The board of directors of the Montana state union of the American Society of Equity met in this city for a regular business session on Friday. After the transaction of the regular routine of business the plans were completed for the big tour of the national president, J. N. CHARLIE CHAPLIN PACKS THEM TO THE GATES

The doors of the Alcazar were hard beaten last evening with the jam that tried to gain admission to see Chaplin in his new comedy. The crowds were not satisfied until they were admitted and then the roar of laughter. Yesterday afternoon one man pretty near passed away. He sure enjoyed it. The same program will be on today. But be wise, come early.—Adv.

Helena, May 17.—The Rev. George Meeklenburg, secretary of the Helena area of the Methodist centenary, announced today that two districts and 75 churches exceeded their financial quotas in Montana, North Dakota and Idaho, prior to the gigantic drive among 10,000,000 Methodists of America for $148,000,000 for world reconstruction, which will start Sunday in 30,000 churches. The Helena area quota is $2,000,000. It is expected that this entire amount will be raised in less than five months. One million dollars of this fund will be spent in establishing community centers and promoting modernized rural churches in this area.

At the THEATERS Here and Coming

SENSATIONAL "RED LANTERN" WITH NAZIMOVA OPENS AT THE ALCAZAR TOMORROW.

The expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars, costumes worth a king's ransom and the services of 1,200 persons, from director, scenario writers and art designers to an ensemble that embodied a small army in size, represent but a part of the tremendous outlay in money, time and effort given by Metro to the production of "The Red Lantern," in which the incomparable Nazimova appears at the Alcazar theater Monday. "The Red Lantern" is truly colossal when it is judged by the combination of the supreme artistry of its brilliant star and by the sumptuous environment provided for her and her supporting cast. It has the added value of being based upon one of the most talked of novels of the decade, "The Red Lantern," a romance of the ancient city of Peking, from the pen of Edith Wherry, and published by the Bodley Head.

"MRS. LEFFINGWELL'S BOOTS" WITH CONSTANCE TALMAGE AT THE IMPERIAL TODAY

Sunday and Monday will be shown the newest of the Constance Talmage pictures, "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots." In this five reel comedy, one can see how a pair of pretty slippers can cause more trouble than any jealous husband can handle. Showing Sunday and Monday, along with this new Constance Talmage play the management of the Imperial announces that it has been fortunate enough to secure for its audiences the "Prizma Master Pictures" in pictures own colors. Prizma records natural colors in the negative, automatically transfers them to the film and projects them on the screen at normal speed, the title of the first picture is "Kilauea's Lake of Fire," and the beauty of this remarkable picture must be seen to be appreciated. On Tuesday and Wednesday, will be offered a five reel screen dramatization of "Bonnie Annie Laurie."

On Thursday and Friday, and Saturday, will be presented the newest of the William Fox photo plays the "Jungle Trail," featuring William Farnow.

"THE SPREADING EVIL" IS FEATURE PICTURE AT PALACE TODAY

Unusual local importance is attached to the engagement of "The Spreading Evil" at the Palace theater today and tomorrow with continuous performances from 1 to 11:30, because of the interest which has been shown in the melodrama by the Hon. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy and other men prominent in public life.

Another big film production comes to the Palace for a four-day engagement commencing Thursday in "The Unpardonable Sin" one of the most pretentious screen plays that has ever been attempted and has been completed after months of painstaking effort and with the expenditure of more real money than has been enlisted in the aid of any photoplay produced within the past five years.

ARION QUARTET TO SING AT CHURCH TODAY

The Arion Ladies' Quartet, of which Mrs. George Canon is the soloist, will give special numbers this morning at the services at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Canon arrived in the city yesterday to make arrangements for the appearance of the Arion quartet in this city and accordingly arrangements were made with the Presbyterian church to appear there today.

Mrs. Canon has a beautiful, sonorous, mezzo-contralto voice and the charming manner she has in the rendition of her numbers is always pleasing to her audience.

EQUITY OFFICERS ON TOUR

J. M. Anderson, president of the Co-operative Exchange and W. M. Burlingame, president of the American Society of Equity, left Friday night for the eastern part of the state to deliver addresses and hold meetings for the American Society of Equity. After these meetings have been completed Mr. Burlingame will return to this city but Mr. Anderson will continue to Fargo, N. D. and will hold meetings throughout that state during the larger part of the summer in the interest of the Exchange.

