Notice—Timber Culture.

U. S. Land Office, Fargo, D. T., Sept. 26th, 1884.

Complaining having been entered at this office by Albert Bladov against John Wanner for failure to comply with law as to Timber Culture entry No. 228, dated Jan. 26, 1880, upon the southwest quarter of section 18, township 131, range 40, in Richland county, Dakota, with a view to the cancellation of said entry; considering that said John Wanner has failed to clear or cause to be cultivated ten acres of land or any portion thereof since making his said timber culture entry therefor, and has failed to sow or cause to be sown any tree seed thereon, or plant or cause to be planted any trees or shrubs thereon since making his said entry therefor; and that said entry, together with all trees and shrubs thereon, are located on trees and shrubs thereon, and the said parties are hereby summoned to appear at this office on the 31st day of November 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m. to respond and furnish testimony concerning said alleged failure.

L. W. WOLFE, Attorney, Register.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND COUNTY

Published Friday's, Times Building, Wahpeton, Richland county, Dakota. Subscription: $1.00 in the county, and $1.25 outside the county, in advance.

The Columns of THIS TIMES are open to all who desire a candid discussion of questions of interest to the people of Richland county, but of course we do not hold ourselves responsible for a correspondent's opinions.

Let the journalist defend the doctrine of the party which he approves, let him criticize and condemn the party which he does not approve, reserving always his right to applaud his opposition or censure his friends, as the truth may require, and he will be independent enough for a free country.—[Garfield.]

The Best Men.

S. E. STEBBINS.

if elected a representative to the legislature for this district, we think, will fill the bill very acceptably. He is an old resident of Richland county, and being a man of wide experience and sound judgment, has good ideas of what may be expected of Dakota's representatives at Bismarck this winter, and will undoubtedly acquit himself with credit, gaining and holding the respect and confidence of his constituents.

JOHN C. FYATT,

if elected to the council, as he should be, would undoubtedly make a useful member of that body.

The two getting the most votes for the council, will be counted in, and likewise of the four for the house.

JOHN M. RUGGLES

should be elected register of deeds by a handsome majority. He is one of the best possible officials, and it would seem that in no sense would the county get his equal as to capabilities in a change at present. Any candid man looking over the situation would not for a moment hesitate to vote for Mr. Ruggles.

O. K. ULSAKER

has given good satisfaction and will be re-elected.

T. L. TAYLOR,

if it happened, failed of a nomination anywhere, but since the farmers' and republican conventions are so very little respected by men who are able to judge of them, it does not follow that Mr. Taylor deserved no nomination; neither does it indicate that he would not make the best sheriff of the candidates now before the voters of the county. Mr. Taylor's four years' of constant citizenship, farming operations, dentistry work, &c., have given the people an opportunity to judge of his qualifications in this connection, and we have yet to hear the first man doubt his superiority for the place. He belongs to no faction, and if elected would stand fully competent to discharge the duties of the office without fear or favor—and he would do it. He is gaining strength daily, and it is a perfectly safe estimate to say that he will get a plurality vote in Wahpeton, where he is known, and the county should do as well, and if it does not it will be owing simply to the fact that he is not known.

W. S. LAUDER

for county attorney, is the right nomination in the right place. Mr.
Lauder is in every way—even by nature—qualified for this position.

He is an old resident of the county, is perhaps acquainted with more people here than any attorney in the county. We think him a thoroughly straight-forward and upright young man, and there is no question about his being the better man for the place of the candidates in the field. He belongs to no clique. The people should sustain him by a handsome majority, and we think they will.

P. H. HACKETT,

For judge of probate is a young man and an attorney. He is an old settler in the county, doing a good law practice. His integrity is unquestioned as likewise is his ability.

There is not a safer man nor a more honorable man for the place than is Mr. Hackett. He belongs to no clique, and should in every sense be sustained at the polls, as we have every reason to believe he will be.

THEODORE DOERR.

Mr. Doerr has proved one of the most efficient and faithful officials that has yet been on the board of commissioners. He is painstaking and is always sure that he is right before going ahead. And besides the fact that he is a contractor and builder which qualifications stand him well in hand in that position, he being a German, and a good German scholar, scarcely a day passes that he is not called upon to transact some sort of business with people who talk no language but the German. Through the German settlement there are a number of bridges wanted, and there is always more or less controversy over these matters, and we think that Mr.
Doerr is just the man to go among the citizens there as a member of the board and help them to decide questions arising therefrom. There is now a lively contest over a bridge location in Berlin, and it behooves the county and Wahpeton in particular to send a man there that can reason and talk with them. We know personally that the board has been soundly abused by good men in that section for some time, and yet the board has always done the best it could by all concerned. It would be a mistake for Wahpeton and an injustice to a large proportion of Richland's population and tax payers, to fail of placing Mr.

Doerr in that position at present. Let Mr. Doerr's friends and friends to public justice stand strongly out, work and vote for the right man, Theodore Doerr.
