

Mrs. W. O. Berry Gains 27 Pounds

"It's No Wonder So Many People Are Praising Tanlac," She Says.

"I have gained 27 pounds since taking Tanlac, and I haven't felt so well in years," said Mrs. W. O. Berry, of 1908 Telegraph avenue, Oakland, Cal., in telling of her remarkable recovery since she has taken Tanlac.

"It was about two years ago that asthma first began to trouble me," she continued. "At times I was so weak I could hardly move, and was so extremely nervous that the slightest kind of unexpected noise would completely upset me. I had very little appetite, and my kidneys troubled me so much that it was almost impossible for me to get a good night's rest, and from morning till night felt weak and drabby."

"I read in the papers so much about Tanlac and the good it was doing other people that I decided to give it a trial. Before I had finished my third bottle of this medicine I had improved so much that I was feeling like a different woman. I just kept on getting better and now I have already gained back much of my lost weight and feel stronger than I have in two years and am doing all my housework by myself. My asthma trouble has been overcome completely, and I can eat anything I want and never have a pain afterwards. The chronic cough has left me, too, and my kidneys are in such good shape that I sleep eight hours every night as sound as a child. I am gaining in weight and strength right along and feeling as fine as I ever did in my life. No wonder so many people are praising Tanlac, why I'm so happy over my recovery that I want you to publish this testimonial of mine and tell the people that I am fully convinced that Tanlac has no equal as a medicine."

Tanlac is now sold in Great Falls by Model Rx Pharmacy, 315 Central avenue, and Cascade Rx Pharmacy, 110 Third street south.—Adv.

AUTO COMPANY CLOSE BRANCH

Will Operate Out of Billings Only Until Conditions Become Normal.

On December 24, the Northwestern Auto Supply company which has maintained a branch in this city will temporarily close its establishment here and handle all this territory out of the Billings branch. This is not because the company has lost faith in Great Falls, according to L. D. Crittenden, who has been the manager in charge. It is because it owns its own buildings at Billings and Pocatello and rents here, and takes the view that it is better business to confine its organization to the smaller territory until conditions return to normal, when the Great Falls branch will be re-opened.

Is Keeping Lease.

To that end, the lease on the building which has been occupied on Second avenue south is being held by the company, although for the temporary absence it is being sublet to the Chevrolet company which is to establish a branch house in Great Falls.

Mr. Crittenden says that with normal conditions in Montana there is a fine field of opportunity in Montana to be worked out of Great Falls but because of the crop failure last year and the attendant economizing on the part of the people that has followed, it is an easy matter for his company to handle the business from one plant and since it owns its own property at Billings, and has been established there longer, the only course to take is to operate from that point.

Goes to Pocatello.

When he leaves Great Falls, Mr. Crittenden will go to Pocatello to become the manager of that branch of the company which is a substantial promotion for him as that is a well established branch and just now is enjoying a substantial prosperity. He has been in Great Falls since last July and in the face of the obstacle presented by the unprecedented drought here has made a favorable showing for his company, a thing that carries him into the position to which he is going.

When the branch house here has been temporarily closed, the field will be in charge of D. C. Gordon who will manage it until the resumption of the branch house.

INDIVIDUAL BOTTLES OF MILK TO PATRONS OF CAFES IS PLAN

State Dairy Inspector Fluhr Considering New Regulation for Restaurants

Helena, Dec. 10.—Patrons of restaurants and other public eating places are entitled to milk which conforms to the state standards and this department will do all it can to enforce the law in that respect and in regard to cleanliness and sanitation. Dairy Commissioner W. H. Fluhr said following an inspection of all milk offered to the public in Helena.

He added that he is contemplating a regulation for the sale of milk in eating places, requiring dealers to keep the milk in individual bottles to prevent placing a certain amount in a large container, as required, and giving the last consumer nearly all cream and the first purchaser only the lowest grade product in the lot.

He said the Helena and Butte dairymen made good showing in general and they are up against a difficult situation in supplying milk and cream and making ends meet with the present unprecedented prices of feed and high wages to help.

MILLS ARE SWAMPED WITH ORDERS SAYS LEO FAUST OF LIBBY

Salesmen Taken Off Road Until They Can Catch Up With Business.

Libby and surrounding country is quite prosperous just now according to Leo Faust, editor of the Libby Times, and a member of the state board of education, who is in Great Falls on his way to Helena to attend a meeting of the state board. Mr. Faust says that the lumber camps about Libby never have been as active as at present and that they now have orders so far ahead they have called in their traveling salesmen until they can take care of part of their accumulated business.

"Not only our lumber camps but our mining camps are unusually busy just now," said Mr. Faust, discussing the situation. "The price of silver has stimulated those interested in some properties in our vicinity to redoubled effort and we have two mining companies that are making large expansions in their plants and several smaller ones that are pushing their work with great vigor. One company will have invested half a million by the middle of June when it expects to be turning out a very ore."

Mills Away Behind.

"The lumber industry is working at top speed and still is away behind in filling orders—so much that traveling salesmen have been taken off the road until the mills catch up. Troy, Eureka, Whitefish, and all other points our way are enjoying their share of prosperity. The Great Northern will shortly expend more than $100,000 in improvements at Troy. Everything is good on our side of the range."

