New York-Immigration-A Fine Hotel-Matters Local.

Senator Johnston, president, and Mr. A. Borst, secretary of the Virginia Immigration Society, are now at the New York Hotel, their object being to promote the interests of this most worthy and important enterprise.

If the millions of acres of land now lying idle and unproductive in the States of the West and North-west, were occupied by industrious and frugal agriculturists such as are now flowing in crowds to the West and North-west, with their energy, capital, and frugal habits, our dear old State would soon be in a condition to pay the interest, and principal of her debt, and to preserve her general prosperity, now seriously threatened by an unscrupulous party taking advantage of her misfortunes.

If the immigration scheme succeeds—and of course it will, with proper management and some money to put it in operation—we will witness this much-desired consummation. The true policy of the bondholders, both in Europe and here, is to aid this scheme to introduce capital and population into the State, and I hope they will appreciate and act upon it.

You will perceive from the date that I am stopping at the New York Hotel, that excellent, attractive, and home-like household, clean, and central in location. There is probably no city in the world as well supplied with good hotels as New York. But for the substantial and elegant character of people you come in contact with as its guests, this house is unequalled by any hotel I have ever seen.

Your wants and wishes are all promptly attended to by the proprietor, Mr. Henry Cranston, aided by efficient staff in the office, and respectful and attentive servants in every department of the establishment. I notice that the house has just undergone a thorough renovation.

I notice among the guests at the hotel, General P. M. T. of this city, the Hon. J. Johnston, of South Carolina; Senator Johnston, of Virginia; Judge Sinclair and family, of Canada; Mr. Beverly Tucker, of Virginia, with his ever-bright and genial smile and his never-failing wit and bonhomie. In the past he has already receiving daily applications from the southern and middle States and from Europe for winter quarters, and I have no doubt from present indications that the house will be filled during September and October with guests from the States who left their homes before these localities were invaded by the dreadful scourge now desolating that unfortunate country, and to which they cannot return until after frost.

The community is somewhat exercised at present on the subject who is to be next Mayor of this city. It is the opinion of the fraternity, Mr. Dana, of this city, seemed to be the favorite; but he having declined the honor, they are now—particularly the Herald—pressing the claims of Robert Bonner. If Mr. Bonner should be elected, he would be a successful Mayor as he has been with his Ledger and fast horses, certainly New York will have an active and useful Mayor. But Mr. John Kelly, who is the Great Chief of the Tammany society and party, will, when elected, have a party which will control the city, and in naming the next Mayor.

Pleasure-dues who hastened to Paris and other gay resorts in Europe early in the summer are already returning in large numbers by every steamer. They will leave there a vast number of happy and contented people who have done more good to their countrymen if it had been spent at home.

THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY clamored long and earnestly for rapid transit, which, indeed, was much needed for business facilities, comfort, and health. They now have rapid transit by the Metropolitan Elevated railroad, which was created and operated for months, and yesterday the New York Elevated railroad, on the east side, was opened from the Battery to the Forty-second Street (Vanderbilt's) depot.

I observe, however, from some of the New York papers, that a portion of the collected to date, $2,012,800. Disbursed $2,900, as follows: New Orleans, $550; Memphis, $50; Vicksburg, $50; Grenada, $275; Port Gibson, $275—total, $2,900.

MORE AID FOR THE FEVER-SUFFERERS.—Total collected to date, $2,012,800. Disbursed $2,900, as follows: New Orleans, $550; Memphis, $50; Vicksburg, $50; Grenada, $275; Port Gibson, $275—total, $2,900.

STATEMENT OF THE EASTERN QUESTION FROM A RUSSIAN POINT OF VIEW. (From the London Times.)

I received last week the following letter from a Russian friend, which is interesting as looking at matters from a Russian point of view:

We Russians are quite satisfied with the Berlin Treaty. That negotiated by Ignatieff at San Stefano has really been carried into effect. You are welcome to the Island of Cyprus, and if you like to send English capital to Asia Minor we do not object. We are not at all anxious to have the Indian, we are master of the situation, and if it pleases us we can pour our armies into Asia Minor. In Europe we have got back the territory that we had to cede after the Crimean war. Serbia's aspirations remain ungratified, but she is not to be feared. Bulgaria, both must be our allies. In Eastern Roumelia, as it has amused our plenipotentiaries to call Southern Bulgaria, the authority of the Sultan is nominal, and the inhabitants will look to us as their only protectors. Our great difficulty is with Greece. They are now alienated from you. If ever a war should take place between Russia and England we should not attack Turkey, and you would not be able to blockade her, and we should be obliged to forego, much obliged to you for having maintained the neutrality of the Black Sea. We are now advancing toward your Indian frontiers, and if ever, as I have said, a war takes place between our two countries, you will find it necessary to send troops to India. Instead of strengthening your European armies with Indian troops. We shall, I think, in the end form an alliance with Persia, which will be similar to that which you have formed with Turkey. Are we anxious to go to war with you? Neither. But we cannot admit inferiority. Look at the map. You will see that our empire stretches along the centre of Europe and of Asia. You insist that you should be debased from the centre of Europe and of Asia. You insist that you should be debased from the centre of Europe and of Asia.

