

WE GIVE UP

Every article in the store, from a silk lined hat to a shoe string ordered sold on a short notice--

We see our mistake and are ready to part with all profits--

We are in the wrong location for high grade merchandise that will now be sold out at a loss, so we are in a position to guide ourselves accordingly. It is late in the season--We know it--You expect to wear clothes next fall. You may have to pay more next year, with labor going up. Draw out your four per cent money from the bank and double it by spending one-half hour in this store opening day. "Be here," says ROSENFELD
