WISE OR OTHERWISE

Some men sow cents and reap dollars.

A wise bride borrows her mother-in-law's cookbook.

A white lie doesn't travel far before it gets a black eye.

It doesn't take a smart baby long to outgrow its smartness.

Beauty is a veil that hides many feminine imperfections.

Being remembered in a will is as uncertain as an unlaidd egg.

Marriage is a failure for a leap-year girl who proposed in vain.

One can't blame a liar for doubting nearly every tale he hears.

Brevity may be either the soul of wit or the poverty thereof.

A bride always thinks her husband clever because he married her.

On the program of human events women are the consolation race.

A man never knows what is coming to him until he gets it in the neck.

Some men will even go to church on Sunday rather than stay at home.

Most of the so-called fun you have in this life is downright foolishness.

A bathing suit that shrinks every time it is worn may not be immodest.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY

Patriotism rarely consists of voting a straight ticket.

When a man says plain talk he means unpleasant talk.

There is also the sort of mortality that is due to cold feet.

Most men are busy enough not to want to serve on a jury.

A friend is a useful institution if you don't use him too much.

Sometimes a line of hot air is dignified by calling it a propaganda.

It seems impossible for one to do his duty and keep off everybody's toes.

While one is paying interest he shouldn't lead too many reform movements.

A woman is generally willing to admit she is forty years old when she is forty-five.

Complications sometimes represent that part of an illness the doctors fail to understand.

The wise man when he is traveling by train never undertakes to open a car window in dogdays.

It wasn't a lack of raw material which eliminated the shell game as a side line of the circus.—Atchison Globe.

IN THE CITIES

Philadelphia preachers have formed a church advertising club.

Buffalo is dredging Erie canal between Georgia street and Black Rock.

Louisville, Ky., is to have a mission school for Baptist women to cost $150,000.

Lockport, N. Y., must this year pay $10,000 in larger salaries to school teachers.

Lexington, Ky., has marked by a tablet the site of a blockhouse built there in 1770.

ALL SORTS

Time is money, but it requires genius to effect the exchange.

It is easy to bear other people's burdens. They are always so much lighter than our own.

Mighty few people make the excuse of being hoarse when asked to sing their own praise.

Many a man feels that he hasn't a friend in the world who never umpired a ball game in his life.

There are always two sides to a story, and the scandalmonger can generally provide five or six more.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

Russian women may now learn to be engineers and architects.

Mrs. Oscar S. Straus has donated $150,000 to aid girl immigrants.

W. C. Currell, president of the University of South Carolina, claims that women shouldn't teach boys in the schools as they are best for girls only.

Because of the scarcity of men to serve on the jury at a trial in Morgantown, W. Va., the justice of the peace was ordered by the constable to summon two women.
