Roscoe Kernan to Resume His Position as Organist at the Alcazar Theater

It is the desire of the management to announce at this time that Roscoe Kernan has been secured as organist and to take complete charge of the music of the Alcazar theater.

"It is, indeed, a great pleasure to me to resume my former position as organist in the Alcazar and also to resume the concerts that were received so admirably two years ago..."

The accompaniment of motion pictures call for unlimited variety in music and instrumentation. For example, the church organ, according to the picture show, be appropriate but once in an entire performance...

cathedrals of Europe could offer nothing of greater grandeur than the massed dissonances and solid bass of this mighty organ. From this, it is a far cry to the music of the cabaret, oriental music, the playing of bands, etc...

Roscoe Kernan is a master of the big organ. In his hand, music that would ordinarily have little interest to the average listener is clothed with a haunting rhythm that gives it a new meaning and a new popularity...

Mr. Kernan is starting his engagement today and only yesterday Manager Johnson purchased a fine new Knabe grand piano from Kops Bros. for Mr. Kernan to play for those who like his popular music on the piano.

"Shoeless" Joe and Jim Thorpe Leading Batters

Jackson Tops American League Swatters and the Indian Heads Nationals.

Chicago, July 19.—"Shoeless" Joe Jackson, the hard hitting outfielder of Chicago, is the new American league leader.

Unofficial figures released today show he has an average of .354. Peckinpaw, New York, leader a week ago dropped into third place, while Cobb and Veach of Detroit are tied for second with .348.

The averages include games of Wednesday. Babe Ruth, Boston, is out to establish a new home run record. He has pooled 11 circuit drives, the number he collected last season, Johnson of Cleveland, who fell from sixth to eighteenth place in batting continues to lead base stealers with 19.

Leading batters from 25 or more games: Jackson, Chicago, .354; Veach, Detroit, .348; Cobb, Detroit, .348; Peckinpaw, New York, .343; Flagstead, Detroit, .339; Sisler, St. Louis, .337; McMullin, Chicago, .333; Ruth, Boston, .329; Williams, St. Louis, .323; Tobin, St. Louis, .316.

Jim Thorpe, Boston, continues to top the National league hitters with .373. Other leading batters for 25 or more games: Crathath, Philadelphia, .354; Myers, Brooklyn, .337; McHenry, St. Louis, .328; Young, New York, .325; Williams, Philadelphia, .320; Wheat, Brooklyn, .317; Wingo, Cincinnati, .317; Burns, New York, .311; Kauff, New York, .310.

Speaker to Manage Cleveland Indians

Cleveland, O., July 19.—Lee Fohl, manager of the Cleveland American league baseball club, for the past three years, resigned as manager of the team today. The resignation was accepted by President James C. Dunn, who appointed Tris Speaker, outfielder, manager for the rest of the season...

In tendering his resignation to President Dunn, Fohl said: "I feel that the fans are not for me and as I have your interests at heart first and my own last, I think it best for all concerned for me to step down and out."

The team has a chance to win the pennant and I don't want to appear in the light of being a hindrance to them. I hope they will win the pennant."

Fohl will be retained on the payroll in some capacity, either as coach or scout, President Dunn said.

The unfortunate ending of yesterday's game with Boston when Ruth hit a home run with three on bases, giving Boston the game 8 to 7, is said to have caused Fohl to resign.

Fans who saw the game were bitter in their criticism of Fohl for picking Pitcher Combe, who had not pitched a game in two months, to pitch to Ruth, instead of one of the first string twirlers.

It's no sign of poverty to soak your bathing suit.

Den Says:

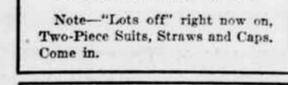

You know by now that "style" is a very "personal" affair.

We aren't all able to look well in the "same style suit"—each must have a style, suitable unto himself—to his age, his build—to his personality. Style must be individual.

