

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN AFTER R. R. VOTE SATURDAY

BILL RESTORING LINES COMPELS NEW RATES PLEA

Roads Given 60 Days to Act or Forfeit Right to U. S. Guarantee.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The railroad bill will have the right of way in the house tomorrow with final vote set for Saturday, under an agreement reached tonight by leaders. Action on the bill will be followed immediately by adjournment of the special session of congress, the agreement provides, consideration of the measure by the senate going on until the regular session beginning in December.

Under a rule adopted tonight, the house agreed to meet two hours earlier than customary and to begin night sessions immediately. General debate will end on Wednesday.

To End Treaty This Week.

The house program was framed after Representative Mondell, Wyoming, republican house leader, had been informed by Speaker Lodge that senate leaders hoped to dispose of the German peace treaty by the end of the week.

In the formal report on the house railroad bill, made today by Chairman Enoch, of the interstate commerce committee, it was revealed that the measure contained a mandate to the carriers to supply for general increases of rates within 60 days after their return to private operation. Unless such applications for increase are made to the interstate commerce commission, the bill will deny them the guaranty, including continuance by the government of their standard return for six months and their privilege of obtaining government loans.

The matter became public when counsel for the physician obtained an order from Surrogate Fowler directing Patrick J. Sweeney, William Simpson and Charles C. Cormany, the executors, to show cause why they should not pay the remaining $11,000.

TRIO OF CROSSES BLAZE CAPITAL'S ARMISTICE EVE

President, Pershing and Baker Send Greetings to the Nation.

Washington, Nov. 10.—As darkness fell over the national capitol, tonight, three huge illuminated crosses shone out from the high walls of the War Risk Insurance Bureau building across Lafayette Square, across from the White House and the celebration of Armistice Day, the first anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in the world war began. The giant symbols were formed by light pouring from selected windows in the otherwise dark facades of the great structure and one of them looked directly down on the square where official Washington will join tomorrow in celebrating the new anniversary.

To the country at large, formal messages commemorating the day were sent out by President Wilson, members of his cabinet and General Pershing. The president said to the Americans the reflection of Armistice Day would be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of "the thing from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nations."

The exercise by the American people of practical patriotism during the war, General Pershing said, was an avowal of their firm adherence to the principles of free government that will continue to have great influence upon the progressive thought throughout the world.

Secretary Baker said that while mourning its dead, the nation was grateful for their achievement and for that of their living brothers and that, "in the name of both we may hope for an early accomplishment of the terms of peace that shall complete their work upon the battlefields of France."

Tomorrow, in the presence of cabinet officers, Generals Pershing and March, and many other officials, two redwood trees will be planted in Lafayette Square, to commemorate the day. An army firing platoon will take part in the ceremony and later engage in mimic warfare with all the tools that trench fighting in France developed.

WALSH FAILS

Gronna, North Dakota, and LaFollette, Wisconsin.

Lodge Praises Other Walsh. During the debate on Senator Walsh's proviso, Democratic Leader Hitchcock bitterly denounced the committee reservation and declared that if it were adopted "there will be no article ten." He said the objectionable feature was the opening declaration that the United States "assumed no obligation, except in certain circumstances, adding that there would be no objection on the democratic side or by President Wilson to a reservation merely saying the United States could not make war without action by congress.

The republican leader got into the debate after the clash between Senators Williams and Walsh, declaring in a brief speech that his Massachusetts colleague had shaped his course toward the treaty by "purely conscientious motives" and was "as good an American as I know."

HAYS SUMMONS REPUBLICANS TO MEET ON DEC. 10

National Committee to Pay Particular Attention to Women.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—A formal call will be issued Tuesday by Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, for a meeting of the committee in Washington, December 10, to fix the date and place for the national convention in 1920. This information was learned from authoritative sources tonight, following an informal session of 25 members of the committee.

A detailed plan of organization which will provide for full participation of republican women in the future affairs of their party was adopted by the committee today. The plan adopted was recommended by the republican national women's executive committee, of which Mrs. Melill McCormick, of Illinois, was appointed chairman to work out a practical method by which women can take an active part in the management of the republican party. In putting into effect this plan, the committee today created a woman's division of the republican national committee and elected Mrs. John G. South, of Frankfort, Ky., chairman.

Three vice chairmen of the division were chosen as follows: Miss Mary Gerrett Hay, New York; Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, Topeka, Kan.; and Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, Olympia, Wash. An executive committee of ten members was named as follows: Miss Mary Gerrett Hay, New York, chairman; Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Montana; Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, Kansas; Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, Washington; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, California; Mrs. Raymond Robinson, Illinois; Mrs. John Glover South, Kentucky; Miss Maude Westmore, Rhode Island; Miss Bina M. West, Michigan; and Mrs. C. A. Stevenson, Minnesota.

There will be a representative of the women's division in every state. In addition, the committee will have a woman's council of 100 members chosen from the leaders of all lines of women's activities, the personnel of which will be announced later.

$1 SERVICE BOND

The national dues was emphasized by Treasurer Casper B. Hason to care for the needs of the American Legion world. Delegates from the Pacific coast were especially anxious to present resolutions affecting aliens, their chief suggestion being recommendation of a proposed amendment to the federal constitution, barring from citizenship the children of aliens who themselves were not eligible for citizenship.

Howl Down Resolutions.

On recommendation of Sergeant Jack Sullivan of Washington, the report of the propaganda committee will be admitted to the resolutions committee before being presented to the convention. An attempt to provide for submission of various other resolutions from the floor was quickly howled down by the convention itself.

Alien Labor

One of the most notable outbursts of enthusiasm seen in the convention today greeted the reading of a message from Marshal Foch, chief commander-in-chief, by General L. Calloet, French attaché at Washington.

