

WEATHER REPORT.

INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—For the Middle States, the storm will move northward, followed by rising barometer, north to west winds, stationary and lower temperature, with clearing weather in the latter, and with generally cloudy weather and continued light rains or snow in the former.

For the South Atlantic States, rising barometer, warm southwesterly wind, cooler northwesterly winds, and generally clear weather.

Cautionary signs continue at Cape Henry, Atlantic City, Barnegat, Cape May, Sandy Hook, &c.

For the Middle Atlantic States, and during the month of February, winds blowing from the east-northeast or south-southeast, or from directions between those points, are found to be the winds most likely to be followed by rain or snow. Winds blowing from the north-northwest, or west-southwest, are found to be the winds least likely to be followed by rain or snow.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY was clear and mild.
THERMOMETER YESTERDAY: 6 A. M., 58; 9 A. M., 64; noon, 74; 3 P. M., 70; 6 P. M., 66; midnight, 62.

LOCAL MATTERS.

EAST HANOVER PRESBYTERY.—ACTION IN THE COURT OF REV. G. L. PETRIE.—A special meeting of this body was held in the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian church (Dr. Preston's) on yesterday at 11 o'clock A. M., to consider an application of the Rev. G. L. Petrie for a dissolution of his pastoral relation and a transfer to West Hanover, with the view of presiding over the congregation of that church. The following paper, offered by the Rev. Dr. Petrie, was adopted:

The Rev. G. L. Petrie having applied for a dissolution of his pastoral relation with the Second Presbyterian church of Petersburg, and for a dismission to the Presbytery of West Hanover, with the view of presiding over the congregation of that church, and the commissioners appointed for the purpose having presented the resolutions adopted at the congregational meeting of the Second church of Petersburg, signifying his reluctant acquiescence in the request of the said Petrie, the Presbytery of East Hanover do hereby declare that the relation between Mr. Petrie and that church be dissolved, and also orders that a dismission to the Presbytery of West Hanover be granted.

In severing the tie which for six years has united Mr. Petrie to this body and to the church in which he has ministered, this Presbytery cannot refrain from giving some expression to the regret which all of its members feel at this separation. Year by year the session records of the Second Presbyterian church of Petersburg have testified to the identity and success with which he has discharged the duties of the pastoral office, as illustrated in the regular and encouraging additions to the membership of the church, the increasing zeal and liberality with which the people of his charge have responded to the calls of church benevolence.

As a Presbytery we have had experience of his efficiency in the management of all ecclesiastical interests entrusted to him, and we will continue to cherish the remembrance of the many instances of his industry which has characterized all his intercourse with the members of our body; and in parting from him we commend him to the confidence and love of the people to whom he goes, with the prayer that his labors there will be blessed with the rich favor and blessing of the Great Head of the Church.

The Presbytery, after the usual devotional exercises, adjourned.

PREACHING TO THE DEAF AND DUMB.—By reference to our religious notices it will be seen that there will be a service in St. Paul's church to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock for the benefit of the deaf and dumb. It will be conducted by Professor Job Turner, who will be remembered by many in Richmond from his services in the vicinity of the Staunton mutter some years ago. Since then Professor Turner has been licensed as a lay-reader by Bishop Whittle, and has been officiating in several dioceses. He comes to Richmond with a strong endorsement from the diocesan synod, and philanthropic Rev. Dr. Galbreath, and it is to be hoped that all the mutes in and around Richmond will go to see Professor Turner. All who desire to attend are cordially invited to do so; and no doubt many of our citizens will be glad to witness the impressive service.

OBSERVANCE OF THE TWENTY-SECOND.—There was no general observance of the 22d of February in Richmond. Business was suspended at the custom-house and other Government offices; the post-office was closed except during Sunday-hours, the Richmond Board was not in session, the little business was transacted at the Tobacco or Corn and Flour Exchanges. The custom-house and a few other buildings were gaily decorated, and flags were displayed on the shipping at Rocketts.

