PAINTERS AND TINNERS BACK

Rainbow and Park Hotel Labor Differences Only Unsettled Ones in City Today.

Differences which have been under negotiation between the journeymen painters and the master painters have been adjusted the strike of the painters was formerly ended yesterday morning when the painters returned to work. The decision ending the painters' strike was reached last Friday and about the same time the tanners who had been out for a short time reached an agreement and returned to work, so that the only labor difficulty now unadjusted in the city is the one existing between the Hotel Rainbow and the Park hotel over the question relating to the dining room and kitchen help and the help in the chambermaid service. The unions have declined to meet the demand on the schedule of wages asked by the hotel and the help has been out for several days.

COMMITTEEMEN MEET TONIGHT

Every Member Wanted at Elks' Hall; Celebration Plans Require Prompt Action.

There will be a meeting of the committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration, this evening, in the Elks club rooms and it is urged that every member of the committee be present. There are many things that will be up for discussion and many of the features will be determined finally. This will be necessary in order that the advertising may be sent out as quickly as possible to the adjoining towns and thru the country.

The finance committee still is at work in gathering funds and will continue until it has more than the sum which it felt will be absolutely required to put on the big "Welcome Home to the Soldiers and Sailors," the soldiers and sailors as here meaning every branch of the service, the marines which are essentially a branch of the navy and the aviators who serve with both the army and the navy. This welcome is to be accorded to every boy who served with the forces during the world war, whether by enlistment or because he was called under the selective service rule. The decorating committee is getting its part of the program mapped out and today will confer with a professional decorator from Butte who will come here to look over the situation with the hope of getting a contract to do the work. There have been inquiries also from Minneapolis and Spokane decorators asking about the needs and there is a disposition on the part of the committee to handle the business on the contract basis and get the best possible results both from the artistic and business standpoints.

The sports committee, as announced in the Sunday Tribune, has a program that will afford some three and one-half hours busy work at Earling park, the first hour and a half being boxing, wrestling, racing and weight throwing and the last portion being devoted to a big baseball game. There is a big money award to be made in prizes for the sports and the entries have already been opened. Dan Tracy, chairman of the sports committee, has delegated A. J. Trodick vice chairman of the committee, as the one to receive the entries and they will be received until June 26, after which there will be no further entries allowed. A complete list of the entries will be published as soon as they close and the people will then know whom they will see in the big events at the park.

CONFERR HONORS ON GIRL GRADUATES OF URSULINE

Commencement Exercises End This Morning After High Mass—Dramatic Club and High School Chorus Present Two-Act Comic Operatta Before Large Audience.

The eighteenth annual commencement exercises of the Ursuline Academy, Mount Angelia, will close this morning when the honors will be conferred on the graduates after the singing of solemn mass in the Ursuline academy chapel. The mass will be delivered by Rev. Fr. M. T. O'Brien, chancellor.

Many gathered in the academy auditorium last evening for the operatta, "The Rivals," given by the dramatic club and high school chorus, assisted by a selected orchestra. The play was divided into two acts of two scenes each and was full of music and clever singing.

The cast of characters gave Mary Longmuir, Catherine Merkle, Genevieve Ryan and Louise Lechray excellent opportunity to display their well-trained voices and they were ably assisted by Mary Barclay, Genevieve Van de Putte and Bernice Sutherland.

Miss Longmuir was Phyllis Fairchild in the operatta and Catherine Merkle was Caroline Carson. Phyllis and Caroline were rivals and when Phyllis organized the "Ancient and Honorable Order of Kittens" Caroline was ruled out. However, a friend of Caroline's contrived to have a by-law of the society read that "once a member always a member" and that the new candidates should be masked. In this way, she succeeded in having Caroline admitted to the society and triumph over Phyllis.

