Mr. Johnson did the same thing last year, charging $1.50 per head where the salt was furnished and $1.25 where he furnished the salt himself, and will continue the same rates the present season. Mr. J. has a large herd of cattle of his own, is a good stockman and a most reliable citizen and will highly recommend him to persons desirous of placing stock out for the season. Remember the place and date—Marlow & Schleicher's meat market, Wahpeton, Dak., May 14, 1884. 50

A CARD. To the editor of THE TIMES. DEAR SIR:—For the benefit of my friends I want to state that the Walter S. Wood binder company brought suit against me to recover on notes for machinery I purchased of them, but that they refused to come to trial and suffered the dismissal of the same. And would advise my friends not to be brow beaten by them. MOSES FEAGUSON, Abercrombie, May 14th, 1884. 52

NOTICE TO MACHINE DEALERS. Dealers in farm machinery and tractors are hereby respectfully requested to give the Richland Co. Agricultural association the lowest prices for which they will sell members of the association machinery and tractors this season for cash or on terms approved by the association. Address proposals to S. E. Stebbins, chairman of committee, Triest, D. T. S. TAYLOR, President. H. C. N. MYHRA, Secretary. 52

A CARD. To the editor of THE TIMES. DEAR SIR:—I have just delivered a suit of clothes for $10.00 to L. V. Nord, express agent on the Breckenridge extension, and he says the suit could not be made better in any way. He is more than pleased. Again I have just delivered a pair of pants to Mr. P. M. Randall, agent at the N. P. depot, and he says he never wore a better fitting pair of pants, nor was never better pleased with a tailor's work. Now I would say that there are those who seem to think I don't do first class work, and would respectfully refer such to these gentlemen as reference. There are others I might name but it would be superfluous. Anyone in need of good fitting goods or ready made clothing can not do better than to give me a call. E. RICHMOND, 52

LOCAL NEWS. O. K. Ulsaker, county treasurer, is putting up a barn. Rev. Mr. Troy and family have removed to J. H. Mountain's dwelling house, the latter's family preparing to go onto their farm. A gentleman from Minneapolis named Steele is building a dwelling on Dakota avenue opposite Henry Miller's residence. Major Whited has the contract, we believe. Edward Barber, in the employ of W. A. Seely & Co., is building a dwelling on Fourth street east of the Congregational parsonage. A sudden boom seems to have taken place in this section of the city.

A. H. Snow, deputy county treasurer, is putting up an addition to his dwelling, 18x24, bay window in front and side, cistern under same and other needed accommodations, to cost $1300. Oliver & Mackie are doing the work.

Globe: One of the young newspaper men of Fargo now basks in the halo of approaching connubial felicity, so to speak. The fortunate lady is a charming daughter of a pioneer and wealthy citizen of southern Minnesota. The date is fixed and cards will soon issue.

The other day Walter J. Smith and Miss Sarah Quinn, and Chas. Quinn and Miss Ellen Connelly were the principals in a double wedding at the Catholic Church, and immediately went east for their health. But have now returned. THE TIMES congratulates the young folks with the hope that their happiness and prosperity may not be abated.

Last winter Jacob Eckes went to Wisconsin to spend a few weeks among friends, and returned a week or two since with a bride, and is now building a dwelling house on the east side of Fourth street, near Pembina avenue. THE TIMES is pleased to see this young man thus prospering in the world, and hope that he and his will find happy life and prosperity in their new home.

Isaac Liverson of Ransom county, it will be remembered stole wheat, was examined before a justice and bound over, Solomon Robinson going his bond for his appearance, but he soon fled and did not show up at court here the other day, when Mr. Robinson put out for Wisconsin where he found Isaac, brought him here Friday night and he now languishes in durance vile, under the tender care of Sheriff Propper.

Globe: Recently the children of the public school at Wahpeton, to the number of 150, had a tree with a tag and name on it, set out for each on the school grounds. It is proposed also to follow the example on the county grounds and have the name of each official securely attached to them. The newspaper men will set out weeping willows in the cemetery. The precise significance of the latter is not reported.

The residence of James Purdon on Iowa avenue, near Freeman Orcutt's place, is progressing rapidly. Mr. Purdon has put one of the very best of foundations under it, going eighteen inches or two feet below the surface and put in a stone foundation finished with brick, some two feet above the ground, making a most neat and substantial appearance. The building is 20x30, two stories high, frame, bay window in front, and will cost $1200. Oliver & Mackie are doing the work.

