News Notes.

A humpback turtle measuring seven feet seven inches long by four feet across the back was captured in Monterey Bay, California, last week. It weighed about 1000 pounds.

Chappaqua, N. Y., 8. Miss G. Greeley's horse ran away, capering her, breaking her right shoulder and bruising her internally. This is a daughter of the lamented Horace Greeley.

The losses of Jay Gould by shrinkage of stocks are estimated as high as $18,000,000, and Russell Sage counted from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The real loss of intrinsic values was not great.

Bismarck, 5.—Work will begin on the capitol to-morrow with a large force of men and teams. The legislative halls will be completed before the next legislative assembly convenes. The Capital Commission meet in this city on the 20th.

Some time ago the Pioneer Press spoke of Edwin Gribble as a "half imbecile slyster." Mr. Gribble sued the P. P. for libel and obtained a verdict for $1,000. The P. P. appealed but the supreme court decides that this pompous paper must draw its check for that amount.

An Indiana girl was swinging in a hammock when a man passed her on horseback with a gun across the pommel of his saddle. The horse stumbled and jarred the gun. It went off and hit the girl in the hammock. Her mother, who was in the kitchen washing dishes, was not hurt.

Huron, 5.—A man named Anderson, a Dane, was killed by the caving in of a bank of a ditch to the water works. He was in the ditch at work with a man named Hardy, when the bank caved on both. The latter was badly injured. Anderson was a poor man and leaves a wife and five children.

Dr. Hubbell, the Medford, Wis., suicide, left nearly $20,000 worth of property in his will for Mrs. Keeler, criminal intimacy with whom caused his ruin. He directed in his will also that all doctor bills due his estate be cancelled. These provisions were made after detection and just before he fired the fatal shot.

Fargo, May 30.—D. J. Eddy, who has occupied important positions both in the Chicago and Northwestern and the Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad companies, has been appointed general passenger and freight agent of the Fargo Southern road. The appointment will take effect June 1. Mr. Eddy's headquarters will be at Fargo. It is regarded as an excellent appointment.

Fargo, 7.—A rousing ratification meeting was held this evening in Central Park in this city. Speeches were made by the Hon. M. D. Greene, Col. A. D. Thomas, Gen. W. T. Clark, and the Hon. Waldo M. Potter. The crowd was large. The band was present and the enthusiasm was unbounded. If Dakota could vote she would give Blaine and Logan 75,000 majority this fall.

A circular has been issued by W. H. Beadle, superintendent of public instruction for Dakota announcing the North Dakota's Teachers' association at Fargo June 24 and 25. To secure entertainment, Mr. Beadle asks those who desire to attend to write early to Supt. B. F. Spalding of Fargo. The National Educational association will be held at Madison, Wisconsin, from July 15 to 18.

Chicago, May 27.—A mortgage from Gen. U. S. Grant to W. H. Vanderbilt on an undivided fourth part of 135 acres of land adjoining Chicago has been put on record. The land was conveyed to Gen. Grant by Joseph R. Jones, May 20, 1869. The mortgage is given to secure payment of a check drawn by Gen. Grant on account of Grant & Ward, dated May 3, 1884, for the sum of $150,000 in payment of money advanced by Vanderbilt to Grant & Ward. The mortgage was executed in New York and bears date May 17.

London Cable: A desperate political quarrel, with a terrible ending, occurred here Friday night, soon after the news had been received of the nomination of Mr. Blain at Chicago. The men involved in the desperate and bloody affray were James Hogan, Ellwood Strauss, Cooper Boyer and four others, all farmers. The men named are stalwart Republicans, and when told that Blaine had received the nomination they grew wild with rage and openly denounced the Maine statesman. Hogan began the trouble by getting into a heated argument with Blaine and endeavored to force the strength of his views with a blow. Instantly the men clinched, and a rough-and-tumble fight began. In a few minutes the dozen or more men in the saloon became engaged in a free fight. Knives were drawn and used effectively, revolvers were whipped out and fired recklessly. For fully fifteen minutes the men fought like tigers, and were finally ejected by the proprietor, who had been reinforced by a number of friends. When a light was brought in, the three men found lying on the floor proved to be Hogan, Boyer and a farmer named James Weiss. Hogan and Weiss are dead, and Boyer is in a critical condition.

