Tony Welder, who is a very peacable and pleasant fellow when sober, but just the reverse to an extraordinary degree when under the influence of liquor, became unreasonable and in fact unbearable at Joseph Benesh's sample room, Monday afternoon, when he encountered the proprietor and bar tender of that place, who gave him a mild rebuke.

The Fargo Sun of Wednesday noticing the Judge and bride at that city, said: "Judge Buxton, of Wahpeton, and his bride, formerly Miss Emma J. Howry, of Lebanon, Ohio, passed through the city yesterday en route for their home in Wahpeton."

The Fargo department of the St. Paul Globe, observes: "Judge Buxton of Wahpeton, returned home on the 22d with a lovely bride he had just married at Lebanon, Ohio. She was Miss Emma J. Howry, who made a visit to Dakota some time since, and returned home in love with it and the Judge.

The register at the Continental hotel yesterday contained the name of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Buxton, of Wahpeton. Argus reporter ascertained that the gentleman connected with this signature on the Continental hotel register was none other than the accomplished Judge Buxton of Wahpeton, who, it seems, has been off down at a little town in Ohio, called Lebanon, near Cincinnati, and there on the sixteenth instant was married to Miss Emma J. Howry, an accomplished young lady of the Buckeye state, who was out at Richland county some time since on a visit to her brother, a prosperous merchant of Wahpeton.

county jail. Next day he was taken before Justice Swasey, and charged with being drunk and disorderly. Plead guilty and was fined ten dollars or eight days in jail— took the eight days. We presume there are other charges that might and for ought we know may be preferred against him. Tony is a dangerous man when under the influence of liquor. He has been dead wrong in this difficulty all through.

Wahpeton is doing well this season in the way of new residences: That of Mrs. Seely on Eighth street is the largest, most costly and is well finished, being built by Eugene Schuler. That of Hon. John C. Pyatt is a neat cottage, containing six or eight rooms, now nearly finished; will be handsome inside and out. Eugene Schuler is doing the work. That of Col. S. H. Snow is one of the most handsome cottages, and finely finished in Dakota. Elegant doors, fine stairways, handy cellar and closets, neat wardrobes and pantry. The colonel says that he may not build another residence in Dakota and thought he would do this one in good shape. Oliver & Mackie are the builders. That of Mr. Steele on Fourth street, a resident of Minneapolis, is fully up to the mark. Major Whited and W. D. Perritt, builders, that of Edward Barber on Fourth street is handsome and finished up very neatly, inside and out. Eugene Schuler builder. That of J. M. Ford of the First National bank, is a good deal like Barber's or Pyatt's but is strictly business. It is the very best of style. This, we believe, has been leased by Mail Agent Croft. Mr. Ford's mother having recently decided not to come to Dakota, at once. Eugene Schuler is doing the work. Then there are F. H. Butler, Jacob Eckes, J. W. Blanding, Esq., and others, making improvements in the way of residence buildings.

Bargains and no Mistake. I guarantee to discount the prices of any other store in the west for the same quality of goods. This is strictly business. I am closing out my light weight stock of summer goods and all straw goods at cost to make room for my large stock of fall goods which are now on the road. Now is the time to buy goods cheap. Remember the old stand near the Catholic church.

Fatal Accident. A sad and fatal accident befell Harry Collinson, a brakeman on the Manitoba road at Kindred, Wednesday. The young man was assisting to make up a train of a freight train, when he was suddenly found by the engineer with his right leg smashed to the thigh, a large hole torn into his side, and his head badly cut, presenting, as it were, a most heart-rending spectacle. However, the poor boy lived two or three hours, told how it happened, &c. Word was telegraphed to Agent St. John to have a physician at the depot when the train arrived, but shortly word followed that Harry was dead. He was about 24 years of age, parents living at Port Huron, Michigan, and had been on this section of the road a year or more, part of the time in charge of a freight train.

