UNION PARENT-TEACHER MEETING WELL ATTENDED

The union meeting of the Parent-Teacher associations of Great Falls held in the auditorium of the New Junior high school last Thursday was attended by great number of the parents of the school. No business was transacted at this meeting and the time was merely devoted to a program, rendered by a number of the best musicians and speakers of Great Falls.

The address on "Immigration" by Rev. A. R. Blackstone was especially enjoyed as were also the closing remarks made by Superintendent S. D. Largent. The entire meeting was a splendid success and the credit for it is largely due to the efforts of Mrs. W. F. Guy and Mrs. I. N. Walker.

MUSICAL CLUB ORGANIZED

Friday evening a new musical club was organized in this city by Mrs. Adelaide Spencer Donovan at her studio in the Palace theater building. The new club is for singers and nearly all of the voices are solo voices. The officers elected were: Mrs. Schwingel, president; James J. Wuerthner, vice president; Miss Clara Smith, secretary; Miss Mae Virginia Shafer, treasurer; R. P. Reckard, librarian; Miss Shafer, accompanist; Mrs. Donovan, director; Otto A. Gerth, chairman of the program committee and William C. Coffman, chairman of the committee for securing artists. The club will take up the study of the "Wedding Feast of Hiawatha" by Colridge Taylor. This beautiful Indian music is especially interesting in view of the national sentiment now being launched to make it the national music. The club will meet once a week.

BLUE TRIANGLE IS SECURITY FOR OPERA

She was an absent-minded secretary, with her mind more on the Y. W. C. A. foyer for industrial girls in France than on the affairs of the moment. She was always lucky, as such folk are liable to be, and had just secured two wonderful seats for the opera—the popular Mary Garden in "Thais"—at the last moment; and was getting there at reduced rate because the person who had exchanged them had paid an exchange tax, thus giving her the benefit of the shift. "If I'm not the luckiest ever!" she murmured. She fumbled in her purse and drew out one lonely, seventy dollar bill. Involuntarily she gasped. "Oh, how stupid! I haven't enough!" Out of the long, impatient line behind her stepped a woman, who thrust a ten-dollar bill in her hand. The secretary gazed at the woman, and then at the "Blue Triangle on your uniform is security," said the woman, with a smile. And now one absent-minded secretary for the Y. W. C. A. vows that the only safe thing for her to do is to sleep in that uniform with the Blue Triangle on the sleeve!

LAURETTE TAYLOR'S PROTEGE

Lynn Fontanne, the amazingly versatile young actress now touring with Laurette Taylor in "Happiness," is to be presented before the end of the current season in the leading role of a new play destined for New York consumption next autumn. In a sense she is a protegee of Miss Taylor, being the latter's most intimate friend and having been brought to the attention of George C. Tyler at the suggestion of the star. All of her American appearances have been made as a member of Miss Taylor's company. Miss Fontanne enjoyed considerable distinction in London as a character actress before coming to this country. She made her American debut as a somewhat wishy-washy ingenue in "The Woeful"

EMPLOYERS WON'T RECOGNIZE HEROES LONG, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Anna Kross.

New York, March 5.—Mrs. Anna Kross, assistant corporation counsel of New York city, the first woman to hold such a position in any American city, speaking of the re-employment of returning soldiers and giving them their old jobs back, says:

"American employers will hold to the open door policy for returning soldiers only long enough to live up to patriotic demands. In six months from now the mere fact that a man once wore a uniform won't influence the employers when women come into their offices offering to do the same work for less money. "The women in positions today will step out, but if after six months the employers find that the women were superior to the soldiers in any particular degree, the women will be invited to return to the jobs they held during the soldiers' absence. There is no sentiment in business and after six months we won't ask a man, 'Were you injured in the war or did a street car run over you?'"

Ever since a young woman who lost into tears on the slightest provocation. She followed this with three character studies as widely dissimilar as could well be imagined. In "The Harp of Life" she was a country mouse who unexpectedly threw off an assumed demureness and minded the various clubs—poultry, pig, canning and others. The reports of this work were extremely good and many of the members plan to carry on a similar program during the coming season.

FORESTERS HAVE PLEASANT PARTY

Local Court Entertains at Cards in the St. Mary's Institute Hall.

A very enjoyable card and social party was held at St. Mary's institute hall on Monday evening, March 3, under the auspices of St. Ann's court, Catholic Order of Foresters. This was the first of the kind indulged in by the local court in a long time and their efforts were attended with exceptional success. Cards, dancing and refreshments were the features of the evening.