St. Vincent, 6.—Horse thieves are working the locality of Cavilier and Polette counties, Dakota. There is a thoroughly organized band and it is believed they have taken some hundred horses within the past two weeks. It is understood that half the company of soldiers at Fort Pembina is to leave for the West in a few days, probably to put a stop to this wholesale stealing. Parties from that country say that these horse thieves have been plying their vocation there for some time, but not until within the past three weeks have they worked so boldly.

St. Vincent, 6. Mr. Deacon of this village is in receipt of a letter from General Manager Manvel, of the Manitoba road, encouraging him in the matter of getting the secretary of war to build a bridge over the Red river, from the western terminus of Pacific avenue, in St. Vincent, to South Pembina. A petition was forwarded to the secretary of war to this effect some time ago. It shows clearly the advantages the military at Fort Pembina would derive by such a bridge in case of a sudden call for troops. The men could cross over to St. Vincent, thence by rail as the order would direct; but as it is now, they would be obliged to march to Neche, Dak., eighteen miles from the fort, the nearest railway station on the west side of the river, or be obliged to depend on uncertain ferry. Mr. Manvel gives Mr. Deacon to understand that nothing will be wanting on his part to further the cause.

Here and There.

Oscar Wilde and Miss Lloyd are married.

St. Paul Dispatch: An unusually large number of young men about to be graduated from college have announced their intention to enter the profession of Journalism—with a big J. Five years hence they will be content to call themselves newspaper men—with a little n.

A mulatto girl with a remarkably pretty but peculiar face was engaged by a shrewd Western showman. He had a tooth extracted from each side of her mouth and inserted a pair of long tusks, covered her ears with false ones like a bear's, bleached and tangled her abundant hair, and instructed her to utter an unintelligible jargon. Thus she was transformed into a valuable curiosity, and her wages of $15 a week did not satisfy her. On the arrival of the show in Indianapolis she attempted to quit it, and a row resulted in an exposure of the fraud.

Frozen Fun.

A Massachusetts editor has noticed that the smaller the girl the more ice-cream she will hold.

As ice-cream weather approaches the discreet young man becomes colder in his approaches.

This is leap-year, and every well-conditioned girl will jump at an offer of "vanilla with jelly."

The Boston Post informs young men that no girl who is really in love ever calls for a third dish of ice-cream.

The fact that no love-making is complete without a little ice-cream is probably why courting is sometimes alluded to as spooning.

It seems that the cases of ice-cream poisoning were caused by cream bought at a creamery. As very little of the cream used is procured in this way the danger is not great.

An exchange says that ice-cream makes girls freckle and toe in. If that is so our girl, bless her heart, will have the complexion of a leopard and will walk heels first before the summer is half over.

Is there anything about ice-cream that makes its sale on Sunday a necessity. Altoons Tribune. Well, no; but there is something about girls that makes buying ice-cream a necessity every time they want you to.

A medical journal contains an article entitled "Notes of Cases of Ice-Cream Poisoning." It is said that young men are clubbing together to raise a fund of $500 to secure the insertion of the article in all the papers in town. Their object is unknown.

When a girl is in real downright love, clear in up to her eyebrows, she loses her appetite so that she can't tell hydrant water from soda water, and cold soap suds are just the same to her as the fluffiest ice-cream at a quarter a dish, only you must feed it to her with a spoon.

Statistics show that suicides are the most numerous in hot weather and that about 80 per cent are males. It is not surprising that so many men—young men, particularly—should commit suicide in hot weather. It is about the only way they can escape the ice-cream epidemic that rages during that season.

