Auditorium Bond Issue Is Being Hard Fought at Lewistown

Special to The Daily Tribune. Lewistown, April 5.—The proposed "auditorium" bond issue, which is to be passed upon Monday, seems to be considered as good as defeated now. A very strong statement by former Mayor W. D. Symmes showing that the proposal, as submitted, is not for an auditorium at all but "for the erection of an addition to the city hall and the construction, for the purposes of municipal offices," backed by the opinion of the leading attorneys of the city, has convinced nearly everyone that the issue, if endorsed, would not be legally available for an auditorium. In addition to this, Mr. Symmes directs attention to the fact that two years hence $90,000 of water works bonds should be retired and he contends that to divert the revenue from the water works, which should go to the sinking fund, to make up the deficit, is unwise. In addition to the proposed bond issue, to complete and equip the auditorium, would be contrary to law as well as unwise in its economic aspect. C. J. Marshall, who is opposing Alderman Emil Kindschy for mayor, takes the same view.

Taft to Head Victory Loan Drive in Glacier

Special to The Daily Tribune. Cut Bank, April 5.—Robert L. Taft, cashier of the First National Bank, has been chosen for the new county of Glacier as chairman of the Victory Loan drive which starts this month. A considerable task confronts Mr. Taft in this undertaking as this county is entirely in the drought zone, no harvest having been reaped for the past two years and finances at a low ebb, money being required for the needs of the farmer in putting in spring crops. But a campaign will be put into full swing by Mr. Taft in the near future and as soon as the quota for the new county is received a determined effort will be made by the citizens to assist the chairman.

LEADING BUSINESS MEN OF HAVRE EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF NEWMAN'S WORK FOR CITY

Progressive Citizens of Hill County Metropolis in Signed Statement Set Out Commendable Accomplishments of Their Former Mayor, Now Candidate for Similar Office in Great Falls.

Special to The Daily Tribune. Havre, April 5.—The news of the nomination of Louis Newman, a former resident and mayor of Havre, for the important office of mayor of Great Falls, is received here by the business men with deep interest.

Mr. Newman is remembered here as "an uncommon mayor in an uncommon city," with unusual conditions in the business, political and civic issues, and in the social and moral life of the city. The "Little Giant" of Havre's transition period, when heaps of good horse sense, infinite courage and depths of endurance were required, is another title by which Mr. Newman is remembered.

That the business men of Havre feel strongly that Mr. Newman's record of several years of mayorship in this city should not be overlooked, is evidenced by their recognition of his candidacy for the same office in Great Falls, in the form of an "Appreciation" filled with expressions of congratulation and gratitude and which appears in the local press today. Their review of Mr. Newman's record proceeds thus:

"The indebtedness of the citizens of Havre to the Hon. Louis Newman for what he designed and accomplished in behalf of this city while in office and out of it, is very great. To him, more than any other man, is due the working out, in the face of much discouragement of the business processes through which the city of Havre has been progressively advanced to its present position of eminence, and which paved the way for the magnificent successes achieved here at the time of his mayorship and since then, through his splendid leadership.

"It was due to his indefatigable efforts that the city's water plant and sewerage system became the best and earliest asset to the home-makers of this city, and stands today the finest public service utility of any city in the state. It was he who gave the community a sufficient and efficient police force, also instilled into the citizenry the thought that a city's government stands for pure and good finances, and sound justice, and that it must be administered without regard to fees, or infirmities, or pull, or influence, or favoritism, but simply by right of honorable service.

"During the years in which Mr. Newman was mayor, he emphasized the need of a wise and tactful administration to rightly meet the business, political, educational and moral questions constantly coming up in a growing city, by proving himself to be the right man in the right place.

"It is a noble record of achievement and best of all Mr. Newman's long list of gladdened homes made so by his thoughtful consideration of home conditions, of hard experiences lightened, sufferings relieved, anxieties dispelled, while his whole administration as mayor was conducted always in the spirit of that fairness and sympathetic helpfulness, which was above price.

Among the business and professional men who express this debt they owe to Havre's former mayor and which debt increases as the years go on, are: C. E. Morris, C. C. Brundage, W. R. Paper, T. W. McKenzie, N. E. Curley, H. Archibald, Frank O. Black, P. F. Jost, L. J. Christie, Lon Lucke, J. K. Bramble, A. E. Wilkie, E. P. Broadwater, J. D. Kelly, E. C. Carruth, J. F. Matthews, P. F. Bossout, about half of this number being republicans.

Holter of this city, state chairman of the executive committee of Montana and member of the executive committee of the loan for the Ninth federal reserve district, Mr. Trigg, who will not come to Helena until a day or two before the drive starts, will maintain headquarters at a local hotel.

Influenza Not Fatal With Colored People

Special to The Daily Tribune. Helena, April 5.—So far as records of the state board of health disclose, there was not a single death from influenza among Montana's colored population during the epidemic last fall but the subsequent epidemics that have visited various communities today by Norman B. Holter of this city, state chairman of the executive committee of Montana and member of the executive committee of the loan for the Ninth federal reserve district, Mr. Trigg, who will not come to Helena until a day or two before the drive starts, will maintain headquarters at a local hotel.

WOMAN OF SUNBURST COUNTRY IS COMMITTED TO THE ASYLUM

Shelby, April 5.—Mrs. Geo. Richardson, residing west of Sunburst, was taken before the Tootle county commissioners on Wednesday for a hearing. She was found by the examining physicians to be suffering from hysterical mania, and was committed to the asylum at Warm Springs. Dr. Neraal, of Cut Bank, appeared as witness and Dr. Riddle and Williamson, and Commissioner L. C. Marsh constituted the examining board. Deputy Sheriff Wallace Martin left Friday for Warm Springs with Mrs. Richardson.

GRAY DENIES KNOWLEDGE

A certain alleged Newman list of Jewish appointees has been distributed about the city. I want to state publicly that I had nothing whatever to do with the invention of the idea and do not know its origin. As soon as I heard of the issuance and circulation of the said ticket I immediately went to Mr. Louis Newman and also his brother, Harry, and assured them that I was in no way responsible for same and did not even know where it originated.

In the beginning of the campaign I told Mr. Newman that so far as I was concerned this would be an absolutely clean campaign. I have kept my word. A. H. GRAY. Political advertisement, paid for by A. H. Gray.
