WHERE EVERYBODY PLAYS

America is rapidly becoming a nation where everybody plays. It is a sign of virility. It is wholesome. In the old days a chap felt like apologizing to his boss if he played. Nowadays he will have to explain why he does NOT play. The boss knows that the fellows who play are the chaps who are full of enthusiasm for work. Drop in tonight and bring in one of your pals. You'll find a friendly congenial atmosphere here.
