

At the Theaters This Week

DOROTHY PHILLIPS IN "PAID IN ADVANCE." Dorothy Phillips, the Universal Jewel star, who has become a national favorite on the screen through her work on the legitimate stage and a long series of successful photoplays was seen last night in "Paid in Advance" at the Alcazar theatre which marks her first appearance since "Destiny."

and the Alcazar News weekly will fill out the program. No picture has as yet been booked for Thursday and Friday, but for Saturday, Sunday and Monday, following, Lewis S. Stone will be shown in "Man's Desire," a story conjured up for lovers of action, excitement and suspense. Fans with an anemic appetite will find stimulation in this highly seasoned production, while the lovers of the virile and primitive will be satisfied with a red-blooded drama. On these three days the bill will be filled out by the Literary Digest, Alcazar-Pathé News and a Mutt and Jeff comedy.

BASEBALL BOARD AT THE GRAND THIS WEEK. Although several attractions are booked for the Grand opera house during the present week it is expected that none will arouse greater interest than the noon sessions of the baseball fans, gathered to watch the electric baseball diamond reproduce the plays in the world's championship series between the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago White Sox. The games will be on at the Grand daily during the series starting at 12 o'clock, sharp, beginning with Wednesday noon. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights Pantages vaudeville will be the booking while the theatre will be lighted up Friday and Saturday nights for the Legion Minstrels, an entertainment to be produced by local talent for the benefit of the local post of the American legion and the auditorium fund.

NEW FEATURE PLAYS AT IMPERIAL THEATER. At the Imperial theater this Monday evening the Select Pictures corporation presents that vivacious and altogether different star, Constance Talmadge, in an especially pleasing little comedy, "Veiled Adventure." The program is an unusual one, completed by a new Prizma color picture called "Kiddies," a very beautiful and pleasing picture in natural colors. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew are to be seen in a high-class comedy, "The Home Cure." A Happy Hookigan cartoon comedy makes a spicy finish. For Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the First National Exhibitors circuit presents a powerful story of the simple fisherfolk of the rock-bound coast of Maine, entitled "The Price of Innocence." This picture brings out the immortal truth that no price is too great for a true woman to pay to protect her own loved ones.

Palace Theater Offers A Special Feature. Anita Stewart is a motion picture star of great magnitude and she has a host of friends in Great Falls who are welcoming this, her newest picture, produced by First National and called "Human Desire." Miss Stewart is cast as a demure little Italian waif who has a passion for loving babies, which lures her, unawares, to a serious domestic tangle with an artist's wife and makes her an innocent victim of fate.

Robert Warwick in "Told in the Hills." That entrancing story of the west, "Told in the Hills," with Robert Warwick in the stellar role, will be on at the Sexton theater again this Monday evening, it having packed that house to overflowing at last night's performance. It is a wonderful epic of the west, of the pioneers, the trappers, the scouts, gold hunters and roving Indians, a story of a squaw-man who saves from massacre the men who persecuted him as a horse thief.

Government to Get Fortune From Gate Receipts at Series

Distribution of Tickets Will Begin in Chicago Today With Speculators Promising Many.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Distribution of world's series tickets for games in Chicago will begin at the White Sox park tomorrow. There have been more than 100,000 applications for the 18,000 box and reserved seats. Applicants for seats will receive by mail tomorrow envelopes containing either the allotment cards or the checks which they sent in vain. Many applications, which were deemed suspicious, or were thought to be duplicates because of different names at the same address were thrown out.

Despite precautions taken to keep the tickets from speculators, several brokers have advertised that they will have tickets for those who will pay the price of reserving tickets this year at $20 for a set of three reserved grand stand seats. This is a premium of $8.50 and $10.10 respectively.

Brokers, it is believed, will find the business of reserving tickets this year at exorbitant prices less profitable than in the past, as there is a tax of fifty per cent on the excess charge.

Brokers will be required to register with the internal revenue collectors and any violation of the regulations will be dealt with vigorously, the law imposing a punishment of one year's imprisonment or $10,000 fine.