This store assumes the obligation to supply "that individuality," and in this respect feel vindicated by the appearance of those who trade here. They are all well dressed. The clothes they wear are of good quality—the styles they adopt are refined, distinctive, and the prices they pay are fair.

Such clothes you will always find at this store.

We feature "Hickey-Freeman" for men, and "Fashion Park" for young men.

CORBETT SCORES REFEREE PECORD

Says Willard Lost Fight in Fourth and Not in Third Round.

New York—James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion roundly scored Referee Ollie Pecord a few days ago for deciding that Willard was knocked out in the third round by Jack Dempsey at Toledo.

"I never heard of such a queer ruling," declared Corbett, "and I consider it very unfair. In my opinion Willard was knocked out in the fourth round and I'll tell you why."

"The third round of three minutes ended with Willard on his feet. He wasn't beaten when he walked to his corner. The rest of one minute counted for nothing. If the bell for the fourth round didn't ring, for the sake of argument, Willard wasn't actually defeated until ten seconds of what would have been the fourth round had elapsed."

"I have been asked by many persons to decide bets made on a knockout and I shall decide that Willard finished the third round, but was stopped in the fourth. Pecord has made a sad mistake and has burned many thousands of dollars. He should have been guided by common sense, which shows that Willard when he went to his chair after the end of the third round, hadn't been declared the loser, and consequently wasn't 'out' in that round."

"I have no personal reasons for differing with the referee's decision. It is simply a matter of fair play and I am surprised that there should be any controversy over a point that is as clear as crystal."

SKINNER SEEN IN BEST ROLE

Distinguished Actor Never Appeared to Such Advantage as in Colonel Bridau.

On next Saturday night Otis Skinner will appear at the Grand opera house in his most famous role, Colonel Philippe Bridau, in "The Honor of the Family." The combination of a great actor in a great role in a great play is one greatly to be desired, and it goes almost without saying that the local engagement of Mr. Skinner in this, his very best role, will be one of the most interesting and most talked-of events of the theatrical season.

Mr. Skinner is always a favorite everywhere and his visit to the blustering little Napoleonic Colonel is one that is sure to be welcomed with open arms by the theatre going public of this city.

SKINNER SEEN IN BEST ROLE

Distinguished Actor Never Appeared to Such Advantage as in Colonel Bridau.

On next Saturday night Otis Skinner will appear at the Grand opera house in his most famous role, Colonel Philippe Bridau, in "The Honor of the Family." The combination of a great actor in a great role in a great play is one greatly to be desired, and it goes almost without saying that the local engagement of Mr. Skinner in this, his very best role, will be one of the most interesting and most talked-of events of the theatrical season.

Mr. Skinner is always a favorite everywhere and his visit to the blustering little Napoleonic Colonel is one that is sure to be welcomed with open arms by the theatre going public of this city.

No character that Mr. Skinner has essayed in his long and meritorious career has more rollicking humor, nor is better adapted to the talents of the star than Colonel Philippe Bridau. As the masterful, fire-eating Colonel, who, by his quick wit and nimble hand saves the honor of a family which is being jeopardized by a beautiful but utterly unscrupulous adventuress, Mr. Skinner is seen at his best.

The play, "The Honor of the Family" is an adaptation of a comedy by Emile Fabre, who, in writing the original comedy, went to one of Balzac's most dramatic romances for his plot—"Un Menage de Garcon." And the spirit of Balzac still lives in Bridau. Mr. Skinner's impersonation of this sincere swaggerer will be one of the rare treats of the season, and one which no real lover of the theatre can well afford to miss.

Charles Frohman, Inc., has surrounded Mr. Skinner with an exceptionally good supporting cast, including such well-known names as Evelyn Varden, Ruth Rose, Jane Ellison, Robert Harrison, Alexander Onslow, Harry Burkhardt, Walter F. Scott, George E. Riddell, John Rogers, William E. Lorenz, Thomas Donnelly and Marshall Birmingham.
