THE ITALIAN VICE-CONSUL AT RICHMOND.
This position, which was held for many years by the late Dr. Von Gronin, Esq., has remained vacant since his death. Several weeks since Richmond citizens of Italian birth, who are both numerous and respectable in this city, initiated movements with a view to supplying the vacancy in our nation signed by all the heads of Italian families, as well as many others of the same nationality here, was forwarded to Consul General De Luca, at New York, praying the bestowal of the office on Mr. John A. Fitzgerald, a native-born citizen, amply qualified, both by birth and education, for the efficient discharge of consular duties. In reply to the request contained in the petition a communication has been received in this city from Signor De Luca, conveying the intelligence that the report reached him, he is unable to state whether action was taken in reference to the matter of a primary election or a convention, but enough is known to state authoritatively that a majority of the new committee are opposed to a primary election, or a nominating convention unless rendered necessary by subsequent events. All the candidates are good Conservatives, and will, in case of emergency, submit their claims to the action of the City Central Committee.

THE AMATEUR MINSTRELS.—The Amateur Minstrel Band had another good house on the occasion of their second appearance at the court-house. The Hart brothers, Messrs. Lynch, Spain, Merritt, and Williams, and Masters Tyson and Reams, were all excellent in their respective parts, and furnished good music, and little Joe Timberlake astonished and delighted the audience with his daring and graceful feats. Our boys are hard to beat.
