Famous Singers from Wales

THE ROYAL GWENT WELSH SINGERS
From Newport, South Wales

Opera House, Monday Evening, November the 9th

Twice commended to sing before King George and Queen Mary of England and appeared at the White House, Washington, D. C., May 23rd, 1912 under the distinguished patronage of Pres. Wilson and family.

PRICES: 50c, 75c and $1.00
Seats on Sale at Wolfe's Grocery

THE ROYAL GWENT WELSH SINGERS

The fame of Welsh choral singing became world wide, when in 1872 a mixed choir consisting mainly of Welsh village folk, under the leadership of Caradog (Griffith Rhys Jones), won the Crystal Palace Company's $5,000 challenge trophy, and a cash prize of $500. This fame was enhanced in the following year, when the same choir under the same leader again won the trophy beating the London choir, known then as the Paris prize choir, under the leadership of Mr. Proudman. The sons of the principally have ever since maintained the fame and ever enhanced the standard established and set by the Crystal Palace victors.

Of all the Welsh musical organizations, the Royal Gwent Welsh Singers has been first and foremost, not only to maintain the fame, but to set a standard to Welsh or any other choral singing that has never yet been excelled.

The visits of the Royal Gwent Welsh Singers is by no means a new venture. It is now a matter of history. Americans were first thrilled by these singers from the land of song as early as 1893, when two Welsh choruses from Wales won first prizes at the World's Fair, Chicago. The Royal Welsh Gwent Singers stands—and sings—before the world today as the unsurpassed organization of its kind, and, incidentally, as the standard bearer through all lands of the superiority of the Welsh nation as a nation of singers. It would be a difficult task, indeed, to analyze this fact, but it can be realized in a most easy way—that is by going to listen to the choir when they visit Wahpeton on Monday evening, Nov. 9th. Prices 50c, 75c and $1.