THE JAMES RIVER AND KANAWHA CANAL COMPANY.—The meeting of the stockholders of the James River and Kanawha Canal Company and the Buchanan and Clifton-Forge Railway Company, called for yesterday, was adjourned over without the transaction of any business until Friday, March 1st, at 4 o'clock P. M. Captain Joffile, the chief engineer, is above Lynchburg consulting with parties in reference to the speedy extension of the canal west of that point.

PERSONAL.—Among the visitors to the Tobacco Exchange yesterday were D. R. Osgood, Philadelphia; William F. Smith, Milton, N. C.; George Sexton, Hartford, Conn.; T. C. West, Putnam, Va.; John S. Brown, Norfolk; J. Brown, Howardsville; W. G. Snead, Fittswood; J. Boling, Henrico; Joseph W. Baker, Louisa; J. O. Halsey, New York; C. H. Bliss, Farmville; E. B. Goode, Mecklenburg; John W. Goss, Jr., Albemarle; C. B. Luck, Clinchmount; and J. S. Winfree, Powhatan.

THE DEAD JUDGE.
Arrangements for the Funeral to Take Place To-Day.

NOTICEABLE TRAITS OF JUDGE GUIGON'S CHARACTER—EVIDENCES OF HIS FIRMNESS AND DECISION—HIS MANNER OF TRANSACTING BUSINESS—HIS ANSWER TO THE CIVIL-RIGHTS PEOPLE—PERSONAL APPEARANCE—PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUNERAL; TO TAKE PLACE FROM MONUMENTAL CHURCH—MEETING OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR TO-DAY.

Little else than the death of Judge Guigon was talked about on the streets and in the Capitol yesterday. Members of the General Assembly and officers of the Government had the highest respect for his sterling worth, and the constant expressions indicated an appreciative sense of the great loss the city and State have suffered.

With the people generally Judge Guigon was popular. In court he laid down the law with a firmness that should be observed. He permitted no familiarities there. It mattered not whether it was lawyer, juror, witness, or spectator who disobeyed, he was promptly rebuked, and if the enormity of the offence justified it, was punished by fine.

But his stern and resolute judge was, when among his friends, one of the most sociable and agreeable of men. He was an entertaining conversationalist. He delighted in field-sports, and was thoroughly familiar with the habits, business, pleasures, and wants of the people in whose midst he dwelt, and with whom he had a life-long identity. Richmond he loved dearly, and in many of the reforms he instituted he had to contend with prejudice and with decided disapproval from some.

But his stern and resolute judge was, when among his friends, one of the most sociable and agreeable of men. He was an entertaining conversationalist. He delighted in field-sports, and was thoroughly familiar with the habits, business, pleasures, and wants of the people in whose midst he dwelt, and with whom he had a life-long identity. Richmond he loved dearly, and in many of the reforms he instituted he had to contend with prejudice and with decided disapproval from some.

Something has already been said of his business habits, and his requiring compliance in those who attended his court, by refusing to listen to trivial excuses of witnesses and jurors, by declining to continue causes from one term to another except for most weighty reasons, he did an almost incredible amount of business. Last year was not as busy a one as this for him, but the record shows the following:

Whole number of criminal cases tried and disposed of, 511.
Felonies tried and convicted, 100; felonies tried and acquitted, 80.
Misdemeanor cases, 1,071; misdemeanors cases acquitted, 234. Total, 511.
The misdemeanor cases were almost exclusively for violations of the revenue laws against persons for transacting business without licenses. These prosecutions were for the proper enforcement of the payment of the State of the revenue. When the parties procured their licenses and produced their receipts for the same the cases were dismissed. Hence the large number of cases discharged—the misdemeanors of a criminal nature being disposed of in the Police Court.

