ANNOUNCEMENT.

Farmers and others should remember that we furnish the Wahpeton Times at other than the weekly price, for the very low price of two dollars per year, or the rate of one dollar per year, in advance. This is really a splendid offer, and it is being taken by the farmers very much to their and our satisfaction. We publish no "paid" notices and feel certain that the subscribers get double for his money by accepting our offer than he would did we publish a patent for the same money.

And aside from the above facts, THE TIMES is the official paper of Richland county, and the city of Wahpeton, thus making it absolutely essential to every tax payer in the county, to say nothing of the above advantages. It is a man's duty to place his money where it will earn to him and his family the greatest and best advantages.

Card to Voters.

I would respectfully request my friends in Richland county, to vote at the coming election, for investigation; that I may be cleared of the odium cast on me by Charles Damerall and others. J. M. RUGGLES.

Notice.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of register of deeds, subject to the action of the Farmer's mass convention. S. G. HOFFMANN.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of register of deeds of Richland county, D. T., subject to the decision of the voters at the coming election. Respectfully, J. M. RUGGLES.

Farmers' Mass Co. Convention.

Headquarters Central Committee of Richland County Agricultural Association. Wahpeton, August 25, 1884.

The farmers of Richland county, D. T., will meet in mass convention at the school house on Dwight, on Saturday, September 20, 1884, at one o'clock in the afternoon, to nominate the following county officers, to be voted for in November, namely: Register of Deeds, Judge of Probate, County Attorney, Treasurer, Coroner, Superintendent of Schools, Clerk of Court, Sheriff, and County Surveyor.

And those present will nominate one County Commissioner.

The committee would especially urge all farmers to attend the convention.

SAMUEL TYLER, Chairman. J. F. SHEAR, Secretary. R. B. MYERS, Secretary.

A great fire in Cleveland, Ohio, Sunday night, destroyed property to the amount of $1,000,000.

The northern Indiana soldiers' and sailors' reunion is to be held at Milwaukee, Sept. 17 and 18. Gen. Logan will speak.

A riot composed of 400 striking miners in the Ohio valley, that state, was put down the latter part of last week, after several men had been killed.

The ladies of Jamestown held a skating tournament Thursday evening of last week. Seven hundred people witnessed the sport and the prize was voted to a Miss Alice Sprague, it being a pair of fine skates.

The heretofore champion oarsman of the world, Edward Hanlan, of Toronto, Canada, was beaten by William Beach, of Sydney, Australia, August 16th, last, on the Parramatta river at the latter city. The race was for the championship and a stake of $5,000. Time 20:29.

The secretary of the treasury, G. J. Folger, died Saturday at his home in Geneva, New York, from the effects of a lung, heart, and kidney difficulty. He was subject to severe hemorrhage of the lungs. Sixty-four years of age.

Gov. Hubbard, of Minnesota has been financially crippled through his mill and elevator connections. He seems to have become a personal endorser to such an extent as will sweep away everything he has except a residence property at Red Wing.

The Convention.

The delegates met at the court-house, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, J. H. Miller was made president, and A. J. Goodhue, secretary of the meeting. After three hours of balloting, the following named delegates were elected to represent Richland County at the Republican territorial convention, to be held at Pierre, this territory, Sept. 17th: Hon. J. C. Pyatt, Judge Lander, Auditor Fred. E. Stauff, R. H. Hankinson, Frank E. Walcott, and Dr. H. C. Reno.

The Fargo & Southern's excursion trip tendered the business men of Wahpeton, was a pleasant affair for the most part, but the secretary of the chamber of commerce, who issued the invitations and subsequently directed the conductor to collect fare from two of Wahpeton's business men and respected citizens, who happened to make the mistake of going without an invitation, thinking that it was an ordinary excursion at reduced rates, is a most humiliating circumstance to all men of sound sense—and every member of the so called chamber of commerce. It is the opinion of most men that the company desired all business men to participate in the affair and that this chamber made a blunder in not making the invitation general to such men. And it is most decidedly the opinion of nearly every man in town that Chas. Damerall, as secretary of the chamber, in passing through with the conductor and pointing out these business men as not such, made a conspicuous ass of himself. And it is further the opinion of most men that the chamber had better call a meeting and either fire Damerall bodily or disband!

Mrs. M. T. Beck, a lady nearly 78 years of age, who has earned the right to promenade on her homestead, not far from Dwight, passed our station with a visit Saturday. She will publish the notice of final proof. Mrs. Beck shows a wonderful amount of purpose and energy for one at such age. For the greater part of the time her only company has been that of a little child, eight years of age, and during the winter season has been for a week at a time without seeing anyone at all. Mrs. Beck is a most experienced and intelligent lady, and will manage her own property.
