

The Tribune Women's Corner

TO DINE AND READ SHAKESPEARE.

Mrs. C. D. Ladd will be hostess to the members of the Shakespeare club at a 1 o'clock luncheon today. The hostess will be in charge of the afternoon's program, which will be devoted to the reading of Shakespeare's "Measure for Measure."

WILL MIX SOCIAL WITH PATRIOTIC PROGRAM.

The ladies of the G. A. R. will be at home this evening to the old soldiers and Sons of Veterans following the annual installation services held by the individual lodges. The occasion is a social and luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Lyman, and the soldiers are planning the program of the evening.

BIG GRIFFITH FILM FRIDAY NEW DIRECTORY IS COMING UP

"Hearts of the World" Will Be Shown at the Grand for Three Days.

R. L. Polk and Company Busy Getting the Data for the New Publication.

When D. W. Griffith produced "The Birth of a Nation" the world was amazed and said the limit of motion picture possibilities had been reached. When he produced "Intolerance" the critics stood in awe and confessed that the great producer had surpassed himself, and when his latest triumph, "Hearts of the World," was revealed, words failed to express both public and critical opinion. It is referred to as the sublime achievement of the age, realizing possibilities that are almost beyond conception and stamps D. W. Griffith as a veritable wizard of dramatic art in pictures. With the great world struggle as a background Griffith has evolved a love story that grips the heart and stirs the soul. Amidst the roar of cannon and shrapnel he relates the sweetest story ever told in a manner that moves the spectator from tears to laughter and makes him glory in the fact that he is a man, and above all a son of America. The battlefields of France are revealed in all their awe-inspiring realism and one can almost imagine he is moving forward with the courageous sons of France against the perfidious Hun. "Hearts of the World" will be seen in this city at the Grand for a limited return engagement on January 10 for three days.

Great Falls is to have a new city directory. It will be ready for distribution about the middle of March, if not earlier. That is the forecast and the representatives of R. L. Polk & Co. are now busy gathering the data for the new publication. It will, as usual, contain a directory of the residents of Cascade county. The work has not progressed far enough yet to afford any basis for definite forecast as to the city's population or other facts further than the new publication will surely be ready sometime in March.

FARMERS TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The farmers of this district interested in forming a farm loan association will meet this afternoon at 2 in the office of County Agent V. B. Sheldon in the Federal building.

The question of organizing in this district has been favorably discussed for some time and it is that there will be no difficulty in completing such an organization at today's meeting.

The farmers at Ft. Shaw organized with 20 members last Saturday and with a total loan of something around $43,000.

NIGHT IN CHINA ONE BIG FEATURE

Carter's Show of Wonders Coming to Grand on Thursday Evening.

Patrons of the Grand opera house will be given a privilege, on Thursday evening, of seeing Carter, the great magician, and his excellent company in a program of wonders and magic art. Carter carries 25 people and uses 15 tons of equipment in staging his show, so that he today offers one of the greatest features on the American stage.

One of the features of Carter's show is "A Night in China," in which Carter impersonates the famous Chinese court magician. This is an exposition of ancient Oriental necromancy, wherein the wonderful sorcerers of China are imitated and impersonated. Immense objects are produced from nothingness, and other seeming miracles performed.

"The Lion's Bride," a beautiful spectacle in which a live lion is changed to Carter himself, is another sensational wonder. Carter also demonstrates the theory of transmission of that to the degree of astounding revelation.

CHILD'S CUSTODY INVOLVED IN SUIT

A suit in which custody of a minor child is involved has been brought in district court against Charles McCarrie by Una McCarrie. Absence of the papers from the files prevents information being obtained relative to the plaintiff's allegations.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—
