Whether the boys' camp intended to be established at Camp Rotary, six miles above Monarch, this (Wednesday) morning will have to be abandoned as a result of the forest fires was not determined Tuesday. Secretary J. A. Miller and Physical Director E. E. Holdeman this morning will go to Monarch to make an investigation and as soon as they return to the city an announcement will be made thru the press outlining decisions reached. It has been suggested that the camp be transferred to the Highwood mountains, but this would cause considerable extra expense owing to all tents and equipment being at Camp Rotary and Secretary Miller doubted whether the shift could be made. From the report by the forestry office late in the evening it seemed that the fire is not liable to reach the camp. If this proves to be the case when the "Y" officials reach there this morning, and if the fire is under control, it is expected that plans for establishing the camp later in the week will be carried out.

FINAL SESSION OF CHAUTAUQUA

Peat Entertains Large Crowd With War Tales; Poor to Lecture as Final Feature.

Chautauqua Today. Afternoon—3:30 P. M. Concert . . . . . Apollo Concert Co. Pageant—"Uncle Sam's Experiment"—Great Falls Children . . . . . Evening—8:00 P. M. Concert . . . . . Apollo Concert Co. Lecture—"Closing Days of the War," illustrated with Underwood and Underwood slides . . . . . Henry Warren Poor.

Today is the last day of a successful week's Chautauqua program. The program of the week have been generally pleasing and today's program will form a fitting climax of the week's attractions. The Apollo Concert company is a well known musical organization. The afternoon program will feature the saxophone in quartet. The evening program will feature the Apollophone, an instrument built especially for this company, which combine the xylophone and the marimbophone. The kiddies' pageant will be given this afternoon. Miss Mary Finlayson has had the children each day preparing them for the presentation of the play, "Uncle Sam's Experiment," of the play, "Uncle Sam's Experiment."

Mr. Poor's lecture is of great interest. Mr. Poor was in charge of the slide department of Underwood and Underwood. In this position he had the opportunity of making a choice selection of slides for this lecture.

The program of yesterday received the usual commendation from those attended. Dr. Mellinger's lecture in the afternoon on the Mexican situation was most interesting and instructive. Regniers brot forth enthusiastic applause by everyone. Mr. Regniers' impersonations in make-up of the Italian fruit vender, the village overgrown youth and the old man were especially well liked. Erasta Peat was most entertaining in his description of life in the trenches. He emphasized the horrors of war and stated emphatically that it is the duty of all good citizens to try every means which may even have a chance of ending war.

He appeared strongly for the league of nations and was somewhat caustic in his ridicule of those who make light of the efforts of the world's statesmen who have worked out the peace treaty.

NO GAMBLING IN CASCADE COUNTY

County Attorney Bennet Says Lovers of Games of Chance Are Quiet.

That there is little or no gambling in Great Falls at the present time is the belief of County Attorney Howard G. Bennet and Deputy County Attorneys Fred A. Ewald and W. J. Fitch.

"Sheriff Burns and myself have been quietly investigating the situation," said Mr. Bennet, "and I feel safe in saying the gambling element in this city is laying pretty low. We fail to find traces of illegal card playing, roulette wheels or other forms of games of chance anywhere within the county limits."

"However," he continued, "it is possible that occasionally some may get by us. One or two men cannot keep their eyes on all spots at once. We stand prepared to prosecute any person arrested on the charge of gambling, should the evidence on hand warrant procedure against a defendant. We realize that members of the county attorney's office have not been making many friends among the gamblers and those inclined to carry out this form of pastime, but that does not deter us in the least. We are going to proceed against all persons, regardless of their standing, should they be charged with gambling, now or at any other time I am acting as county attorney of Cascade county."

There has not been an arrest made for gambling for several weeks, which seems to bear out County Attorney Bennet's statement that there is very little gambling, if any, in Cascade county at present.

It is soothing to know that there is such an institution in Great Falls. Death comes to us whether we expect it or not. Rich and poor must bow to the hand of fate. Therefore it behooves us to give a little forethought as to whom we wish to care for our beloved ones when they are called. It is the service, consideration and personal attendance given those in the trying hours of their sorrow that has made the funeral home of the W. H. George company a credit to this section of the state.

SELL ARMY FOOD TILL ALL TAKEN

Postmaster Cluston Notified Sale Will Continue Until Allotment Is Filled.

Detailed information on the army food sale was received Tuesday by Postmaster William Cluston who announced that the sale will not close Wednesday as at first announced but orders will be taken until the allotment is filled.

Great Falls housewives have been getting their heads together the past few days and several families are placing an order for bacon and canned fruits and vegetables. Postmasters are allowed to accept orders and cash from one individual representing a group of consumers. In such cases, however, the foodstuffs will be delivered to the individual who orders and pays for them.

A new list of items which may be ordered until the allotted supply for the Great Falls office has been exhausted is given out and items which do not appear on this list can not be secured from the zone surplus property officer, even tho they appeared on the requisition form and price list published yesterday, as the quantities on hand are insufficient for general distribution.

The new list from which Great Falls people may order is as follows: 31,200 pounds bacon in cans. 28,100 pounds corned beef in cans. 20,440 pounds roast beef in cans. 18,000 pounds corned beef hash in cans. 19,600 pounds corn in cans. 7,500 pounds beans in 100 pound lots. 875 pounds cherries in cans. 4,881 pounds flour in 100 pound lots. 163 pounds black pepper in 1/2 pound cans. 438 pints vegetable soup in small cans. 28,458 pounds baked beans in cans. 2,120 pounds stringless beans in cans. 7,000 pounds tomatoes in 10 pound cans. 24,800 pounds peas in cans. 1,100 pounds rice in 100 pound sacks.

HAY SITUATION IS GOOD, AGENT SAYS

MacSpadden Tells Farmers Nation's Crop Is Big With Market Bound to Fall.

At a farm bureau meeting at Rarnesford Monday night, County Agent F. E. MacSpadden talked to the farmers on the hay question. Quoting some statistics he proved to the farmers that the big hay scare is not so bad as painted and that the situation for Montana livestock men is decidedly favorable. From quotations received each week at the farm bureau office all the principle hay markets in the United States, Mr. MacSpadden has gathered information which materially affects the stockmen who have been considerably agitated over feed conditions for several weeks. "Last year," said the county agent, "there were 90,000,000 tons of hay cut in the United States and this year the reports show that 111,000,000 tons are available. Five-sixths of last year's hay crop was used and 15,000,000 tons left over for this year's use.

"The larger supply with practically the same demand has already shown a tendency to bring down prices, and altho the hay market is dropping slowly right at present, a close tab on the market the next few days or weeks is bound to be more favorable than otherwise for the Montana stockmen."
