Montana Trade Commissioners to Listen to Arguments From Both Angles.

Special to The Daily Tribune.

Helena, April 23.—To hear what all parties interested have to say regarding rules and regulations to be promulgated for the control of flour mills in the state, the Montana railroad and utility commission, sitting as the Montana trade commission, will hold a hearing at the state capitol Thursday. Millers as well as representatives of the farmers' organizations will be in attendance. It may continue several days.

The trade commission held a conference today with Assistant Attorney General R. L. Mitchell, B. T. Stanton, mill expert, and R. I. Bentzin, mill examiner. Mr. Mitchell outlined the scope of the law and the powers and duties of the commission.

The Montana Millers' association, which went into conference here Tuesday evening, continued its session today and at the hearing tomorrow it will lay before the commission, in accordance with its request, suggestions to be embodied in the rules and regulations which the millers deem to be equitable. A committee was named last night to prepare a draft of the suggestions and these were discussed at length today. This document will be the only matter presented before the commission by the association, but members will be present to present such other matters individually as they see fit.

ORGANIZATION OF ALLIED WAR VETERANS PUTS ON PROGRAM THAT HAS PEP AND GO

"Ladies From Hell" Pipe band coming to Grand Opera House Monday night

In the coming of the Allied War Veterans military band which will be seen at the Grand opera house next Monday evening and probably on Sunday evening, the people of Great Falls will have an opportunity to see one of the most popular musical organizations coming from the war zone, according to the reports from places where the band has appeared. The organization not only puts on a band concert of high quality, but it offers a varied program that has a snap and a go to it that is sometimes lacking in band performances. It has the variety of a vaudeville show, the quality of a capable musical organization and the pep of the class of men who as fighters put the German army out of business. For example, there is the Welsh tenor, Sergt. Lew L. Price, who has made a reputation on the stage as well as earned promotion in the army. Sergt. Price knows what war is from the wounds it made on him. He proved himself a fighter by inclination and he was a born musician. He is making one of the big hits of the show. In addition to Price there is also Jack Carter, a comedian, who can extract laughs from any audience. There is a quartette of vocalists that stop the show by their popular hits in compelling harmony, and there also is the feature par excellence, "The Ladies From Hell," pipe band. The band puts on a show that lasts two hours and forty minutes and it has been scoring great popular favor in its tour of the country, according to critics where it has appeared. The band will appear at the Grand opera house next Monday evening without fail and Manager Steege is negotiating with a view to having it available also for Sunday evening. There will be a parade Monday afternoon at an hour to be announced.

Fine Seed Wheat Found in the Crop of a Wild Goose

Special to The Daily Tribune.

Helena, April 23.—State Veterinarian W. J. Butler and George L. Ramsey, of this city, who recently returned from southeastern Montana where Dr. Butler established a quarantine on account of cattle scab, assert the finest milling wheat in the world, in their opinion, is that they found near Pineola, Carter county, 50 miles from the railroad, the seed of which was taken from the crop of a wild goose.

The bread served at the Pineola Hotel was so unusually pleasing to the Helena men they made an investigation and discovered the flour was milled locally from this wild goose wheat. Samples of the grain were shown them, and the fact is of the hard variety the kernels are said to be nearly twice as large as the kernels of any other variety of hard wheat.

LAST CONTINGENT OF 91ST DIVISION CHECKS IN TODAY

Increase in Silver Price Is Anticipated After Control Period

Special to The Daily Tribune.

Butte, April 23.—Eastern advices indicate that government control of the price of silver will end May 1 and students of the white metal express the opinion that its price will work materially higher. The price of silver at the present time is $1.01 1-8 and the demand from India and China for the metal continues unabated. This, taken in conjunction with the repurchasing obligations of the United States government, created under the Pittman act, makes the immediate future for silver when the lid is removed, particularly hopeful, according to close observers.

Curtailment of the copper production together with that of lead is having a pronounced effect on the domestic production of silver.

A HOT SPOT Chalmers gets the might out of gas

- And puts it into action
- on an "impossible" hill
- on the boulevard where a ten yard spurt puts you ahead of a less responsive car
- on a country turnpike when supper is waiting.

On countless other occasions when "a little extra" is asked and "a little extra" is given the great Hot Spot engine supplies what you ask.

Hot Spot "cracks" the prevailing low grade gas into a very fine vapor and Ram's-horn then completes a task not a whit less important.

Ram's-horn gently and quickly "feeds" each cylinder of the six by the short 14-inch route to each and gives the same fresh, "powdered" gas to every cylinder alike.

Unless you're driving the new Chalmers some of your cylinders are often getting a rich gas and some a lean gas. That makes your engine run "choppy" on occasions.

A Hot Spot Chalmers runs like silk feels, and you experience a pride in your new Chalmers that is difficult to describe.

One ride generally convinces the hard-headed individual; and once a man is won to Chalmers ownership he'll swear he has one of the few great cars of the world.