WEATHER REPORT.

INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—For the Middle Atlantic States, colder, partly cloudy weather, frequent light rains, variable winds, northeasterly, stationary or higher pressure.

For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, partly cloudy weather, occasional rains, variable winds, nearly stationary pressure and temperature.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY was clear and very warm. THERMOMETER YESTERDAY: 6 A. M., 72; 9 A. M., 81; noon, 90; 3 P. M., 92; 6 P. M., 82; midnight, 74.

LOCAL MATTERS.

TRAIN DELAYED.—The southward-bound train due here early yesterday morning met with an accident about twelve miles south of Washington by which the engine, tender, and postal-car were thrown from the track. The engine was fortunately running on its train at a rate of speed not exceeding ten miles an hour, being on the look-out for a slide. At the point where the accident occurred there was a culvert which had been too small to carry the train over. The engine did not see the culvert, and his engine passed over safely. The tender, however, went into the ditch, and in doing so threw the engine on the track, and the fireman was caught in the cab of the engine and his head cut and injured. The postal clerks were also slightly injured. No one else was hurt. The train which left here at 7:45 A. M. yesterday brought back the passengers and mails about 5 P. M. The damage has been repaired and trains are now running on their usual time.

A PLEASANT TRIP.—This morning at 7:30 o'clock a number of the members of our City Council and several city officials will leave Richmond city by way of the Chesapeake and Ohio route for a pleasure trip to the West. They will first stop at the White Sulphur Springs, where they will be joined by members of the party who have preceded them to that place. From the White they will proceed, by special invitation, to the coal mines of West Virginia, and after spending some time in seeing the scenery of that wild and beautiful section of country, will leave for Huntington, where they will embark for a ride down the Ohio river to Cincinnati. The trip down the river will be made on a fine steamer, and will occupy a night and a portion of the next day. The party will spend most of the time in Cincinnati, where they will find many places to interest them—such as the new Springer Music Hall, Pavilion Fountain, Masonic Temple, Pike's Opera-House, new Custom-House, Over-the-Rhine Zoological Garden, Spring Grove Cemetery, Eden and Lincoln Parks, and the beautiful suburbs of Avondale, Mount Auburn, and Walnut Hills. While in Cincinnati the visitors will be quartered at the new Gibson House, corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, where they will be met by a party who will probably join the party at this place and return with them home. A delightful journey and a safe return home to old Richmond is no doubt in store for our friends.

PERSONAL.—J. V. Reddy has been elected delegate from C. S. of this city, to the next annual Convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union, which convenes at Worcester, Mass., on the 25th inst. Hon. A. M. Kelley, of this city, is president of the Union.

Judge Joseph Christian, of the Court of Appeals, has returned to the city from Buffalo, N. Y., where he spent some time in the West. Judge Christian, of the Hustings Court, is expected to return to the city on Friday.

Among the visitors to the Tobacco Exchange yesterday were W. P. Gilliam, Esq., of Anderson, S. C.; J. W. Dowd, Durham, N. C.; S. Daniel, Charlotte county; William B. Apperson, Cumberland; J. E. Ester, Lunenburg; C. A. Glascock, Halifax; E. Carter, Nelson; H. Y. Booker, Pamlico, Va.; and Blair Burwell, Jr., Powhatan.

Miss Rose Carroll desires it to be stated that it was Rose Terrell, and not "Rose Carroll," who was arrested for fast driving and running over the milkman on Broad street a few evenings ago.

The following convicts were received at the State Prison yesterday: Luther Ford (white), from Page county, five years for housebreaking; and William Winslow (colored), from Augusta county, three years for grand larceny.

The highest reported price paid for tobacco yesterday on "Change was $68. One package was withdrawn at $51. One cargo of gum received eastwise yesterday. The shipments were coal and paving-blocks.

The collections of United States internal revenue yesterday amounted to $5,282,750.

NEW YORK, September 4, 1878. Editors Dispatch:—The plan of making relief collections for the relief of the yellow-fever sufferers in the South by means of ballot-boxes placed in hotels and other conspicuous positions in this and adjacent cities has netted many thousands of dollars. The originator of the plan, Mr. J. W. Simons, of this city, has the system adopted in every city and town throughout the country. J. W. SIMONS.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY. Grand and Petit Jurors Drawn.—The following grand jury has been drawn for the term of the County Court of Chesterfield commencing Monday, September 9, 1878: Manchester: Samuel A. Ford and Benjamin G. Schutte. Bernuda: R. A. Willis and R. G. Hatcher. Dale: W. Gill, Benjamin Chalkley, Benjamin W. Gill, Joseph P. Chiles, John T. Whitehead, and B. Winfree. Matocan: S. W. Dugger, William J. Perdue, William Williams, Jr., L. Varner, and David Stowe. Clover Hill: R. A. Stratton, L. A. Sims, William I. Robertson, and J. M. Richardson. Watauga: D. M. Francisco, Freeland Mooly, William A. Flanagan, Benjamin Ferguson, and J. C. Flinn.