The whole amount of fines imposed by this court for the violations of the criminal laws during the year 1877 were $7,465.05; amount collected, $4,444.05; no effects, $3,021.00—total, $7,465.05.
The above amount of $4,444.05, which was collected by the clerk and sergeant, has been paid into the Treasury to the Auditor of Public Accounts.

In this court, the December term closed its session with not a single criminal case upon its docket.
A large number of civil cases disposed of in this court during the year 1877, 516; cases removed from Police Court, 315; garnishee summonses, 112; forfeited forthcoming bonds, 48; miscellaneous motions, 25; appeals (civil) from Police Court, 16.
Civil cases remaining undispensed of on the docket on the 1st of January, 1878, 516; removed from the Police Court, 8; garnishee summonses, 3; forfeited forthcoming bonds, 5; miscellaneous motions, 11; appeals (civil) from Police Court, 3; total, 30.

Now, take into consideration the thousand and one matters which cannot be numbered, and you will receive some idea of the weight of his responsibility and how well he discharged his duties.

His influence was felt far out of his court, and we are indebted to him for many reforms, which will be among his most enduring, as they are among his most valuable, works.

DECISION.
For many years to come members of the Richmond Bar will delight to tell anecdotes of Judge Guigon illustrating his firmness and outspoken disposition.

He never attempted to conceal his thoughts. He hadn't that sort of policy. Once when a jury brought in a verdict which he regarded as absurd he said to the Sergeant at Law, "I will never sum them here again."

But, on the other hand, no judge delighted in or appreciated more attentive, intelligent, and thoughtful jurors, and he was ever disposed to be kindly regardful of their comfort. "Professional jurors" did not offend him. Generally those who occupied the box there were among the best of our citizens.

THE NEW FUNDING BILL.
To Provide for the Consolidation of the Public Debt and the Payment of a Uniform Rate of Interest Thereon.

(Reported to the House yesterday from their Committee on Finance.)
The bill is entitled "An Act to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon."

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

THE DEAD JUDGE.
Arrangements for the Funeral to Take Place To-Day.

NOTICEABLE TRAITS OF JUDGE GUIGON'S CHARACTER—EVIDENCES OF HIS FIRMNESS AND DECISION—HIS MANNER OF TRANSACTING BUSINESS—HIS ANSWER TO THE CIVIL-RIGHTS PEOPLE—PERSONAL APPEARANCE—PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUNERAL; TO TAKE PLACE FROM MONUMENTAL CHURCH—MEETING OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR TO-DAY.

Little else than the death of Judge Guigon was talked about on the streets and in the Capitol yesterday. Members of the General Assembly and officers of the Government had the highest respect for his sterling worth, and the constant expressions indicated an appreciative sense of the great loss the city and State have suffered.

With the people generally Judge Guigon was popular. In court he laid down the law with a firmness that should be observed. He permitted no familiarities there. It mattered not whether it was lawyer, juror, witness, or spectator who disobeyed, he was promptly rebuked, and if the enormity of the offence justified it, was punished by fine.

But his stern and resolute judge was, when among his friends, one of the most sociable and agreeable of men. He was an entertaining conversationalist. He delighted in field-sports, and was thoroughly familiar with the habits, business, pleasures, and wants of the people in whose midst he dwelt, and with whom he had a life-long identity. Richmond he loved dearly, and in many of the reforms he instituted he had to contend with prejudice and with decided disapproval from some.

But his stern and resolute judge was, when among his friends, one of the most sociable and agreeable of men. He was an entertaining conversationalist. He delighted in field-sports, and was thoroughly familiar with the habits, business, pleasures, and wants of the people in whose midst he dwelt, and with whom he had a life-long identity. Richmond he loved dearly, and in many of the reforms he instituted he had to contend with prejudice and with decided disapproval from some.