John R. Mears, the new Marshal, is taking hold of his work in a manner that shows a perfect understanding of the duties he has undertaken to perform. Many of the miserable cess pools about the streets were at once drained off, and the low places about corners and crossings have been very materially improved on, including the establishment of a culvert in Fifth street to drain away the pond that used to stand near the congregational church. Much of the loss rubbish about Dakota avenue ditches was raked up and carted away, and now the business men along that thoroughfare may aid matters very much by burning all straw, scraps of paper, &c., &c., instead of sweeping the same into the street. And when ashes are to be emptied, let that be done in the center of the street and not just off the sidewalk into the ditch, which looks badly besides filling up the same. We have reference to no particular parties, but simply mean aid for the general public good.

Our Wahpeton readers have evidently seen the notice handed us by the chairman of the board of health, Mr. John Nelson, now published some little time calling general attention to the necessity of cleaning up about all premises, respectively, wherever needed. It is a fact that Wahpeton has a board of trustees, a board of health, and that these gentlemen make such ordinances are thought to be right and proper and when passed, the law and customs of the land make it obligatory on all citizens to cheerfully obey these ordinances,—in the interest of the general public. One of the most important things in a growing town such as Wahpeton, is to have the streets, allies and back yards clean and healthy. It gives the place an inestimable importance, not only with our own people, but in the estimation of visitors, of whom it should be Wahpeton's greatest aim to please. And lastly, the health of the community demands this attention. Let every man then look up his duty in the premises and do that duty to the very best of his ability. A law abiding man is always a worthy and respected citizen.

The roller skating rink is getting to be quite an institution. In speaking of improvements at the rink at Watertown, this territory, the Daily Courier says: "After the first of June, when we understand, the season of skating will close, they (the proprietors) will build an addition on the front of their building 32x48 feet. This is to be divided into several rooms for the accommodation of their patrons. These will consist of a lobby 14x14 feet, off from which will be a cloak room 8x14, connecting with this lobby, will be a refreshment room 14x25 feet, in which they propose to have a lunch counter so arranged as to accommodate both the skaters and spectators. On one side of this room will be a long spectators' gallery and on the other side a ladies' room 12x15 feet and a gentlemen's room of the same size. On the rear of their present building is also to be built an addition 32x48 feet, in which there is to be a movable stage 18x24." The county commissioners are in session, and before they adjourn, might consider the question of having the court house yard cleared of builders' rubbish. It would not cost much and would add much to the appearance of the place. The steps or approaches to the several door ways should be painted, as the action of the sun and weather are doing the same much damage.

N. C. Walsh, with A. H. Andrews' school, bank and office furniture establishment of Chicago was in Wahpeton this week, and has determined to make this city the headquarters for the house in North Dakota, and will be here the greater part of the time himself. He will be enabled to meet school directors, and fix them out in furniture for new school houses on short notice, and at reasonable figures. This is the leading institution in the United States in this line of goods.

Mr. Morris I. Friedlander, of the new law firm of Friedlander & Bessie, was admitted to the bar in New York city in 1867, by the supreme court of that state, and was subsequently admitted to the United States court for the southern district of New York. Was doing a good business when he decided to come west, but having friends at Wahpeton and learning that there was no German lawyer here, concluded to make the change. We think the new firm will be a valuable acquisition to the city. It has the best wishes of THE TIMES.

Oliver & Mackie state to us that they have just finished a very fine barn on T. S. Woodruff's farm of 640 acres, a dozen miles south west of Wahpeton, in size 32x50 with an ell 14x50, two stories high, costing $1100. And will commence the erection of a dwelling house on the place immediately after harvest. It is Mr. W.'s intention to soon commence the work of breaking the full section. The house is to be 20x30, ell 16x24, to cost $1600. These are important facts and go to show that Richland, the leading county in the territory, moves. Mr. W. is a live man and we are glad to note this interest he takes in this community.

We took a look into the roller rink this week, and find it a most creditable institution, indeed. The main building or skating room is 44x80 feet, there is the general entrance way or lobby, off from which is the office and skate repository—which will serve also as a gents' room, while adjoining this, the ladies open into a large and commodious apartment fitted up expressly for themselves. From the main entrance also leads a flight of stairs to the gallery, where visitors may observe the skaters below. Upon the whole, the citizens of Wahpeton have the greatest occasion to not only thank the enterprising gentlemen who have thus put their money into the enterprise, but feel proud of it as a new acquisition to the many interests of Wahpeton. Providing the rates are not placed too high, we look upon the institution as a boon especially to the young folks. Will be opened Thursday evening. See notice.

