HASKINS OF HELENA ACQUIRES CONTROL OF BANK AT HAVRE

Deal Takes Place at Meeting of Stockholders of Farmers' State.

Special to The Daily Tribune. - Havre, Jan. 16.—One of the largest financial deals in Havre for some time took place here Tuesday at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' State bank, when C. A. Haskins of Helena purchased a majority of the stock and secured a controlling interest in the bank. His title will be vice president, although it is understood he will determine the bank's policies and direct its management. Before coming to Havre, Mr. Haskins was for some time deputy state bank examiner. He resigned from that post just prior to embarking in the banking business in Havre. He has had 18 years of experience in banking in Montana. One of his first official acts on assuming control here was to strengthen the farm loan department of the bank by securing new eastern connections. He has retained R. A. McBryne as cashier and the entire office force. Mr. Haskins will move to Havre with his family as soon as he is able to secure a home.

BIG RECLAMATION PROJECTS PROPOSED ACROSS BOUNDARY

Government of Canada Ready to Aid Development in Southern Alberta.

Special to The Daily Tribune. - Lethbridge, Alta., Jan. 16.—The department of the interior at Ottawa has in hand a big reclamation scheme for southern Alberta. Projects that have been under consideration are now ready to be carried out—the Taber, the Lethbridge Northern and the Southeast Lethbridge projects. The first is to put under irrigation 17,000 acres, but it is likely to be delayed to allow for finding the amount of water that is available from the St. Mary's river. This is a matter for the international waterways commission. In the Lethbridge Northern project a great deal depends on the willingness of the farmers to secure the water. On them the final decision rests as the land is all settled. The new reclamation service will have to decide whether the government will undertake to guarantee the bonds of an irrigation district formed by the farmers to build the dams and ditches and to carry the water to the land. The surveys are made and water can be made available by cutting the canal from the Belly and the Waterton rivers if the waters of the St. Mary and the Milk rivers are not available, for the largest project of all. This is for the irrigation of the large tract of country southeast of Lethbridge. The Lethbridge Northern project comprises 100,000 acres, which is considerably less than the southeast area. Whether the government will undertake the irrigation reclamation as is being done in the United States, or guarantee the bonds only, leaving the farmers to take their own organizations to go on with the construction, is at present an open question.

Anti-Saloon League Head Believes Law Permits Near Beer

Miles City, Jan. 16.—The sale of beverages containing less than two per cent alcohol, is not forbidden by the Montana prohibition laws, in the opinion of George Miles, president of the Anti-Saloon League. He further stated that the league will not attempt to have any bone-dry law passed at the present legislature but would like to see the present act tried out first. He says that the league favors the appointment of a state sheriff and staff to enforce prohibition, but that it is "only mildly interested" in the proposal of the W. C. T. U. for the passage of a search-and-seizure law at the present time.

A. drive for the war fund according to a statement given out today by H. M. Allen, estate treasurer of the fund. MERCHANTS PRESENT IMPLICATION THEY ARE PROFIT SHARKS

Many Sold Below Prices Fixed by Committees, Says Ben Briscoe.

Helena, Jan. 16.—In scores of instances Montana merchants were selling goods at a less figure than those allowed by the fair price fixing committees before the committees began their work. Ben B. Briscoe, of Boston, president of the Montana Retail Merchants' association, asserted at the opening session yesterday in the rose room of the Eddy cafe. He said the merchants of the state did not object to the appointment of these committees but they did object to the unwarranted implication that regulation of the merchants was necessary to obtain fair prices. He insisted Montana merchants had not been fairly treated. President Briscoe, at the conclusion of his remarks, introduced Major John Dryburgh, who welcomed the visitors to Helena. After the appointment of committees on credentials, rules of order, constitution and laws, officers' reports, resolutions, steering and finance and audit, annual reports of the president, secretary and treasurer were received. George L. Ramsey, former speaker of the Montana house and a leading Helena banker, was the principal speaker today. He predicted general prosperity for the state during reconstruction. Former Attorney General McCue of North Dakota, who is a resident of Great Falls, reviewed "business problems." Talk on efficiency by an expert consumed the afternoon session. J. S. Knox, a national authority on merchandising, spoke last evening at the Auditorium on "Making Failure Impossible."

CUT BANK VOTERS TO DECIDE QUESTION OF LIGHT FRANCHISE

Great Falls Concern Is Ready to Install 170-Horsepower Plant.

Special to The Daily Tribune. - Cut Bank, Jan. 16.—The city council decided Monday night to submit to the voters the question whether Cut Bank shall have an electric light plant, according to a plan submitted by Joe H. Seal and son of Great Falls, in accordance with which they would receive a 25-year franchise. At a special meeting to be called this week the council will make arrangements for a special election, to be held within three weeks, after which, providing the people decide to grant the franchise, work will be started immediately on the erection of poles, stringing of wire and the building of a plant. Seal states that he will be ready to furnish power by July 1. A 170-horsepower plant is proposed, with a two-unit hydro-electric and gas installation and a guaranteed daylight-to-daylight service. Meters will be installed, and in all probability a 24-hour service will be maintained.

SAYS COLD WEATHER BRINGS RETURN OF INFLUENZA

Public Must Be Careful to Avoid a Second Epidemic, Easier to Prevent Than Cure. What to Do. "Encouraging reports of the fewer cases of influenza in this vicinity should not allow us to relax our vigilance or to become careless in the belief that the danger is all over," says a well-known authority. With the coming of cold weather there is apt to be a return of this frightful epidemic and its seriousness will depend on the extent of the precautions taken by the public to prevent infection. When the air is full of influenza germs, you may be constantly breathing them into your nose and throat. But their danger may be avoided and you may make yourself practically immune to infection if you destroy the germ before it actually begins work in your blood. During the recent serious epidemic, which hit Great Falls so hard, most successful results were obtained by many through the simple breathing into the air of oil of Hyomei. Probably no better, safer or more sensible precaution against influenza, grippe, colds, bronchitis or catarrh of the nose and throat could be employed than to go now to the nearest drug store and get a complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a bottle of the pure Oil of Hyomei and a little vest-pocket hard rubber inhaling device, into which a few drops of the oil are poured. Carry this Inhaler with you during the day and each half hour or so put it in your mouth and draw deep breaths of this healing germicidal air into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs to destroy any germs that may have found lodgment there. This simple precaution may save you a serious illness and the loss of several weeks' work. It is pleasant to use and not at all expensive, as the inhaler will last a lifetime and further supplies of the Oil of Hyomei can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Hundreds of people in this vicinity used Hyomei in this way during the recent crisis and avoided danger. They should use it now, for the danger is by no means over. Model Pharmacy—Adv.
