RETAILERS WILL MEET IN HELENA STARTING JAN. 15

J. S. Knox, Head of Salesmanship School to Be Principal Speaker at Annual Gathering.

Special to The Daily Tribune.

Helena, Jan. 12.—Indications are that the 16th annual convention of the Retail Merchants' association of Montana, which will open in Helena, Wednesday morning, January 15, for a three days' session, will be the largest in point of attendance and the most important in the history of the organization because of the matters that are to be considered.

Secretary R. L. Varney has received word from several scores of members in all sections of the state that they will be in attendance, and it is expected that there will be representatives from every town of any size in Montana.

Principal among the problems to be considered is a readjustment of conditions following the war, how to get prices and the costs of doing business back to normal without disturbing the equilibrium of business conditions. An authority to discuss this and methods of efficiency the officers of the association have secured J. S. Knox, head of the Knox school of salesmanship and formerly with the National Cash Register company.

Four Lectures.

Mr. Knox will deliver four lectures, which will be open to the public and he will have for his subjects "Making Failure Impossible," "The Making of an Executive," "Community Efficiency" and "The Power of Salesmanship."

The sessions Wednesday will be taken up with organization, addresses of the speakers, reports of officers and business in general. The reports of committees will be made in the afternoon and in the evening Mr. Knox will speak on "Making Failure Impossible." Thursday morning there will be short talks by members and addresses by George L. Ramsey of Helena former attorney General McCue of North Dakota, now a resident of Great Falls. The afternoon will be taken up with reports and a talk by Mr. Knox on "The Making of an Executive." Thursday evening the business men of Helena will entertain the visitors with a "Singfest" and dance, Friday morning, Mr. Knox will deliver his address on "Community Efficiency" and there will be discussions. In the afternoon the election of officers, selection of meeting place and closing business will take place. There will be a banquet at 6 o'clock with entertainment features followed by a lecture by Mr. Knox as "The Power of Salesmanship."

INFLUENZA SEEMS FULLY CONTROLLED

There Were but Four New Cases Yesterday and That Is About Daily Average.

Everyone of the four cases of influenza that were reported to the health department last night were accounted for in admission to hospitals. The disease is believed to be as nearly stamped out in this city as will be possible for many months, since the health board proposes to continue requiring reports on the cases and keeping it in check. The Great Falls plan of quarantining the cases at the source has resulted in business in no way being affected by the disease and the number of new cases being reported here than any other place in the state, putting it on the basis of the number of cases per thousand inhabitants.

ARMENIAN CAMPAIGN OPENS THIS MORNING

At a Relief Center Where Nursing Mothers are Receiving Condensed Milk. The women are awaiting their turn outside the Gate.

Great Falls people are again asked to thrust their hands into their pocket this week and produce $12,500 for the relief of Armenian, Syrian and other people in Europe who are about to die from starvation conditions if some aid is not extended to them at once. Early this morning the drive for the money will commence and the committee in charge has until Saturday night to complete the task of putting the city over the top. They expect to do this long before the last hour and already contributions are pouring into the hands of Treasurer H. F. Lee. Neihart was over the top Saturday and Cascade had but $5 more to raise to reach its quota. Other towns are rapidly approaching their sums, and several substantial contributions have been made by Great Falls people. The War Relief captains and teams will conduct the drive in this district, using the identical method employed in raising the War Relief quota. Great Northern shop and R. & M. smelter men are pledged to help and can be depended upon for splendid donations. Secretary A. R. Blackstone says things look bright just at the opening of the campaign and trusts the people of the district will respond to the appeal for relief and again place the community over the top, capping the war record of Great Falls with a final victory in the drive that will reflect creditably upon the district.

Reasons Why Secretary Blackstone announces he is besieged with questions asked by people who are not fully acquainted with all details of the campaign, such as the need of it, why it is being conducted, when, etc. In order to assist in clarifying any misunderstanding the committee in charge is publishing the following questions and answers:

Why? America entered the great war that the rights of small nations may never again be trampled upon. The noble little nations of the near east have kept the faith and borne the burden of massacre which thousands of miles have kept from our homes.

Victory has come. And now those bravest and staunchest pilgrims, in sight of the goal of freedom, stand for lack of $30,000,000—your $5 and $10 and $50—in immediate danger of starvation or of death from the diseases of war and hunger.

Why doesn't the Red Cross do it? The Red Cross found the machinery of relief already at work in the Near East—the missionaries, who know the people and speak their languages, and all official representatives of the United States had been organized by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief. Channels of distribution were well established. And the Red Cross asked the committee to carry on all relief work in the Near East territory, in $24.50 Cloth Coats.....$25.00 $37.50 Cloth Coats.....$37.50 $32.50 Cloth Coats.....$35.00 $22.50 Cloth Coats.....$25.00 $17.75 Heavy Velour Coats.....$12.50 $15.75 Good Velour Cloth Coats.....$8.75

CORP. DUGAN DIES IN EAST

Son of Great Falls People Advised of His Death From the Influenza.

Word was received in the city yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Dugan of the death of their son, Corporal F. Kenneth Dugan, at Camp Colt, Middleton, Pa., following an attack of Spanish influenza.

Corporal Dugan enlisted in the aviation supply branch of the U. S. service Jan. 1, 1918. His body will probably be shipped to this city for burial.

RIDING PRESCRIBED FOR U. S. OFFICERS OCCUPYING RHINE

Coblenz, Jan. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Officers at the headquarters of the American army of occupation have been ordered to take exercise according to methods that have been prescribed.

In the first place, they must ride. A sufficient number of mounts had been brought to Coblenz and every officer, whether cavalryman, infantryman or airman must report on Monday at riding school. There previously had been an order issued insisting upon exercise by the officers, but leaving it to the individual to determine the method.

Power derived from a windmill increases practically with the cube of the wind velocity.

Today's Plans Men of the four divisions will report for duty at 9 a. m. today in the lobby at Hotel Rainbow. The women will report in the palm room at 9:30. District cards, pledge cards, pencils if needed and campaign buttons are ready for the workers.

Women at Boston Heights will report to Mrs. Biran, 3227 Fourth street north. West side women will report to Mrs. H. B. Noble, 425 First avenue southwest. The expenses of the committee in putting on the campaign in Cascade county will be less than $100. All that has been used was spent for postage, type writing, telegrams, and express. Not one cent goes to any solicitor or member of the committee.

Some men and women of Great Falls are pledged so much a month for the Armenians. So far as the committee is concerned those pledges were cancelled with the December payment in 1918. But those same pledges may be renewed for 1919. So those desiring to continue a pledge can sign up again when approached today.

Altho the Conrad Trust & Savings bank at Helena is the state depository, the local depository is the Commercial National bank and H. F. Lee is the treasurer. All checks should be made to Mr. Lee.