SUIT IN COURT

The suit of Emil M. Schults vs. Rufus L. King, a procedure to cancel a deed on some land, was before Judge J. B. Leslie in the district court Saturday. The case is one of no interest to the public in general.

Intimate Talks

By R. K. NUMBER FIVE

We have already fairly outlined in these "intimate talks" what you can expect when "The Spreading Evil" is seen at the Palace for two days, beginning with a 1 p. m. continuous performance today. From the many inquiries I have received I feel sure there is a widespread interest in the engagement of this picture, and that its two-day stay in Great Falls will be altogether too short to take care of the inveterate picture fans and those who go only when something unusual arouses their interest. The "unusual" is strongly evident in this production, for the basic idea of the story was chosen, not because it would attract merely the morbidly curious, but rather because of the growing tendency to throw the searchlight of knowledge upon the darker things of life. As one critic says: "First it thrills and entertains; then it leaves a thought behind." Aside from its unusual subject matter, "The Spreading Evil" will appeal to any motion picture audience for the reason that it has everything a good photoplay should have, for there is a love story absorbing in its interest, made more so by a chain of intrigue forged in the relentless pursuit of business cupidity, which brings about situations and climaxes of remarkable strength, one big dramatic scene following another in rapid succession to the end of the picture.

WOOLS OF MONTANA TAKE A BIG JUMP

Have Risen From Seven to 18 Cents on Boston Market; Mills Are Buying.

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Boston, May 17.—Wool prices in the last few weeks have had a sensational rise since mills have been entering the market for large quantities. Interest has been centered chiefly in the better grades.

Today's market is in striking contrast to conditions earlier in the year when the uncertainties of the textile world had brot about short time operations. Uncle Sam having stepped out as a goods buyer.

Fine staple Montana wool, a good index of the trend of the market, has pushed up 18 cents a pound to $1.65 from the year's low of $1.47. Fine clothing Montana's have risen seven cents to $1.46. In domestic wools grown in and around Ohio the rise has been proportionate.

Western clips have been advancing by leaps and bounds. Generally 50 to 55 cents a pound on the sheep back is being paid for territory wools while a few lots have gone higher. Four weeks ago these same clips could have been bought under 45 cents. A lot was recently bought in Montana for 60 cents while in Idaho a clip of about 750,000 pounds was purchased at 54 cents. Some dealers are even talking about a world wool famine.

WILL ASK NEW TRIAL IN DAMAGE ACTION

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Lewistown, May 17.—In the important case of John Eppers and the Broadway store against the Milwaukee, in which the plaintiffs recently recovered damages because of the flood at Denton in March 1917, the defendant has given notice of intention to move for a new trial.

State Money Ready for Purchase of Site for Vocational School

Helena, May 17.—Money is available for the purchase of land and the construction of buildings for a state vocational school for girls, Attorney General S. C. Ford has advised Dr. Brassier Cordua of this city, a member of the executive board that meets Sunday in Butte to consider sites that are offered and to make arrangements to launch the institution. The meeting originally was scheduled to be held here today, but was postponed and the meeting place changed to Butte. The Helena commercial club will submit several prospective sites which will be viewed later by the board.

Attorney General Ford holds that the $25,000 appropriated by the bill creating the school "for the support and maintenance of said school for the two-year period ending February 28, 1921" is to be used for that purpose, but that the $12,000 appropriated for this year and the $15,000 appropriated for next year for the school by the general appropriation bill, may be used for the purchase of land and buildings.

ARGENTINA BALKED AT TAKING LEAGUE PLAN UP PRIVATELY

Buenos Aires, May 17.—In his message to the chamber of deputies which was read today, President Rigobey said that Argentina refused to participate in private conferences relatives to the formation of the league of nations. This section of his message read:

"The league of nations signifies progress in which Argentina will not hesitate to join. Argentina was invited to discuss the league project in a private conference which was absolutely unofficial because neutral nations were not taking part in public discussions. Argentina replied that her representatives would gladly attend a public discussion, but that an important undertaking must not be considered privately nor must a distinction be maintained between belligerents and neutrals in the formation of the league of nations which is designed to establish peace in the future. The Argentine minister at Paris explained the attitude of this country to the allies and Argentina was invited to attend the first public session for the organization of the league."