The local court is again engaged in a campaign for new members. During the past year the membership was increased by 75, a majority of whom were very young men, thereby strengthening the stability of the organization and in no small degree improving the social status. Aided by the high court officers at Childs, a very efficient system of team work has been developed during the past year, and the members are very confident that they can repeat the success of the past at any time they so desire.

URGING MEMBERS RENEW STANDING

Eagles Conducting Campaign to Bring Back to Fold All Now in Arrears.

Monday night will be the regular meeting of the Great Falls circle of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. This will be reinstatement meeting and an effort is being made to have all members who are now in arrears reinstated. There will be initiation of a class of candidates, and a good time is promised by the committee. At the last meeting, which was attended by a representative full house, six candidates were initiated. Brothers Nichols, Shea and Martin were appointed on a committee to visit returning soldier Eagles. Resolutions were adopted on the deaths of Harley Hooker and Robert J. Blew. During the absence of the worthy president, Homer Stone, who is now on a buying trip to New York, the worthy vice president, William Shea, is acting in his place. All members are urged to attend next Monday's meeting, which is important.

Children of Schools Helped Win the War

Report Shows Great Falls Pupils Purchased Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Bonds and Stamps and Worked Hard.

Heroically staying away from the movies, going without candy, gum and a beloved ice cream soda, to help the children of Belgium buy bread and clothing, were but a few of the methods of serving their country adopted by the children of Great Falls according to a report recently completed by Superintendent S. D. Largent.

A Remarkable Record. Teachers and pupils all entered into the "win the war" spirit with a vim and determination which brought far greater results when totaled up than even the teachers themselves believed possible. More than $74,000 in Liberty bonds were purchased by the pupils and teachers. Some of the pupils earned the money for their bonds and others were given bonds by their parents.

Teachers and pupils purchased more than $15,000 worth of war saving stamps. A large number of the youngsters earned the money with which to purchase the stamps. According to reports sent in, about 95 per cent of the children conserved on foodstuffs, a large number on paper, pencils, fuel, light and clothes. Owing to the increased demand for foodstuffs, the schools emphasized the garden work and, as a result, 685 gardens were planted, ranging in size from 100 square feet to a lot 50x150 feet. There were 177 children who belonged to the Garden club and the value of the products sold was $8,481.11. A large number assisted in caring for their parents' gardens in town or on ranches.

The pupils in grades four to eight, inclusive, were trained in junior four-minute speeches on different war subjects. Once a week each student in grades five to eight, inclusive, was given a special instruction in "Community and National Life" from government bulletins. "Current Events" were also taken up once a week, and this paper kept the children posted on different events of the war and affairs of the nation. In all programs given during the school year, patriotism and right citizenship were emphasized.

For the two school years, 1917-18 and 1918-19, the students of the grades have held 100 per cent membership in the Junior Red Cross. A large number of children also have adult memberships, and all of the teachers belong to the Red Cross.

A number of the children and teachers donated magazines, joke books, pillows, rubbers, shoes, quilts, towels, wash cloths, aprons, books, electric bulbs, smokes for the soldiers, Victrola records, glasses for army and navy use, yarn and material for garments to the Red Cross.

For the united war fund drive in November, 1918, a large number of students enrolled as Victory Boys and Girls and a number of them served on the Victory Boy and Girl committees. It is giving a very conservative estimate to say that more than $1,700 was donated to this fund by school people.

Helped in Drives. In all other drives—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Armenian, K. of C. and Polish, the needs of the schools responded generously. Christmas boxes for the soldiers were also provided by a number of the school people. The children of the grades gave monthly for 11 months $34,231 for the relief of destitute children of France and Belgium. Most of this money was earned by the children on the outside or saved from their allowance.

A large number of the pupils and most of the teachers did knitting for the Red Cross making sweaters, socks, helmets, wristlets, belts, wash cloths, quilt squares, scarfs, etc. Some of them used Red Cross yarn and others donated the yarn. They also sewed for the Red Cross. Some did this work at the chapter house and others took the work home. Some of the articles made were comfort pillows, squares for quilts, comfort kits, carpet rags, bed socks, hospital slippers, lavettes, sweater vests, etc. The girls of the domestic science classes gave one-fourth of their class time to sewing for the Red Cross.

Number Worked. A number of the children worked at the Red Cross rooms snipping, making joke books, cleaning up rooms and making gun wipes. Others did this work at home and also made trench candles. More than 200,000 gun wipes were made by the children. In some of the schools the children delivered the Red Cross material and then collected the finished articles. Some of the teachers who drove cars gave an afternoon once a week during the summer delivering and collecting articles. Some of the children collected junk which they sold, and the money was turned over to the Red Cross. Tinfoil was also collected for the same purpose. During the summer a few of the pupils had lemonade stands and donated the proceeds to the Red Cross.