Judge Buxton Returned. Judge J. R. Buxton and bride returned from Lebanon, Ohio, Wednesday via the Fargo Southern, having come over the N. P. to Fargo. Mrs. Buxton is a sister W. E. Howry, one of Wahpeton's most prosperous business men, who came here last season, visiting. She is an accomplished lady, made many friends here who now welcome her back under her new relations. Mr. and Mrs. B. will, for the present, make their home with Mrs. Hanly on Fourth street. The TIMES wishes the newly married couple a world of success.

The Fargo Sun of Wednesday noticing the Judge and bride at that city, said: "Judge Buxton, of Wahpeton, and his bride, formerly Miss Emma J. Howry, of Lebanon, Ohio, passed through the city yesterday en route for their home in Wahpeton."

The Fargo department of the St. Paul Globe, observes: "Judge Buxton of Wahpeton, returned home on the 22d with a lovely bride he had just married at Lebanon, Ohio. She was Miss Emma J. Howry, who made a visit to Dakota some time since, and returned home in love with it and the Judge.

possibly could under the circumstances, and reports himself as in every way satisfied with the result of his expedition. Mr. and Mrs. Buxton came in over the Northern Pacific yesterday, and will go out over the Fargo Southern this morning to Wahpeton. The many friends of the happy couple wish them every success and prosperity, and trust that their lives may ever be cast in pleasant places. He has numerous friends, not only at Wahpeton, but in all North Dakota, who will, after their first surprise, be glad to extend hearty congratulations.

From Michigan Settlement. To the Editor of THE TIMES. The wind storm that blew down the school shanty, near the north line of Roberts county, June 30th last, so severely injuring the teacher, Miss Williams, and several children, was indeed a sad thing. But I am pleased to say that all are now rapidly improving, and ere long will be out as well as ever.

I am called upon to chronicle another event that has occurred in our community, but fortunately not attended with such bodily injury. This event occurred at the far famed Fairmount, Saturday the 12th instant.

It seems that the bright intelligent young men who live in that famous town, had given themselves the name of Smarties, and had for some time been training themselves in the art of base ball. Finally thinking themselves well drilled and ready to meet any club from far or near, concluded to challenge the Waterloo boys, a township in Roberts county, to meet them on the Fairmount grounds. And those smart youths of Fairmount named the other club the Greenies. So the smarties challenged the Greenies! Both clubs put in their appearance on time, and business commenced.

For the result. Its to bad! but the result must come! The smarties had their first inning. The Greenies opened on them in good earnest, and a neat job of white wash was never done; and the second inning the same job was done over again—just as neatly as before; but at the Smarties' third inning I am glad to say, they got two runs. And after the usual number of innings had been played Fairmount Smarties stood 14 tallies, and the Waterloo Greenies 60 tallies. It was a clear case of Waterloo for the smarties—and no mistake! Some of the neighbors and friends of the Smarties came to witness the contest and, of course, to see the Smarties do up the Greenies. Some of them staid a short time, and some staid till about the fifth inning, and then went home apparently dissatisfied, and now I understand that their friends' advice is that the names had better be transposed. Some go so far as to say that the Waterloo boys can down any club in the country. A feature of the performance was that the losing nine should present a good ball and ball to the winning nine, but to all appearances the Smarties in their astonishment forgot this fact, and the Greenies did not remind them of it.

Yours, &c., I. I. L. Waterloo Township, July 21, 1884.

From Fairmount. To the Editor of THE TIMES: E. A. Spaulding of Michigan, is visiting his brother Warren.

The Dakota Midland has not been heard of lately. There is no doubt, however, but that it will be built, and that it will cross the F. & S. at this point.

W. H. Davis of Denver, Colorado, was been spending a day or so looking over the metropolis and surroundings. He was enraptured over the prospects.

Asa Paine of Minneapolis, Minn., is expiating his lumber this week, when he will immediately commence the erection of a substantial office. We predict success for Mr. P.

President Sargeant and Superintendent Taylor of the F. & S., stopped off and looked over our town Monday, and were highly pleased with the location and prospects.

The Fargo & Southern will commence the erection of their freight and passenger depot at this point next Saturday. It is to be a spacious building—dimensions, 24x70.
