender, exchangeable for intravention Government bonds, bearing low interest, at par with coin; that high and fluctuating rates of interest can only be prevented by diminishing the amount of currency at seasons when the demand for it is excessive; that the national note should be gradually retired, and the Government have nothing to do with banking; that it should merely coin and issue national money, but no paper money should be allowed; that national paper money be issued by the Treasury only when paid for by Government bonds; that neither Congress nor banks be allowed any more control over the amount of paper than they would have over coinage; that Congress should simply adopt a system by which currency would automatically regulate and limit itself according to the amount of gold and silver in circulation; that the surplus would then flow into bonds, and whenever the currency became too scarce bonds would be converted into currency, thus making the supply always equal but never exceed the legitimate demand. By this plan a considerable portion of the national debt would be canceled, and the bulk of the debt need be funded, not exceeding 44 per cent, and probably at 3.50 gold, or paper at par with gold. Finally, a policy should be adopted the tendency of which would be to diminish our foreign obligations and have the American debt owed to American citizens.

THE REVIVAL IN NEW YORK.—New York, February 22.—The no-day service at the Hippodrome to-day was one of the largest since the advent of Messrs. Moody and Sankey. There was a larger choir than usual, and the hymns were rendered with greater effect. The usual number of requests for prayer were read, including one from the condemned murderer Rubenstein, that the Lord Jesus would be revealed to his crushed and sinful soul. Dr. S. H. Tyng, Sr., prayed for the whole country, referring in appropriate terms to the Father of his Country, whose birthday was being celebrated. Mr. Moody then discoursed on the subject of the resurrection of the dead, and the resurrection of the body, and the resurrection of the soul, and the resurrection of the spirit, and the resurrection of the heart, and the resurrection of the mind, and the resurrection of the will, and the resurrection of the intellect, and the resurrection of the emotions, and the resurrection of the affections, and the resurrection of the desires, and the resurrection of the passions, and the resurrection of the faculties, and the resurrection of the powers, and the resurrection of the senses, and the resurrection of the organs, and the resurrection of the members, and the resurrection of the parts, and the resurrection of the whole.

INDIANS. WASHINGTON, February 22.—Twelve months back what is known as the inflation party had, outside of Pennsylvania, scarcely a foothold in the whole Free of States from Maine to the Potomac. At this period what is known as the greenback party is showing itself in every part of the country, and a considerable proportion of the petitions coming to Congress for the repeal of the specie-resumption act are from the East. It was only the other day that a petition was signed in the Senate asking this repeal, and the New York Orderly as president of the inflation party is growing in popularity, and the country will be blessed with the grandest line of the centennial year.