A number of the older girls took care of small children so the mothers could go to the Red Cross rooms. Quite a few of the teachers gave a few hours each week to surgical dressing work and a few children worked in this department, making eye sponges, bandages, etc. A number of the teachers took the Red Cross course in surgical dressing.

Tag days for various war drives were successfully carried out by teachers and pupils, who succeeded in raising large sums for different organizations. The principals were solicitors for several of the Liberty bond drives, and during all drives gave talks in the different rooms about buying bonds and "doing our best." The principals sold thrift and war savings stamps at the schools. In this way a number of pupils purchased them who otherwise might not have taken the trouble to go downtown and get them. The teachers gave much of their time in aiding the government by doing clerical work. They also assisted the local and district boards in classifying and tabulating the questionnaires.

BOYS AND GIRLS RAISING ORPHANS

However, No Baby's Bottle Is Used, Because They Are "Bum" Lambs.

Boys and girls, would you like to earn some money for yourselves this summer? If so, here is a way you can begin at once with little or no capital and at the same time do much toward helping feed and clothe the nation.

Either go to the various shepherders in your vicinity and make arrangements to secure one or more "bum" lambs or hunt the lost lambs on the range. In some cases boys have gone to sheep camps during the lambing season and stayed until they have collected as many "bum" lambs as they could care for, while others have hired out as shepherders, especially during the war, taking such lambs in part payment for their labor. When young, it is necessary to feed these lambs by hand, but when a little older they can be staked out where they will thrive on grass and weeds that otherwise would be a nuisance. Therefore, the cost of feed for a few lambs is small, making the returns from their sale largely clear profit.

Last year Vincent Lowery, of Deer Lodge, Mont., was given 13 orphan lambs which he cared for until September 30, selling them at that time for $100. Many other boys and girls over the state raised from three to 10 lambs with corresponding returns. What these boys and girls have done you can do, and thus begin now to lay the foundation for a successful and profitable business. Also you are saving lambs to produce meat and wool that without your care would be left to die and be a total loss. In one state alone last year more than 5000 lambs were saved thru the efforts of the boys and girls.

When you secure one or more lambs, enroll in the boys' and girls' sheep club with the state club leader, Bozeman, Mont., who will send you bulletins and other instructions telling how to care for your lambs. In addition to this, by becoming a club member you will be eligible to compete for the prizes offered in the club work for the best sheep in each county. It will add interest to get four or five other boys and girls to secure lambs or organize a sheep club in your community and all enroll with the state club leader. This will enable you to exchange helpful suggestions, about your work. If you are ambitious to have a bank account of your own, make plans today to secure some orphan lambs and become a sheep club member.

By MINA O'GILVIE, Assistant State Club Leader.

time using what you mention. Why not make up this cream yourself, and then you will be absolutely certain that your complexion will be wonderfully beautified in a few weeks? Mix together in a ounce of zinc oxide and two tablespoonfuls of glycerine in a pint of water, to form a cream. Rub in well, and use twice a day at least, if you can. Your freckles and all muddiness and blemishes will very soon give way to the exquisite tint and spotless loveliness you have so long wished for. The mixture will cost about 50 cents at any drug store.

LOOK—Blackheads? It is very easy to get rid of them. I will tell you how, and you will get rid of them in only a few moments, too. On a wet cloth sprinkle some norexin, costing about 50 cents at your drugist. Rub this on the blackheads, and then look in your mirror and see if I am not right.

MISS E. E.—Fatty accumulations are constantly forming on every scalp. Soap cannot remove them, it simply removes the looser dirt. Dissolve a teaspoonful of eggol in half a cup of water and use as a head wash. This will dissolve away all these accumulations and leave the hair with a splendid sheen just like silk. You can get enough eggol for 25c to give you over a dozen shampoos.

MRS. GRUMBLE—Your complaint about chafky freckles will be taken I want you to try the face powder which I had made up for myself in order to avoid this chafkiness. It is "Valeska Suratt Face Powder," and is sold at drug stores in any tin for 50 cents.

MISS G. O.C.—Here is the best way in the world to get rid of any superfluous hair and do it without reddening or irritating the skin. It is the only way known to "dissolve" the hair. It leaves the skin in perfect condition and leaves no spot or redness whatever. It is glorious to use. Get a one dollar bottle of sulfo solution in a few moments the hairs dissolve completely away, and the "work" is entirely done.

DIMPLES—Apply some hydrolized talc to the armpits, and you will find that it will do more than anything else to regulate that excessive perspiration in the armpits and destroy all odors completely. You can obtain the hydrolized talc for 50 cents at any drug store.

MISS B. O. H.—You remember once before I told you that you were wasting
