FIVE SPRINKLERS ARRESTED SUNDAY

Police Find That Irrigators Attempt to Make Sabbath Day for Ignoring Regulations.

Sunday's purposes as a day of rest were, judging from the appearance of the police blotter, not observed to any appreciable extent by five Great Falls property owners. That many people were picked up by the police between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. on charge of using city water for irrigating out of hours, also all were released on their own recognizance to be present in police court this morning. The defendants are Mrs. T. T. Bacon, Charles Dillman, Roy Wilde, Martin Horan and Mrs. Schoner.

Yesterday's arrests were the first that have been made for violation of sprinkling regulations in more than a week. Two weeks ago the city council changed the hours during which sprinkling might be done and several arrests were made with reference to this matter, but after fines had been imposed on the violators better attention was given the sprinkling rules until yesterday.

NEIHART MAN ARRESTED

C. R. Cunningham was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff E. J. Tait on complaint of O. Shaw, who accuses him of assault, the alleged offense occurring at Neihart July 4. It is Shaw's assertion that Cunningham kicked him out of a soft drink establishment without provocation. He came to Great Falls to appear in a civil action in justice court and was located by Deputy Tait after his arrival.

WHITAKER-PRICE

W. R. Whitaker, prominent business man of Lewistown, and Miss Ethel Price were married Saturday evening at 6:30 by Justice of the Peace John T. Earll, the ceremony occurring at the Elmore apartments. The bride has been a resident of Kansas City, Kansas, coming here to meet Mr. Whitaker for the wedding. They will go on a brief wedding trip, after which they will reside in Lewistown.

CALMETTES-GRANFURS

Sunday morning at 10, while the church bells were ringing, Emile A. Calmettes, of Helena, and Helen Caroline Granfurs, of Bismarck, N. Dak., were taking the vows that made them husband and wife. Rev. A. B. Blackstone performed the ceremony; and Mrs. Blackstone and Miss Cora V. Craig, lately returned from France, were the witnesses. Mr. Calmettes is employed in the State Nursery at Helena, where he and Mrs. Calmettes will make their home.

LIVESTOCK GOING OUT

Seventeen cars of sheep passed over the Great Northern yesterday en route to the Chicago market from Cascade and 11 cars of cattle will be shipped from Spion Kop on Tuesday to Chicago.

KENNEY IS INSPECTING

W. P. Kenney, director general of the Great Northern, passed thru Great Falls yesterday by automobile en route from Glacier park to Helena. Mr. Kenney was accompanied by nine other men and is traveling by automobile to get a better idea of existing conditions in Montana. He reached Helena last night at 7. His private car, in charge of a porter and a stenographer, arrived yesterday morning from Spokane on No. 44 and was attached to No. 237 for Helena.

BURNED BRIDGE DELAYS TRAINS

President Hill of Great Northern Among Those Held Up at Havre.

Special to The Daily Tribune.
 Havre, July 6.—Owing to a bridge on the Great Northern near Haro burning out all eastbound trains were held in Havre today and those from the east are tied up at Malta.
 With two bridge crews at work all day Sunday the track was finally repaired and trains started out of here about eight p. m. from ten to 14 hours late. L. W. Hill, president of the road, was among those held here as his private car was on train No. 2. Mr. Hill spent the day in Havre as the guest of Judge Rhodes and other friends.
