

January the Month of Clearance

At The Paris and Every Day Brings Forth Some New Economy

This is our general house-cleaning time when all broken lines, soiled goods and things that have been overlooked, receive their final marching orders. At the same time many special purchases are being received and some of the regular lines are being reduced. It is a time when one may save large amounts for men, women and children; a time when it pays to visit The Paris every day and to depend upon this store for safe and seasonable economy.
