It hangs on for weeks and insists the ordinary method is an indication that the force is low. The longer the lower the resistance forces become. At such times for a tonic that will so enrich it has the strength to resist that jeopardize health. It is generally accompanied by pale, pallor, stomach trouble, and may lead to neuralgia, and other diseases. The treatment which helped Miss H. A. Templeton lives at No. 1001 Bay City, Mich. The entire system and body against colds. "I had cold," relates Miss Hugo. "on so long that it seemed strength. I was without my color was poor. It was for me to keep warm. I felt chilled. I had little appetite. I suffered from shortness of breath. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were very favorably for years, so I bought and began taking them. I felt a relief in a week and so that I kept on taking the strength has returned and my much richer that I have a and no longer feel chilly. I too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I love my health to them." Pink Pills are sold by or direct from the Dr. Williams Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write for free book "Up to the Blood."

ROTARIANS VISIT CALGARY

Delegation Will Attend Opening of New Hotel at Sweet Grass April 7.

At the Rotary club luncheon Roy Johnson from the Calgary committee reported that there was prospect of from half a dozen to a dozen Rotarians who would attend the district convention at Calgary and that these delegates would probably also take in the opening of new hotel at Sweet Grass on April 7, leaving here on that morning. They would then unite with the Lethbridge delegation at Calgary. President Woods called attention to the fact that the International Rotary meeting this year would be at Atlantic City the week of June 20 and that it would be necessary to make reservations in the immediate future. He hoped that there would be a good number of Rotarians from Great Falls who would be in that vicinity at this time and would be able to attend. The president also called attention to the fact that the annual election of officers would take place on the last Wednesday in April. There was discussion on provisions of the new constitution and by-laws that are about to be adopted by the club and some amendments to proposed revisions were referred again to the committee to come up as unfinished business at the next luncheon.

went on, "even if he does mure him- self in the Catskills, and it seems he has pointed a number of my things. He wrote Dicky saying he doubted his own judgment upon the and asked Dicky to form his honest opinion upon them before he will probably be here. Meet him occasionally I suppose I must, but to be thrown into such neighborly intimacy—I can't Madge."

"It was the first commission of weakness I had ever heard of from her, and for a moment astonishment held me. That Lillian, who was always a tower of strength for the troubles and weaknesses of her friends, who kept her own joys and sorrows so carefully hidden—that she should acknowledge her own inability to cope with a situation seemed an almost unbelievable thing to me. The next moment I turned away my face to hide the jubilant look which I was afraid was reflecting the inspiration that had come to me. If Lillian was afraid that being thrown in with Robert Savarin's company would weaken her resolution to sacrifice him for the devil-may-care, bold and unscrupulous adventurer whose name she bore, then I resolved that I would compass such proximity if it were within human power to do so. Madge Dissembles. A weapon lay ready to my hand, and I did not scruple to use it. With my face full of consternation that was not altogether assumed, I turned back facing her.

"But—but what about Jake Wilsey, and the things that have to be done about the Stockbridge case?" I faltered. "I—I am foolish, I know, but I'm absolutely terror-stricken at the thought of that man. I have been so busy with Mrs. Durkee that I haven't gone outside the grounds, but I cannot stay in forever. It seems as though I couldn't stand the suspense of this whole miserable business much longer. And if you aren't going to be with me—"

Lillian gave me a remorseful glance, in which however, I saw a tinge of speculative shrewdness. "I know," she said quickly, then more slowly, "if you feel that way, I wonder how dare you to make the trip to Sag Harbor that I have asked of you." "Because," I answered as quickly, my wits sharpened by the emergency, "that village, as you know, is the last place Jake Wilsey is apt to be. He has a wholesome horror, I think, of Mrs. Ticer. And I would not dare to drive out there. But I think I can manage the railroad journey without any one's suspecting my absence."

Lillian considered a minute, then she threw up her head with her old air of facing emergencies. "I wish I knew," she said at last, "how much of your panic is real, how much is due to your desire to shield Robert's feelings. But I yield in either case. It will simply mean an extra thickness of armour for me. And now—please help me pack this bag. I must catch fast train, and I haven't many minutes to spare."

1200 WOMEN AT STYLE SHOW

Display at Strain Brothers Greatest Success of Any Previous Like Event Here.