Something has already been said of his business habits, and his requiring compliance in those who attended his court, by refusing to listen to trivial excuses of witnesses and jurors, by declining to continue causes from one term to another except for most weighty reasons, he did an almost incredible amount of business. Last year was not as busy a one as this for him, but the record shows the following:

Whole number of criminal cases tried and disposed of, 511.
Felonies tried and convicted, 100; felonies tried and acquitted, 80.
Misdemeanor cases, 1,071; misdemeanors cases acquitted, 234. Total, 511.
The misdemeanor cases were almost exclusively for violations of the revenue laws against persons for transacting business without licenses. These prosecutions were for the proper enforcement of the payment of the State of the revenue. When the parties procured their licenses and produced their receipts for the same the cases were dismissed. Hence the large number of cases discharged—the misdemeanors of a criminal nature being disposed of in the Police Court.

The whole amount of fines imposed by this court for the violations of the criminal laws during the year 1877 were $7,465.05; amount collected, $4,444.05; no effects, $3,021.00—total, $7,465.05.
The above amount of $4,444.05, which was collected by the clerk and sergeant, has been paid into the Treasury to the Auditor of Public Accounts.

In this court, the December term closed its session with not a single criminal case upon its docket.
A large number of civil cases disposed of in this court during the year 1877, 516; cases removed from Police Court, 315; garnishee summonses, 112; forfeited forthcoming bonds, 48; miscellaneous motions, 25; appeals (civil) from Police Court, 16.
Civil cases remaining undispensed of on the docket on the 1st of January, 1878, 516; removed from the Police Court, 8; garnishee summonses, 3; forfeited forthcoming bonds, 5; miscellaneous motions, 11; appeals (civil) from Police Court, 3; total, 30.

Now, take into consideration the thousand and one matters which cannot be numbered, and you will receive some idea of the weight of his responsibility and how well he discharged his duties.

His influence was felt far out of his court, and we are indebted to him for many reforms, which will be among his most enduring, as they are among his most valuable, works.

DECISION.
For many years to come members of the Richmond Bar will delight to tell anecdotes of Judge Guigon illustrating his firmness and outspoken disposition.

He never attempted to conceal his thoughts. He hadn't that sort of policy. Once when a jury brought in a verdict which he regarded as absurd he said to the Sergeant at Law, "I will never sum them here again."

But, on the other hand, no judge delighted in or appreciated more attentive, intelligent, and thoughtful jurors, and he was ever disposed to be kindly regardful of their comfort. "Professional jurors" did not offend him. Generally those who occupied the box there were among the best of our citizens.

But his stern and resolute judge was, when among his friends, one of the most sociable and agreeable of men. He was an entertaining conversationalist. He delighted in field-sports, and was thoroughly familiar with the habits, business, pleasures, and wants of the people in whose midst he dwelt, and with whom he had a life-long identity. Richmond he loved dearly, and in many of the reforms he instituted he had to contend with prejudice and with decided disapproval from some.

THE NEW FUNDING BILL.
To Provide for the Consolidation of the Public Debt and the Payment of a Uniform Rate of Interest Thereon.

(Reported to the House yesterday from their Committee on Finance.)
The bill is entitled "An Act to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon."

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

THE NEW FUNDING BILL.
To Provide for the Consolidation of the Public Debt and the Payment of a Uniform Rate of Interest Thereon.

(Reported to the House yesterday from their Committee on Finance.)
The bill is entitled "An Act to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon."

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

It is the duty of the Government to provide for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon. The bill provides for the consolidation of the public debt and the payment of a uniform rate of interest thereon.

THE DISPATCH
PUBLISHED DAILY
BY COWARD & KELLY
CAREFULLY IN ADVANCE
THE DISPATCH is delivered to subscribers at $2.00 per week, payable to the carrier weekly. Mailed at $6.00 per month, in advance. Single copies, 5 cents. The SEVEN-DAY DISPATCH at $4.00 per annum, in advance. The WEEKLY DISPATCH at $2.00 per annum, in advance.

had the city chain-gang at work yesterday removing some of the obstructions and otherwise improving travel on Bridge avenue.

