"Miss Manhattan" Sends Us These New Suits for Spring

Blue—yes; Navy Blue is the color of these suits we have just received, and we might say that Navy Blue is going to be better than ever this season.

Tricotines and Serges are the fabrics; and the trimmings used are braids and buttons, especially buttons, which will be seen in numbers on suits for Springtime wear.

You will like the hip-length coats with their modified pep-lums which flare over the hips; the belts, which are string, cord and leather; the shorter skirts and the embroidery on the pockets and at the waist line of the coats.

A few of the coats feature vestees, and the skirts which are a trifle fuller this season than last are trimmed in some instances.

These smart and utilitarian suits are shown in a style range which will offer to you a chance for immediate selection. —Ready to wear section, second floor.