The annual style show, which was held by Strain brothers Monday afternoon in their spacious day-light ready-to-wear department, was undoubtedly the greatest success of any like event ever put on in Great Falls. This large room, approximately 75 by 150 in dimensions was crowded with women of the city who were more than pleased with the opportunity of seeing the latest modes in coats, suits and dresses displayed on living models. The display of merchandise on living models has been a unique feature with this store, having been inaugurated three years ago when Strain brothers opened their new ready-to-wear department on the second floor of their building.

Fritz' seven piece orchestra, assisted by the Majestic trio, furnished music for the show, while nine young ladies, all of whom were employees of Strain brothers, and six little girls from the St. Thomas Orphans home acted as the models. The show was under the direct supervision of Arthur Strain and Miss Price, the latter having recently come from Chicago to take charge of the ready-to-wear department of the big store. Yellow daffodils were given to every woman who came to the show and these spring-like flowers could be seen on the street after the show by hundreds of women who had been delightfully entertained for one hour and a half in the ready-to-wear department of the big store.

As closely as could be estimated, fully 1200 women saw the show and a general expression of approval was heard from all who were in attendance.

How to Gain Flesh

A simple but sure way to increase the weight, it is asserted by several well known physicians, is to take regular hypo-nucleine tablets after each meal. These little tablets have the distinguishing merit of increasing the red and white blood corpuscles, aiding digestion and promoting assimilation and absorption of the elements in the food which go to make blood and solid tissues. They are obtainable in sealed packages from well stocked apothecary shops.—Adv.

FIVE CHANCES TO WIN

We offer to investors five ways to win in the oil game, in other words our leases are located in five different fields. Do not place all your eggs in one basket, is an old but true axiom, and is particularly applicable in buying oil stock.

OUR LEASES ARE ALL ON STRUCTURE

Everyone of our leases are located on oil structure as approved by competent geologists. This means that we have FIVE chances to strike oil to the other fellows one.

RIG HERE WITHIN THIRTY DAYS MONTANA PETROLEUM COMPANY OF BAKER TO DRILL ON CAT CREEK STRUCTURE. Negotiations for acreage will be closed and a Standard rig on the ground before the end of the next 30 days, it was announced yesterday by W. P. Larkin of Miles City, one of four men in Winnett representing the Montana Petroleum company of Baker.

GLENROCK PLANS TO BE OUTLINED TRIP TO WYOMING BY E. J. M'AMMON TO DECIDE UPON QUESTIONS OF LOCAL WORK. Drilling plans of the Glenrock Oil company to begin with six wells as soon as equipment now en route from Lance creek in the Lusk field reaches Winnett will be definitely settled upon this week, it was said yesterday by Mr. Robuck, assistant superintendent of operations in the Winnett field.

Two of the Chances to Win LEASE NO. 1.—Located in Mosby field on proven structure near Frantz well which is flowing and produces very high grade oil, 47% gasoline. This lease alone is considered worth the entire capitalization of the company. LEASE NO. 2.—Located in Arrow creek field on oil structure. The Arrow creek Development company now has a standard rig working day and night and expect to reach oil sands in a very short time.

THIS IS A STOCKHOLDERS COMPANY It's seems impossible when you consider—Nearness to production—our large holdings and valuable seams in five oil structure fields. ORGANIZED BY RESPONSIBLE MONTANA BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN. Every stockholder, be he large or small, will receive the same square treatment. Managed by successful conservative business men. Money raised in the sale of stock will be handled by the directors, and will be used in drilling for oil on all our leases as fast as possible. Remember this is an opportunity you should not pass by. Hundreds of Montana people have already made fortunes in oil, are you going to miss this opportunity without at least investigating. See us now, stock will surely advance soon.

Three of the Chances to Win LEASE NO. 3.—Located in the Woman's Pocket field in a semi-proven property as shown by the Tri-City well, which struck oil. Two wells now being drilled near our property. LEASE NO. 4.—Located three and one-half miles from Winnifred on Kansas-Montana dome. In this field the Kansas-Montana Oil Co. are now drilling and are down over 2,000 feet, oil sands should be reached inside of 30 days. Stock in this company not for sale. LEASE NO. 5.—Located in the Home Oil Co. dome, near Winnifred. This field is strongly recommended by Charles Gould, government geologist. Home Oil Co. well now down over 1,000 feet.
