

TELEON WAR VETERANS PLAN BIG REUNION UPON ARMISTICE DAY

Fairfield Chosen for First One; Expect Gathering Will Become Annual Affair.

Special to The Daily Tribune. Fairfield, Sept. 23.—The Teton County Soldiers and Sailors club, at a largely attended meeting held at Chateau, arranged for what promises to become a great annual event, a re-union of all soldiers and sailors of the county. Fairfield was honored by being chosen as the place for holding the first of these county reunions. This choice was prompted to a large extent by the fact that Fairfield has in exceptional large and commodious public hall in which to hold the re-union. The re-union is to be held on Armistice day, in November. The plan back of the movement is to hold the re-union at different towns in the county in successive years, and it is assumed that in the course of the several years each of the important towns of the county will have a local post of world war veterans. The movement for annual re-unions of the world war veterans was met with decided favor throughout the county, and Fairfield naturally feels complimented to have been chosen as the place for holding the first re-union.

WINNETT SCHOOL AGAIN DOUBLES ITS ENROLLMENT

Many People Move to Town for Winter and Housing Problem Is Serious.

Special to The Daily Tribune. Winnett, Sept. 23.—School started in the Winnett district with a much larger attendance than was anticipated. The Winnett high school, which was about the only high school in the United States that doubled its enrollment last year, will again double the record of a year ago. In spite of the fact that buildings have lagged and there is not half enough room to hold school there will be twice as many students as there was a year ago, from present sources. There are 40 students besides some of the faculty in the dormitory at the start, with several more to come. The rooms outside have all been spoken for and there is not an available house to rent in the town. Several houses have been moved into town from outside, but they are not adequate to supply the demand for houses for people who want to move here and send their children to school. A new line of work will be offered in the high school this year in the form of home nursing, high school physiology and home economics. Besides these will be a course in the study of occupations to enable high school students to choose a life work with more judgment. The normal course that will be added will also strengthen the high school along practical lines. Besides this the manual training and commercial work will be doubled. Three country schools are added to the list in the outside districts. The following teachers will make up the faculty: M. A. Cromwell, superintendent; O. W. Lasater, principal; Mary J. Feaster, Viola Thurman, Marie Afflerbach, Mary McGinn, R. L. Greenfield, Sadie L. Ashley, Ora M. Lowe, Ginevra VanTassel, Lora Paulus, Charlene Hanson, Franzosa McDaniel, Stella Bratten, Ella Milsap, matron.

PIONEER WOMAN ON AUTOMOBILE TRIP OVER TRAIL SHE FOLLOWED IN 1851 WITH WAGON TRAIN; VISITS GLASGOW

Special to The Daily Tribune. Glasgow, Sept. 23.—Glasgow was honored this week by a visit from one of the real pioneers of the old Indian days when Mrs. A. Bach of Centralia, Wash., passed through the city with her son, H. H. Bach, and George Elberg, father of E. A. Elberg of this city. They were making the trip by auto and the elder Mrs. Bach, who is 75 years old, stated that this was the first trip she has made into Montana since passing over the Great Northern trail with a wagon train of 175 wagons in 1851. The emigrants were from Missouri and it took them nearly two years to make the trip from the starting point to Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Bach stated further that it took them six months, with ox teams to make the trip from the present site of Portland to the Centralia site and that she has made the trip by auto in one day. The party will visit Minot, N. D., before returning to their home in Washington.

Special to The Daily Tribune. Helena, Sept. 23.—A novel organization has been devised by the students of Montana Wesleyan college at Helena which shall have much effect upon the student life of the school for the present year and in the future. ### WORK PROGRESSING IN ROUNDUP FIELD WHERE OIL SOUGHT

Special to The Daily Tribune. Roundup, Sept. 23.—While no developments of a startling nature have occurred within the last week, work has been steadily progressing in all of the districts of the Roundup oil field. The Roundup oil and gas rig after attaining a depth of 450 feet broke their walking beam delaying work for a day or two. The Va. Dusen outfit a couple of miles away in the Devils Basin has gained 100 feet in the work, the work being delayed by encountering a flow of water necessitating the setting of the casing, and lowering a smaller string of pipe, through which work is continuing. The Tri City well, which encountered a heavy flow of sulphur water at a depth of over 2500 feet, has overcome this difficulty and will continue their work on what is believed to be the cap rock, with a 4 1/2 inch casing. Indications are splendid for a heavy flow of oil in the sands which are believed to exist a short distance below the drill. New tools are expected daily and the completion of the well will be rushed. The Big Coulee well south of Rye-gate is progressing slowly, trouble with the boilers delaying the work, owing to the high content of alkali in the water available, but on the whole the situation is satisfactory. Two new derricks are to be erected in the Woman's Pocket, lumber having been ordered through one of the local yards. A thousand feet of the Pocket will be made during the next few months. Owing to the number of rigs operating now and the demand for drillers supplies one of the large dealers in oil supplies is considering the establishment of a branch house in Roundup. This will be of great benefit to the several companies operating here and will obviate the many delays which now lengthen the time necessary for drilling a well.

MILLION CATTLE STILL IN STATE OFFICIALS CLAIM

Special to The Daily Tribune. Helena, Sept. 23.—Refutation of sensational eastern stories that Montana is being stripped of all its cattle because of drought conditions here is contained in figures on cattle shipments from the state on file in the office of the state livestock commission, to which all shipments are reported. On September 12 of this year the total of cattle sent from the state was 197,076. Tax reports from the various counties to the state board of equalization show that there were more than 1,200,000 cattle here in March. Last year the total was 1,136,745. Shipments this year are admittedly greater than in former years, officials of the livestock commission say. The percentage of increase, shown by their figures, is a little more than one-third over last year. The cattle shipping season is about half gone, the officials say, and they estimate that the total shipments will be in the neighborhood of 400,000. In normal years it is less than 300,000.