The Cedar-Works.—Now that the matter of the lease has been satisfactorily adjusted, it is expected that the work of erecting the new factory will be speedily begun. A number of our citizens are anxiously awaiting the resumption of operations at these works.

HONOR IN HIS OWN LAND.—Hays Conley in his recently-issued work, "The History of New York State," says that he has passed when the benefactors of humanity were provided to be cast in ignominious poverty—their sacrifices, their labors, unappreciated. To-day the benefactors of the people—the men who devote their lives and energies to the interests of humanity—absent the men whom the world deigns to honor, and whom it rewards with princely fortunes. An earnest worker for the welfare of his fellow-men, Dr. R. V. Pierce has won their warmest sympathy and esteem. While seeking to be the servant only, he has become a benefactor among them. Yet the immense fortune lavished upon him by a generous people he hoards not, but invests in the erection and establishment of institutions directly contributive to the public good. He has a position on the records of a nation, having been elected Sena or by an overwhelming majority. His justly-earned Household Remedies have gained for him a yet more desirable place in the hearts of a grateful people. His Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription have brought health and happiness to tens of thousands.

The necessary requirements of a good tailoring-powder are purity, wholesomeness, and reliability. When pure it always follows in its results the producing of light-colored hair, and is not a greasy or caking. DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER has a well-earned reputation for perfect purity and thorough reliability.

SPECIAL SALE OF LOOSE TOBACCO.—THIS MORNING at 9 o'clock, at Shockoe Warehouse, we will sell a large lot of dark, rich tobaccos. Dealers are invited to attend promptly.

SARKS & CO., "The Tailor," "The Clothier," "The Furnishers," 1013 Main street, opposite post-office.

THE CLOSING-OUT SALE of LEVY BROTHERS is pronounced by those who see HOW IT WORKS to be the fairest sale ever made. They have not selected out a FEW ARTICLES to offer as leaders, but sell their whole stock AT A DISCOUNT OF TEN CENTS on every dollar's worth you purchase.

WHAT CAN BE FAIRER THAN THIS? As this extra inducement will only be offered UNTIL THE 1ST OF MARCH, we advise everybody who has goods to purchase to call on LEVY BROTHERS.

A SARKS & CO.'S Spring Overcoats, FOR OFFENSIVE BREATH from decayed teeth and diseased gums, use MEADE & BAKER'S CARBOLIC MOUTH-WASH. Fifty cents a bottle.

DYSPEPSIA, NEURALGIA, THROAT, AND UTERINE DISEASES cured for twenty-five years by Bedford Alum and Soda. Endorsed by a profession. Full proof free upon call. Price, 1¢, post-paid. Sold by R. W. POWERS & Co. and POLK MILLER & Co., Richmond, Va. Liberal terms to dealers. Address, Bedford Alum and Soda Springs Company, Lynchburg, Va.

AS A FRAGRANT AND PLEASANT WASH for the mouth, there is nothing so good as MEADE & BAKER'S CARBOLIC MOUTH-WASH. Fifty cents a bottle.

A SARKS & CO.'S Spring Overcoats, HEADACHE AND NEURALGIA PILLS, DR. BENSON'S ACHIEVE, CELEBY ACHIEVE, and CHAMOMILE PILLS ACHIEVE, are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, and Nervousness.

A SARKS & CO.'S Spring Overcoats, DISCOLORED TEETH rendered beautifully white by the use of MEADE & BAKER'S SAPONINE DENTIFRICE. Fifty cents a box.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE TEETH AND GUMS use MEADE & BAKER'S CARBOLIC MOUTH-WASH. Fifty cents a bottle.

SAVE MONEY by having your printing done at the DISPATCH PRINTING-HOUSE. Good work, low prices, and satisfactory arrangements.

A SARKS & CO.'S Spring Overcoats, DR. BENSON'S ACHIEVE, CELEBY ACHIEVE, and CHAMOMILE PILLS ACHIEVE, are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, and Nervousness.