Lot of Music and Singing. A lot of music and singing was interspersed in the play and the leading characters were assisted by the chorus work of Helen Ryan, Helen Quigley, Evelyn Kenkie, Eleanor Burchard, Priscilla Harrington, Margaret McKittrick, Bernice Engelka, Mabel Sparrow, Edna Ledbetter, Carmilla Wallace, Bessie Nichols, Mary Church, Kathleen Egan, Catherine Mooney, Ida Atkins, Rosalie LeVelle, Mary McMahon, and Dorothy Whitcomb. Mine Harrington and Jessamine Gillen as sattuettes of Caroline Carson pleased the audience, while Julia Murphy was given opportunity to present her contralto voice as Mrs. Goodhart and has funny songs made a hit.

Jessamine Gillen, Lillian Martin and Lucille McDonald gave a Spanish dance and Catherine Murray, Queen Logan, Patricia Brick and Anna Murray starred as the "barefoot kiddies." The selected orchestra consisting of Genevieve McMahon at the piano, Amelia Matteucci and Myrtle Frank with the violin and Irene Pirimmer with the cello played through the operatta and furnished the direction of Miss Louise Valverde Kelley and the folk dancing under the direction of Miss Mary T. Gray.

The evening's program ended with a dance of the Rainbow fairies, consisting of twenty girls. The electric lights failed at the conclusion of the first scene of the second act and the play was finished by candle light. Give Musical Recital. An interesting musical recital was held in the afternoon when the eight grade graduation exercises were also held. Some of the best talent among the voice, violin and piano students contributed to the program.

An exhibit of water colors, oil paintings and drawings, done by the students, were shown Sunday and Monday and attracted much favorable comment. Mary Longmuir exhibited a fine collection of heads and some original drawings in pencil and crayon and water colors were shown by Misses Kenkie, Murphy, Thrill, Derrick, Walsh, Barclay, Churchill and Nichols.

BAND CONCERT BRINGS A RAIN

At Least Both Happen the Same Evening—Crowds Enjoy Another Municipal Program.

Having a band concert every night in the week would result in a rainfall of a little more than four-tenths of an inch of water, assuming that the rainfall of last evening, which was six-hundredths of an inch was due to the fact there was a municipal band concert staged in Gibson park. The band played the program which had been announced to a well pleased audience and the rain came and cooled the atmosphere but didn't wet the dirt very much. The following is program offered by Director H. B. Marston and his Black Eagle band: March, "All America".....Zamzesnik Overture, "The Bohemian Girl".....Balfe Waltz, "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles".....Danmark Grand opera selection, "Lom-bardi".....Verdi Characteristic (one step), "Me-ow".....Kaufman Duet for cornet and trombone. "Sweet Is the Dream," Mr. Boanna and Mr. Bule.....Campana Grand Fanfare on Scotch, Irish and English airs, "Albion".....Baetens Fox Trot, "I'll Say She Does".....Jolson One-step, "Don't Cry, Frenchy, Don't Cry".....Donaldson Grand military fantastic, "The Battle of the Argonne For".....The Star Spangled Banner".....Key

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations into which they have never before been called—in Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railway, and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers, and Elevator Girls. Undoubtedly thousands of others have longed to serve in this way, but because of female ailments, which had fastened upon them, were not able to do so. Women in this condition should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and find health and strength, as thousands of others have so done.—Adv.

The 300,000 Maxwells. All Tell the Same Story

MAXWELL first caught on in those sections of America where grades are long and severe, where roads are none too good, where distances are great, and where few cars before had made good.

Today if you could visit those places, those zones—some of them hundreds and hundreds of miles in area—you would see the Maxwell the prevailing car there.

These "Maxwell areas," so to speak, have since spread to nation-wide—even world-wide areas—for like all things good, news travels fast.

Today there's no spot of consequence where Maxwell cannot be found in ever-increasing numbers.

Because Maxwell expresses to a marked degree that one quality that every one seeks in a motor car—everlasting reliability.

This dominating trait of the Maxwell was built to be its dominating trait.

Instead of a brand new model every year with frequent, expensive changes in design (changes costly to the purchaser) a very simple Maxwell was designed five years ago.

And since that time no radical changes have been made, no new models built, but instead a constant, almost daily improving process has gone on until today the 300,000th Maxwell tells the same story as No. 1.

It's a better car, to be sure, more refined, better looking—even more reliable, but it would not be half the car it is today were it merely a 1919 model with but one year behind it.
