

SKETCH FEATURE OF THE PROGRAM

Friday Evening's Show at Grand Will Be by Cleverest of the Amateur Casts.

One of the cleverest bits of entertainment which will be seen in the "Song Festival of the New Era" to be presented by Adelaide Spencer Donovan at the Grand Opera house on next Friday evening, April 25, is the curtain vaudeville sketch arranged by Mrs. J. A. Niles.

Rehearsals for the Friday evening Song Festival are taking place daily and the public is assured of one of the finest musical entertainments which has ever been offered here by amateurs.

Among the patronesses for Friday evening's performances are Mrs. George B. Calvert, president of the Tuesday Musical club; Mrs. Sadler, president of the Woman's committee of Caspene county.

The ushers for Friday evening will be in charge of Miss Trombley, principal of the Junior High school, and something novel for this part of the arrangements for the entertainment is promised the patrons.

The production is given for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' club. Tickets will be sold next week for $1.00 and purchasers will be entitled to make reservations beginning Friday at noon at the box office without extra charge.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS FINED

C. E. Dengman, charged with reckless driving and C. H. Vandevort, accused of turning his machine on the wrong side of a safety zone post, were each found guilty in police court yesterday and ordered to pay a fine of $10 by Magistrate George Raban.

LUNG MOTOR SAVES LIFE

The fire department's lung motor was credited with having saved another life yesterday. It was asked for following an operation on Mrs. N. G. Clark, who failed to respond to other treatment when it appeared that her recovery from the anesthetic was not satisfactory.

CHARGES BOOTLEGGING

Chester W. Hubbard was yesterday formally accused of having violated the prohibition law on March 27. County Attorney H. G. Bennett filing in district court an information charging him with this offense.

SUES ON NOTE

To collect on a note for $159.40, the Canadian Bank of Commerce has filed in district court an action against J. I. Eakin. The paper was given at Vancouver, B. C., February 10, 1917, according to the complaint, and $119.40 is alleged to be still owing by the defendant.

WOULD RENEW JUDGMENT

The Last West Lumber company has brot suit in district court to secure renewal of a judgment obtained against J. W. Allen at Calgary, November 10, 1914, for $6,452.09. Judgment for the same amount and interest is asked for in the local court.