County Statistics.—The clerk of Chesterfield County Court recorded twenty-eight deeds for August. During the same time he issued six marriage-licenses—three white and three colored.

The Meeting To-Night—Come One and All.—The time of the meeting in aid of the yellow-fever sufferers was changed until tonight on account of Wednesday night being the occasion of services at the churches. It will be held to-night at the court-house, when a large attendance is requested. The meeting was not called by Mayor Clarke, but by citizens whose sympathies have been aroused by the harrowing intelligence received from the infected districts.

The Moffett Register—Oh, What a Falling Off.—Commissioner Allen's revised report makes the alcoholic tax for August amount to $155,27; the next tax, $157,27; total, $312,54—only a difference of eight cents as published Tuesday. The tax for July was $282,65; for June, $266,20; for May, $267,76; for April, $236,97. Comparing the August with the April returns, one may well say, Oh, what a falling off we have! The decrease since April is what has been nearly fifty per cent, and several malt registers have been put up. The number now in operation is twenty alcoholic and thirteen malt registers, one of each having been placed in position yesterday. The registers were put up in Manchester, September 24, 1877. Up to September 1st 1878, 46,885 malt drinks had been registered. Alcoholic tax, $38,381.07; malt tax, $294,43—aggregate, $38,675.50.

The City School Board.—The City School Board met Tuesday night at the Board School building. Considerable routine business was transacted. It is expected that the schools will resume their duties October 1st. Rev. W. H. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was president, and David J. Weisiger, clerk.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Daniel K. Weisiger, an quite an esteemed citizen, who has been quite ill, was reported somewhat better yesterday.

Miss Jennie Baird leaves to-day for Staunton to resume her studies, much to the regret of her many friends. Miss Baird was highly distinguished at the last session, and received credit upon her native city. Dr. Charles R. Weisiger, of Midlothian, is reported quite sick.

Manchester society enters upon its fall season with some dozen as fair and as charming debutantes as any city of like size in the Union can boast of.

Death of an Esteemed Citizen.—The following is taken from the Petersburg Post of yesterday: "Mr. Joseph B. Rawlings, a much-esteemed citizen of Greensville county, while in the discharge of his duties as an employe on the narrow-gauge railroad from Clair's saw-mill to Clair's Junction, on the Petersburg railroad, had his foot and a large portion of his right leg horribly shattered on last Friday by the fall of a log. He lingered at his home near where the accident occurred, and, though the skill of eminent physicians were employed, relief could not be produced, and on Tuesday morning death relieved him from his suffering. He was a gallant soldier during the war, and enjoyed the confidence of his numerous friends. He leaves a family to sorrow for their sad bereavement."

Mr. Rawlings had friends in this city who were shocked at the loss of his sudden death, and who tender their heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family. The deceased was one of the most thrifty farmers and beloved and respected citizen of Greensville county.

Practical Charity.—In addition to the donation of $50 made by Manchester Lodge, F. and A. M., to the yellow-fever sufferers, the lodge appointed Messrs. Frank J. Sampson, A. Royal, Henry Fitzgibbon, and others a committee to solicit donations from the public at large.

Bad Accident—A Coincidence.—Yesterday at 3 o'clock Mr. A. C. Gibbs, of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, on the Richmond and Danville railroad, was run over by a truck at the Belle Isle connection and badly injured. Mr. Gibbs had his back to the truck, and it struck him before he could get out of the way. He sustained injuries which are not expected to be serious. Mr. Gibbs was removed to his residence at the corner of Tenth and Perry streets. Last night he was doing very well. Fifteen years ago yesterday the late W. G. Freeman, at that time president of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, was run over in the Danville Railroad yards and conveyed to the same building, which was at that time owned by him. Mr. Freeman died from the effect of his injuries November 12, 1876—over thirteen years after the accident.

J. W. CLAYTON, Esq., KNOWS ABOUT IT.—He not only knows from his own experience, but he has seen it done in New York, and he has seen it done in this city. He is engaged as clerk of the Senate. We mean Dr. Herod's Gypsy's Gift, which cures rheumatism all the while, wherever it is given a chance. It is the only medicine which can drive it from the blood, and make a hot place cool.

IF YOU HAVE NEVER USED DOOLEY'S VEGETABLE SOAP, you are not doing your duty. After a few trials you are confident you will give the preference over all others. It is absolutely pure; every package is strictly full weight, and it never fails in making clothes, bread, and all other articles, clean, white, soft, and wholesome.