Mr. Adolph Bessie, member of the new law firm, incidentally gave THE TIMES a few pointers on pioneer life in the Red River valley, the other day, by stating that in 1853 he was a member of the Tenth United States' infantry, stationed at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and about this time accompanied the Red River expedition in which the now famous Gen. Sherman was major of the Tenth United States' infantry, and was in command of the infantry, visited New Ulm, Fort Abercrombie and Fort Pembina on the boundary line. Mr. B. thinks the expedition crossed the river, certainly not far from where Wahpeton now stands, and that an old Frenchman ran a ferry at that time. Mr. Bessie, in 1853 went into service as a drummer boy, and in 1864 was mustered out as First Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 21st United States infantry. Says that of course the change here in thirty years is very great, and that he is much interested in studying these changes as well as the great advantages this country now holds out to the more densely populated districts of the earth.

Ready to Come Back. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rice bid them adieu as they departed the other day for a summer's visit at their old home in New York. But here comes a letter from that gentleman to Mr. Vachon, which furnishes an idea of that section at present:

JORDAN, N. Y., May 10th, 1884. Bro. Eli, Dear Sir: Reached our home safe and sound, and found all usually well. I am now already to come back, it has rained here fifteen days straight.

Yours truly, D. E. RICE.

Dakota has enjoyed the finest spring weather imaginable. The crops have been splendidly put in, and everything is most promising.

MARRIED. At the Methodist parsonage, Wahpeton, May 18th, 1884. Adam O. Herley of McCauleyville, Minnesota, and Sara J. Ayer of Battle Lake, Minnesota, by Rev. H. W. Troy.

Died. Wahpeton, May 21st, 1884, Mrs. Mary Thompson, of asthma, aged 50 years.

Mrs. Thompson, together with husband and family, came to Wahpeton four years ago, where the family has since resided, and where it has built up a home and many friends. Thursday evening the husband departed with the remains for Grant county, Wis., where they were buried Sunday last. Mr. Thompson is expected back next week.

At Wahpeton, May 14th, 1884, Henry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Bauer, of spinal difficulty or spotted fever, aged 7 years, six months and two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauer have watched over their little son the past few weeks with the greatest possible attention, and all that medical aid could suggest was tried, but Henry continued to sink and suffer the most acute pain. He was a sore trial to the parents to see their child suffer, to say nothing of the odds against his recovery, in his illness. The funeral will be conducted at the residence this afternoon at two o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Troy, and the remains will be laid at rest in the Breckenridge cemetery. The parents, certainly, have all aid and sympathy in this loss.

At Breckenridge, May 10th, 1884, Timothy O'Leary, of apoplexy, aged 23 years. The many friends of Tim. O'Leary, as he was familiarly called, were astonished Thursday morning to learn that he had suddenly dropped dead about seven o'clock, after having risen from bed and dressed himself for an out door walk. Tim had been feeling ill the day before, but no one expected such a sudden turn of affairs. Was born in Cork, Ireland, but had lived at Breckenridge the past eight years, where he had made everybody his friend. Leaves a young wife and babe to mourn the untimely taking off. The funeral occurs to-day at 10 o'clock at the Catholic church in Wahpeton, where friends are invited to attend. Mrs. O'Leary has the deepest sympathy of the many friends of the family, who remember Tim as a frank, upright man,—one who had a pleasant word for everybody, and was glad to see his friends happy.

At Wahpeton May 18th 1884, Mrs. Annie Braun of typho malaria confinement, aged 47 years.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun were pained to learn of the severe illness Monday and final death of that lady Tuesday morning. It seems that when medical assistance was called Sunday evening, dangerous complications were found to exist, and that at two o'clock the following morning the child had to be delivered dead by the use of instruments, the lady having completely broken down in nervous prostration. All was done, that medical aid and kind hands could do, but to no avail. Mrs. Braun was the mother of nine children, and leaves some of them quite small; however, a daughter perhaps fifteen years of age who will be able to help in caring for the smaller children. This is of course a sad blow on the family, who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The funeral was conducted at the Catholic church Wednesday morning, and was the largest attended ever in Wahpeton. The Wahpeton cornet band, in respect to their leader, Stephen Braun, attended in a body.

Notice. To the Editor of THE TIMES: DEAR SIR:—As chairman of the board of health for Wahpeton, I would suggest to our citizens that they clean up about their residences and places of business, all rubbish and dirt accumulated the past winter, at the earliest possible day, for soon there will be warm weather and danger from disease.