Proclaiming American labor to be in thorough accord with American principles and ideals, Mr. Gompers added: "We are in accord with our government when we know that our justice is following out a course of justice and freedom and of human development as expressed by the principles of democracy. When our administration fails to conform to these principles and when our administration for the time being fails to stand for the principles of democracy, then we have no alternative but to assert that American justice must prevail against any temporary administration of the affairs of our country."

Delegates attending the dinner at the suggestion of Louis M. Morones, the Mexican representative, pledged their support to the United Mine Workers of America in the present strike.

Commits Rash Act in Church; Repents, Buys His $5 Back

Middletown, Conn., Nov. 7.—When the treasurer of the First Baptist church was counting the offering after the evening service a young man approached him, considerably perturbed, and explained that he had intended to put a penny into the contribution box, but had dropped a $5 gold piece by mistake. He asked if he might not have it back. The treasurer demurred. "I need the money," urged the young man. "So does the church," answered the treasurer. Finally the young man offered the treasurer fifty cents in exchange for the gold piece, and the church official reluctantly made the exchange.

WOMAN IN HOUSE

Mrs. Marguerita Bingham and the Duchess Z. De Chaulness. The will leaves the residue of the estate to Amanda C. Thomas, whom the deceased refers to as "my friend," and whose residence according to the petition is given as 330 Park avenue, which is the number of the apartment house where Mr. Shonts died. The will was executed on July 30 last and appoints Dr. Lancey Nicol, the Guaranty Trust company and E. J. Berwind as executors.

Was Involved in Noted Suit.

Mrs. Amanda C. Thomas, wife of Herbert F. Thomas, son of O. F. Thomas, prominent in financial circles a generation ago, was involved in a suit in 1905 against Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse of Boston. The Morse's had leased the apartment of Mrs. Thomas in the Wyoming, Seventh avenue and Fifty-fifth street and had according to Mrs. Thomas caused $8,000 injury to the furnishings during their tenancy.

It was stated in the papers that the Morse's had invited Anna Gould who had recently been divorced from Count de Castellane to visit the apartment where she met from time to time Heriberto Sagan, to whom she was afterwards married.

Contest Coming.

It is understood legal advisers will begin a contest immediately. The infelicities of the Shonts family have been well known for years. Mrs. Shonts engaged in a number of charitable and business enterprises of which her husband did not approve and more than once was engaged in litigation.

The marriage of the daughter, Theodora to the Duc de Chaulness was a sore spot for the father, who opposed the match, while Mrs. Shonts approved it. The duke afterward died in Paris. It was said he fell ill in an opium resort and was carried home unconscious, never recovering. The dutchess is now in France, having gone there some months ago to put her young son in school.

The will leaves a number of minor bequests to the friends of Shonts and gives "all the jewelry given to me by my friend Amanda C. Thomas, to her son, Herbert Thomas."

Italy Delays Demands to Be Added to German Armistice Pledges

Paris, Nov. 10.—Although today has been set as the date for a meeting between representatives of Germany and Belgium, Great Britain, France and Italy to discuss the proposed protocol to the German peace treaty, in which the Germans are expected to bind themselves to live up to the armistice conditions as expressed by the principles of democracy, the Italian delegation, it developed, was not ready for the conference.

COUNTY BOOKS SHY, MIDDLE IN TAX; 5 ARRESTS

St. Paul Politicians Accused of Being Involved in Shortage.

St. Paul, Nov. 10.—Five men were arrested here, today, in connection with the investigation of alleged shortages in the office of County Treasurer Martin O'Malley. All are charged with grand larceny in the first degree. The investigation has disclosed a shortage, it is alleged, of $11,000, as the result of a system of forgeries.

Those arrested are Cy Lyons, St. Paul politician; P. J. Costello, clerk in the county auditor's office; Mark Madigan, St. Paul former bartender; W. E. Adelmann, former liquor dealer, Superior, Wis.; and E. C. Corcoran, former clerk in the county treasurer's office. All will be arraigned tomorrow.

The state public examiner's office is investigating the alleged shortage and it is learned that nearly half the property owners of Ramsey county do not know whether their taxes are paid. In at least one instance, it was disclosed at the examiner's office, one piece of property on which the taxes are claimed by the owner to have been paid, was sold for delinquent taxes.

He said the organization was not perfect and that joining it would mean serious duties and perhaps risks for Sweden, but that the risk of being left outside the league would be still greater.

NEURALGIA MEANS THAT NERVES ARE UNDERNOURISHED

The Blood Carries Food to the Nerves but Fails When It Is Thin and Weak.

The only way that the nerves receive nourishment is through the blood. When a person becomes anemic and the blood is thin and pale the nerves are starved and the only way in which they can demand more nourishment is by the sensation of pain.

Neuralgia has been properly described as "the cry of starved nerves." The logical and reasonable way to correct neuralgia is to build up the blood so that it can carry nourishment to the nerves, as was done in the case of this Oregon school teacher.

"Nerves overtaxed by arduous school work revolted several years ago and caused me many days and nights of suffering," says Miss Birdie N. McCarty, of No. 625 Aldersworth avenue, Portland, Ore. "There was an almost continuous pain in the pit of my stomach and it seemed as though there was a big lump there. I ate very little for I didn't have any appetite to speak of. I had neuralgia in my face and darting pains across my temples. These pains generally resulted in severe headaches.

A friend one day urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I took four boxes with such excellent results that I shall never be without the remedy in the future. The pain disappeared from my stomach in a few weeks, my appetite improved and I no longer have neuralgia or headaches. A short time ago I had an attack of rheumatism and tried the remedy a second time and the results were again favorable, for the rheumatism left me. I have great confidence in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can strongly recommend the remedy."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."—Adv.
