"MITCH" LEWIS STARS AT ALCAZAR—"THE MAN HUNTER" COMING

Mitchell Lewis is being featured at the Alcazar theater today and Monday in "Nine-Tenths of the Law." It is a gripping story of the Canadian woods in which the possession of an 18-month-old babe forms the most powerful plot of a thrilling drama of the north woods. Mutt and Jeff in a new comic and the Alcazar scenic film complete a most excellent bill.

One of the biggest of all productions in filmdom, "The Man Hunter," with William Farnum in the leading role will be shown at the Alcazar commencing Tuesday. It is a William Fox picture. "The Man Hunter" suggests at once a tale of adventure. This it is. But it is something more. The adventure it narrates is not of a "Soldier of Fortune," but of a strong man who vows vengeance and runs down a false friend who has betrayed his confidence by tricking him from wealth into penury and who seeks by flight to escape the wrath of the victim.

In its development this play is unique among screen productions. It starts from London to New York, from New York to a desert island, and from the island back to New York. It gives striking pictures not only of the gayer life of the two great cities, but of the slums as well. It reflects social strata ranging from wealth to the gutter. It furnishes Mr. Farnum with greater opportunities for differentiation in character studies than he ever has enjoyed in any previous single production.

There will also be a two reel comedy and a "News" reel.

"TURN TO THE RIGHT" IS COMEDY FEATURE AT GRAND TONIGHT

"Turn to the Right," a comedy which has been scoring a decided success wherever presented will be the attraction at the Grand theater tonight and Monday night. The play is said to be a scream from start to finish and comes here highly recommended.

The Pantages bill at the Grand Tuesday and Wednesday nights has been given the following by the Calgary Daily Herald:

Fun is fast and furious at the Pantages this week and anyone looking for amusement and entertainment will find it there.

Minnetti and Sidell, who declaim themselves as agile envoys from Funland, live up to their reputation, and action puts their act in the first class of the bill. Dorothy Rowe sings several songs in a very delightful manner and won herself a warm reception.

John J. Sparks and company, in a bright clever Irish sketch, "A Friendly Feud" were well received and contributed a welcome number on the bill. The sketch proved very entertaining and displayed the feud of two old Irish friends in a truly typical manner.

Kloss and Termini, in an extra number, added one of the big attractions to the bill. Their musical numbers were unique and rendered with much ability and talent. Several encores were responded to. Each one brot down the house. Ben Lynn was another popular entertainer and in an amusing way he capitalized his weight. The closing numbers, "College Girls' Frolics," was the usual girl act with artistic settings and a personable looking chorus. The principles were not all they might have been but on the whole the act was meritorious.

"THE MEDICINE MAN" IS WESTERN THRILLER AT GEM THEATER TODAY

A program which is advertised as being one of "Mirth and Worth" is the order of the day at the Gem theater for today and tomorrow. The program is headed by a thrilling western feature entitled "The Medicine Man" and stars the popular favorite Roy Stewart who is famous with Great Falls for his dare-devil riding and breezy acting. "The Medicine Man" is a feature attraction in every sense of the word and is bound to please those fortunate to attend the Gem today. The comedy will be Charlie Chaplin in a riotous comedy, "The Love Fiend" and just to make things even more amusing and interesting there is Fatty Arbuckle in "The Bouncer".

On Tuesday and Wednesday a brand new play of more than usual merit is the Universal special attraction, "The Amazing Wife" with Mary MacLaren, "The American Beauty of the Screen." This is said to be the story of a woman at bay and tells of the struggle of a starving young widow who sees in the similarity of names between her own husband and a young man of wealth, reported killed in action, a chance to get even with the world that has treated her so harshly. She is accepted as the widow of the young officer. Then he returns.

For the first time in Great Falls comes a special feature picture on Thursday, Friday and Saturday called, "The Eleventh Commandment." It was produced by Ralph W. Ince and stars beautiful Lucile Lee Stewart, sister of Anita Stewart.

The brilliant dramatic star, Norma Talmadge, is scheduled for a four days' run, commencing with the matinee today in her newest success, "The Heart of Wetona."

"The Heart of Wetona" is a superlative American story by an American author. Beautiful Norma Talmadge as the half-Indian girl with two suitors, one white, one Indian, blends perfectly with the gorgeous scenes of the Canadian woods. The picture was taken on the Idylwild Indian reservation, 6000 feet above sea level, and amid a village of 150 Indians and 20 log cabins. The Indians made Miss Talmadge one of their princesses before she left them after a stay of several weeks.

"MICKEY" MAKING HIT AT PALACE—THOMAS H. INCH COMING HERE.

As a character study "Mickey," now showing at the Palace theater, is a real work of art. You will never forget this adorable little waif. The story of "Mickey" is vivid with action, much of which is laid in that wonderful twilight zone of comedy where half the laughs are won with tears.

Mickey is a sweet, wholesome, mischievous little girl, raised by her foster father, an old miner, and her foster mother, a wise old Indian squaw, in the mountain country far away from the glamour and chill of the city.

Later she is sent to the city "to make a lady of her," at the home of her aunt, a scheming, jealous hypocrite—and she doesn't find her path exactly strewn with roses. But through, the old cheerfulness of little Mickey prevails, and with her sheer happy perseverance she conquers what seem unbearable burdens and difficulties for the little waif. There are wistful and pathetic touches in "Mickey," as well as humor laid in with delicacy and a sure touch.

Miss Normand is always a charming comedienne, but she is at her very best in this part—in this vivid and appealing comedy drama with a real living character—told without squash pies, battles or the seduction of the innocent heroine.

GOVERNMENT'S R.R. LOSS $36,696,000 DURING FEBRUARY

Washington, April 5.—Railroad net earnings in February continued to decline and were less than in January, or than in February of last year. The net revenue was about $10,109,000, or $8,674,000 less than in the preceding month and $1,714,000 less than in February, 1918. The approximate loss to the government on this basis of the guaranteed return was $36,696,000, about the same as in January.

These figures, compiled today by the bureau of railway economics, are unofficial, but probably are an accurate forecast of the Interstate Commerce commission's summary to be issued next week.

Operating revenues for February were recorded as $351,748,000 or $45,000,000 less than in the preceding month. Operating expenses were $324,300,000 or $33,000,000 less than in January.

In February last year, a bad month for the same roads included in the preliminary tabulation were $289,525,000. Revenues in February this year were 21 per cent greater. Expenses last February, however, were 24 per cent greater than the $260,981,000 expenses of the corresponding month a year ago. Net revenue to the government was 14 per cent less than the $11,253,000 of February, 1918.