Dakota.

The Black Hills has three large breweries.

Work is progressing on the Sioux Falls waterworks.

A large number of cattle were killed near Pierre recently by drinking alkali water.

Elling Knudson of Lisbon has been arrested for stealing 300 bushels of oats from John Spearman.

Lisbon Star: A yoke of valuable oxen were drowned in a slough about ten miles south of this city the other day.

Mr. Hicks of Wessington was shot by the accidental discharge of his gun, on Saturday, and died soon after.

The ladies of Sioux Falls have procured an elegant flag which they will present to Joe Hooker post of that place.

Timothy Holborn, living near Columbia, was seriously, if not fatally, shot by the accidental discharge of his gun on Thursday.

Andrew Anderson, Canton's boss runner, recently made two miles in 11:25, and thinks he can make the distance in even 11 minutes.

The capital commission meets in Bismarck on the 20th, and it is expected will then take immediate steps to complete the capitol building.

A lady named Lanton of Buffalo county lost her husband and five children by diptheria in a few days recently, leaving her only one little girl.

A special election will be held in Aberdeen, at which all voters over eighteen years of age will be permitted to vote on preferences for postmaster.

The first annual meeting of the South Dakota Dental society will be held in Pierre, commencing Tuesday, June 10, 1884, and continuing until Thursday, June 12.

Young Smith and Connick, of Pipe Stone, got drunk in Flandreau, and robbed Dr. Goeling of his watch and money. They were arrested, and held to the grand jury.

Butler B. Strang, who suicided at Westfield, Pa., on the 10th of May, was appointed United States marshal for Dakota to succeed John B. Raymond, but declined to qualify.

Woonsocket has raised her town license from $100 to $300 a year. This makes it cost $500 a year to sell liquor there, and the town has eight saloons in a flourishing condition.

A kind of bug resembling the potato bug is injuring the forests in some parts of McCook county. The young growing timber in some of the groves on the tree claims is entirely stripped of its leaves.

S. W. Garrity, an operator in the Western Union Telegraph office at Bismarck, has been arrested and taken to Washington Territory for trial on the charge of being implicated in the Northern Pacific express robbery last fall.

Originally, Dakota included Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, embracing about a million square miles. At present North and South Dakota is four hundred and thirty miles long and east and west is three hundred and sixty wide, making an area of 148,500 square miles.

The citizens of Watertown have offered the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railway company a bonus of depot grounds and right of way through the county, provided the company will make that point the junction with the proposed line coming from Redwood Falls. The people of Watertown are very confident that the proposition will be accepted by the company.

Woman and Time.

Woman has a long contest with grim old time before she will conquer herself beaten. At the first intimation that he is penning she throws a dash more of youthfulness into her attire, and, if possible, a little more sweetness into her smile. For a while she laughs at the audacity of the wretch, as love is said to laugh at locksmiths. She sits in theatre and notices the fair young faces here and there, and knows that time is closing in on her, but she thinks to cheat him by assuming ignorance of his power and his intentions. She indulges in no spoken reminiscences, ceases to date her stories, and begins to associate more with women a great deal younger than herself. When the crows' feet become noticeable she resorts to the mask veil which comes just to the top of her nose, and takes at least five years from her record. A little later she makes her hat defy the thrusts of the enemy by a jauntier pose than ever. She fights the foe openly, cheats him with her cherished artifices, contests every step he takes, and scorns him always. She never admits his mastery, as men do. The theology of the toilet tells her to resist age and he will flee. This is a doctrine she faithfully lives up to. When she feels the weight of years upon her, she effects not to know that time, the all-devourer, is going to be the victor after all. Just as bravely does she fight him as though there was a hope that she would win the day. When she can no longer defy him utterly, she yields grimly to his dictation, though she never acknowledges his mastery.
