COMMITTEE TO RESELL 152 SACKS GOVERNMENT FLOUR

Bakery Man Cannot Handle as Much Flour of This Quality as He Purchased and Committee Will Assist in Disposing of Part of it; Member of Committee Deplores Effort Made to Read Politics Into Community Enterprise; No Complaint From Housewives.

A second sale of government flour will be held this Saturday morning at 9 at the city market. The former price of $7.35 per sack of 140 pounds will be asked and sales will be made strictly on the cash and carry plan. The flour offered will be a part of the lot purchased at the first sale by W. E. Springer, the bakery man, who several days ago decided that he had, owing to its quality, taken over more of the stock than he could use. Mr. Springer purchased 212 sacks and all but 60 sacks will be offered for resale today. The sale will be in charge of Dan Tracy, chairman of the committee appointed to supervise distribution of the carload secured from the government, and Market Master J. H. Sherlock.

Mr. Springer, when first becoming dissatisfied with his purchase, stopped payment on the check he had given in payment for it, but he notified H. F. Lee, a member of the committee, Friday that he had come to realize that he was obligated to keep the flour and that he would complete the transaction. The committee then offered to assist in reselling such portions of the lot as Mr. Springer cannot use, and it was decided to hold another sale Saturday.

Announced by Lee.

Announcement of the committee's decision was made by Mr. Lee, who stated that he expected the demand for the flour purchased by Mr. Springer would be as good as at the former sale. "Unless the unjustified publicity of an adverse nature which has been given the flour has the effect of keeping housewives away, I think the 152 sacks to be offered will find ready sale," said Mr. Lee.

DENIES CHARGE OF LOW GRADING

Stockett Issues Statement to Quell Rumors of Dealers Holding Down Prices.

Because rumors stating the Grain Dealers association is endeavoring to lower grades on wheat in this state, are being circulated and may erroneously impress some of the grain growers, the Northwestern Grain Dealers association, 434 Ford building, has issued the following statement:

"With reference to newspaper statements concerning a recent readjustment of prices on certain grades of wheat by Wheat Administrator Barnes, by reason of the fact that the grain were 'shrivelled by drought,' it should be understood that the matter was not one in which Montana wheat growers were interested; nor has the adjustment of prices had any effect whatever upon prices in this state.

"In the first place, this year's crop of wheat in Montana is not of the 'shrivelled' sort, but, on the contrary, it is of higher grade, on the average, than it was when the yields were normal.

"In the next place, it is being bought at higher prices than were paid for last year's crop. The grain trade in Montana are buying prices, as usual, on the Minneapolis quotations. Owing to a shortage of hard winter and spring wheats in the northwest, the Minneapolis market for these wheats has been, and now is, at higher premiums above the government guarantee prices than at any other terminal market in the United States. These higher price levels are reflected in the prices being paid to growers in Montana, so that, on the average, the farmers of from 15 to 25 cents per bushel over the prices they received for last year's crop of like grades. These premiums are being paid by the grain trade for all of the grades, and have been paid consistently since the wheat first began to come into the market. That policy will continue, so long as the premiums obtain at Minneapolis.

"The problem that was up before Wheat Administrator Barnes was one peculiar to certain states in the western parts of the Mississippi valley. It was not a matter of interest to either the farmers or the grain trade in Montana.

"In this connection it may be of interest to remind the public that farmers are not the only sufferers by this year's drought. Scores of elevators in this state are being kept open at points where the grain handled will be no more than a small fraction of the amount usually put through, and at an expense greater than any possible profit at such points. In order that the buying organizations, built up by the grain trade after many years and at considerable expense, may be held largely intact for the good crops it is believed Montana will grow next year and in succeeding years, the trade will keep open a great number of elevators that would be closed if this year's buying were the sole consideration."

Secretary Northwestern Grain Dealers Association.

A name to remember when grief enters the family. The distinct W. H. George company idea attends to every detail. It is something to know that there is such an institution in Great Falls. Death comes to us whether we expect it or not. Rich and poor must bow to the hand of fate. Therefore it behooves us to give a little forethought as to whom we wish to care for our beloved ones when they are called. It is the service, consideration and personal attention given those in the trying hours of their sorrow that has made the funeral home of the W. H. BIG NEW ZANE GREY STORY
Featuring William Farnum to be Opening Attraction at Palace Theater Tonight.
The many lovers of better motion pictures in Great Falls are more than pleased over the news that the Palace theater which throws open its doors at 6:30 tonight, will show only the biggest and finest motion picture feature plays that money can buy.
Another attractive feature concerning the opening of the Palace theater is the fact that the prices of admission will be the same that are asked at the smaller motion picture theaters in the city.
The opening attraction which will play today, tomorrow and Monday is Zane Grey's dramatic story "The Lone Star Ranger". This picture has never been shown in Great Falls and promises to attract tremendous crowds to the Palace.
Everyone knows that the Palace is, without possibility of argument, the only thoroughly modern theater in Great Falls and that it is indeed a pleasure to sit in the comfortable, wide, luxuriously upholstered seats that are there provided.
The coming season is destined to be one of ever growing popularity for the big theater which is now under the direct supervision of W. Waldo Freeman who also successfully manages the Imperial theater.—Adv.