Mr. Faust said that he expected the state board would meet the need of the occasion by making teaching positions in the state colleges and other institutions of higher learning more attractive by advances in the pay. "Either we must meet the conditions that exist or our institutions must suffer," he said. "We have been holding fast to the salary basis of a dozen years ago while every other line of people who work for pay have received recognition that the cost of living today makes it necessary that those who work for hire shall receive more for their labor."

"Our state educational institutions must move with the procession or fall off the wheel and paymen are under the standard of other states. To keep them in line with others we must pay the scale required, and that, in my judgment, is what the people desire to have done and what the state board will do. It is simply a matter of justice to all concerned, and I have observed that the people usually are in favor of justice being done when they understand the facts and know what justice in the case at issue is. Here it certainly is more pay for our educators."

Forest Service Solicitor Decides on Car Rentals

Missoula, Dec. 10.—Forest service officials owning automobiles have heretofore been unable, under the service regulations, to rent their cars to other forest officials and to receive payment at commercial rates unless it was made by the individual renting the car.

This order has been changed, according to information received at district headquarters here, which states that the solicitor at law for the national service has rendered an opinion permitting payment by the service to the man owning the car for renting it to other officials on business of the service.

Such payment is made at a prescribed mileage rate according to the make and type of machine used and for the mileage of which the service has before been able to pay for journeys undertaken by the individual employes operating the car.

FRUIT GROWERS TOO ASK NEW LAWS LOWERING APPLE STANDARD GRADE

Idaho and Washington Statutes Place Scab Infected Fruit in Fancy and "C" Class; Montana Growers at Disadvantage.

Missoula, Dec. 10.—That Montana fruit growers will make an effort to have state laws governing the grading of fruit changed to conform to rules adopted at a meeting of Washington fruit growers held last week in Spokane is the statement made by Alvah L. Strausz, state horticulturist, who has returned from the gathering. The conference, which was held at the Davenport hotel, was attended by about 200 fruit growers, representatives of fruit and horticultural associations and state officials of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana. In speaking of the conference, Mr. Strausz said:

"The conference adopted the recommendations of the bureau of markets of the department of agriculture for a three grade pack of boxed apples. These recommendations do not vary to any great extent from the grade rule which have been in force in the state of Washington for the past several years.

"The color requirements in fancy grades in striped varieties was raised from 10 to 15 per cent while the extra fancy grade requirements remain practically the same as heretofore.

Change on Scab Infection.

"A decidedly new departure was made with relationship to the shipment of scab apples when the conference adopted the recommendation of the bureau of markets to allow a total of scab not exceeding a quarter inch in diameter in the fancy grade and a total of scab not exceeding one-half inch in diameter in "C" grade. Idaho state officials have signi-ficd the willingness of growers of that state to accept these grade rules. "Oregon is in a position to accept these grade rules because of the scab provision in them but Montana cannot accept these grade rules without special legislation. The subject of grade standardization is one of special importance to fruit growers in this state and it is intended to bring it before the meeting of the state horticultural society which will be held in Missoula January 21-22-23. It is hoped that at this time fruit growers will be able to say definitely what legislation they desire in regard to this matter.

Montana Law Bars Infection.

"The grade law on the Montana statute books does not permit the inclusion of scab infected apples in marketable grades. Fruit growers of the state have been somewhat divided in their opinions as to scabs and what should be marketed, but with surrounding states including a certain amount of scab in standard grades it seems that it will be necessary for Montana fruit growers to market their fruit under the same rules. This matter will be taken up thoroughly at the January meeting and every fruit grower interested should make a special effort to be present.

"The color requirements for the McIntosh red were adopted at 66-2-3 per cent good red color for the extra fancy grade and 25 per cent for the fancy grade. The Montana laws stipulate that the extra grade shall have 70 per cent good red color and the fancy grade 35

White markings in bloodhounds betray impurities of strain.

The older leaves of the tea-plant are as full of tannin as they can be—and that's what you get in common tea; tannin.

Now nobody wants tannin—it is so hard on the stomach and nerves—and there's an easy way to steer clear of it: just stop drinking common tea, and drink tea that is full of tea-flavor.

You'll get real enjoyment, rest, invigoration. And it will cost you less per cup—a pound makes so many cups.

IRRIGATIONISTS SEEK MEMBERS

In an effort to enlist a membership in the Montana Irrigation congress letters have been sent out signed by Louis Newman president and Sam W. Teagarden secretary calling for people to enroll at the membership fee of two dollars each.

Mayor Newman, the president, discussing the matter with the Tribune, said: "The business men of Great Falls have more to gain in providing an organization that will bring about the irrigation of every acre of land in northern Montana that can be watered than any body else and it is to be hoped that they will see the organization is properly supported. These lands can be put under water in the next few years if we can arrange a market for the securities and if we are able to handle the situation properly, that is just what a state congress will make possible."

"The Montana irrigation congress has undertaken a big task but it is a work that will benefit everybody when it is completed. It must be everybody's desire to see it well directed and let it be well financed. The membership fee is small and therefore opens the way for everyone to assist for there isn't anyone who hasn't two dollars worth of interest in seeing our state developed. I urge that a liberal response be made to the letters which have been sent out."

Stage Coach Days

Our forefathers selected their own glasses. They also traveled in stage coaches. They did both for the same reason—there was no other way.

Today stage coaches are a curiosity—their utility has passed with the invention of more modern methods, just as "selecting your own glasses" has given way to scientific eye testing. Our methods of testing are the latest and most scientific known and we make the glasses.
