MRS. SAFFORD IS CALLED BEYOND

Long Time and Honored Resident of Great Falls Dies After Long Being Invalid.

Mrs. Rosetta Amy Safford, wife of former Justice of the Peace W. H. Safford, and for nearly 27 years a resident of Great Falls, died yesterday at their home, 2308 Fourth Avenue North, after having been an invalid for a number of years. The final illness, however, was of but a few days. Mrs. Safford's condition becoming critical only last week. She was in her 71st year, having been born September 26, 1848.

Mrs. Safford was a native of Alexandria, New York, being of the same stock as her husband. They were married 51 years ago and were among the few couples of the city who have celebrated a golden wedding day, their anniversary last year having been passed with their two sons—their only children—with them in their home. They removed from their native state to Michigan in 1872 and 29 years later they came to Great Falls, Montana.

Mr. Safford is a veteran of the Civil war and has long been active in Grand army affairs and until she became afflicted by ill health, Mrs. Safford was interested in patriotic work but during her late years she was forced by her condition to give up social and church work and was confined to her home. Thru it all, however, she was ever cheerful and patient and never complained.

In addition to her venerable husband who survives her, Mrs. Safford leaves two sons, they being Edward P. Safford of Silver Creek, New York, an official in the services of the New York Central railroad and William H. Safford Jr., of the firm of Wood & Safford, chemists, of this city. Edward Safford has two daughters.

The funeral will be held after the arrival of Edward Safford who left Silver Creek, New York, last night for Great Falls, and while it can not be said what the exact date will be, the funeral probably will be held on next Thursday. The services will be held in the chapel of the W. H. George company. Burial will be in Highland.

STONE DOUBLES HIS STOREROOM

Well Known Clothing and Furniture Dealer Secures Lease on Adjoining Building.

By leasing the building formerly occupied by the Stockholm saloon and adding that floor space to the store he has occupied for the past five years, E. H. Stone last week doubled the space his store has occupied up to the present. In anticipation of the additional space that would be available, Mr. Stone ordered a complete set of oak cabinets and the new fixtures were put in place last week. The cabinets are set across the front along the west wall of the interior and contain the store's stock of suits and hats, making the space which they formerly occupied available for other new stock that will shortly arrive. The store habitually carries an immense stock of suits and these have been placed in attractive display. Mr. Stone has built up an important jobbing trade in this line, recently receiving a car of suit cases, bags and trunks.

Rearrangement of the stock made necessary the installment of a new lighting system, workmen being engaged several days last week in fixing clusters and bulbs that will to better advantage show the contents of the shelves and cases. Rearrangement of the cashier's desk and accounting department was also necessary. "This is the third enlargement of the store since I first opened five years ago," said Mr. Stone last week, "but not until I was able to get the building formerly occupied by the Stockholm and combine it with my store did I feel that I was prepared to do justice to the trade. Since tearing out the partition that separated the new building from the old I have taken a big portion of the stock over into the addition, and from the amount that is left on can see how limited was the old space. My claim is that I have the biggest men's furnishing business in Great Falls and next year, with possibilities opened up thru acquisition of adequate store room, I expect to set a pace that will be difficult to equal."

Additional light is admitted to the remodelled store thru a window arrangement that was made while other repairs were in progress. New windows were installed, and in putting them in place there was kept in mind by the proprietor the advantages of a window display. The latter feature will be an important item in becoming work but during the first array of apparel to be installed will be put in place as soon as the work of remodeling the interior is completed.

CHICCARDI ARRESTED

Aazzi Chiccardi was arrested yesterday at Black Eagle by Deputy Sheriff Matt Martinech on advice from Sheriff L. L. Hartsell, of Anaconda. The message advising the arrest of Chiccardi stated that a warrant had been obtained in the smelter city for his detention, but no intimation was given as to the offense of which he is accused.

PLEAS BY A BIG CLASS IN COURT

Appearing in district court yesterday in response to informations charging them with grand larceny, Edward Bassford and Walter Spurrier entered formal pleas of not guilty. Bassford and Spurrier are two of five men arrested in November for alleged complicity in the theft of whisky from the Great Northern railroad, others taken up on the same charge being Fred Balcom, John Pasco and Fred Polk. Their detention followed the discovery of liquor caches on the South side and Black Eagle. Pasco and Balcom asked for time in which to make their pleas and will be in court again Monday.

Fred Bailey, charged with stealing a suitcase in which the owner was carrying several thousand dollars' worth of property, was also arraigned yesterday, but at his request was allowed the statutory time in which to plead. W. E. Bennett was appointed as his counsel by the court.

The seventh man arraigned was James Rothes, and he, too, will not enter his plea until Monday morning. Rothes is accused of attempting to burglarize the Lincoln hotel. His counsel will be W. M. Cockrill, who was designated to act by the court.

Nine other defendants were scheduled to appear yesterday, but their cases were put over until Monday. They are Frank Strand, charged with burglary; R. Hanson and R. N. Peterson, burglary; Avi Robinette, second degree assault; J. J. Waller and Ed Hamigan, gambling; W. R. Randall and D. Hershkovich, gambling; J. J. Waller and Ike Colvin, gambling, and Jacob Neft, receiving stolen property. Neft will plead on two counts.
