Dances, Cards, Feature Week in Society

Post-Lenten Activity Fills Calendar With Many Enjoyable Events.

Easter week has marked the revival of activity in Great Falls social circles. Dances and bridge parties galore there have been. Indeed, there has been a dance every night in the week and more bridge parties than there were days in the week.

The Easter dance of the Temple club on Monday night in the Masonic temple was one of the gayest and most enjoyed parties of the year. The same evening the Metropolitan club entertained at a special post-lenten dance in the palm room of Hotel Rainbow. The Knights of Columbus were hosts at a delightful informal "get-together" dance on Tuesday evening in the Palm room. The American legion dance on Wednesday evening in the Palm room was well attended. The reception for the auxiliary members immediately preceding the dance was of especial interest as it was the first social affair that the members of the newly organized auxiliary had participated in along themselves.

On Thursday evening the scene of the dancing shifted to the Blackstone apartments, where the Thursday Night Dancing club entertained at an informal post-lenten dance. The Easter dance of the Fortnightly club in the palm room was the event of Friday night in Great Falls social circles. The U. C. T.'s concluded the week's dances with a breezy informal in the palm room Saturday night.

Members of the prominent bridge clubs were invited to play at the annual Easter bridge party given by the St. Margaret's guild of the Church of the Incarnation, Saturday afternoon in the palm room of Hotel Rainbow. The bridge party given Tuesday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Paul Graves of Devon by her mother, Mrs. L. B. Evanson, was one of the events of the week in local bridgdom. Many small informal parties bearing the one and two tables were given besides the weekly club gatherings.

Knights of Columbus "Get Together" Dance.

The Knights of Columbus were hosts at an informal post-lenten dance in the palm room of Hotel Rainbow. Each knight wore in his lapel a narrow strip of red, white and blue ribbon with "Casey" stamped on it. The frappe served was also called "Casey special" punch, and "Casey," the nickname applied to the representatives of the organization in the recent war was prominent on the programs bearing the K. of C. emblem which were used. Straton's orchestra played, and many extras and encores were demanded. J. B. Sherlock, chairman of the committee, in charge of the program, was assisted by John Breen, Julius Hilgarde and J. Richard Dewitt. Among the guests present were:

Messrs. and Mmes. W. R. Call, M. W. Sullivan, P. H. McBride, J. M. Ryan, P. C. Andretta, C. Landera, J. Fay, W. D. Loftus, J. J. Kerwin, James Flaherty, Dan Tracy, T. B. Many New Gowns at Temple Dancing Club Post-Lenten Party.

The first appearance of many gay new party gowns made the Easter dance of the Temple club one of the prettiest parties given by the club during the season. The dance took place Monday evening in the Masonic auditorium. The heavy fall of snow in the afternoon and evening added zest to the affair, and made it seem more like a midwinter function than a closing season affair. Special programs with the club's monogram embossed on them in gold were provided. Straton's orchestra played, and there were so many new arrivals that there were practically no intermissions during the latter half of the program. Orange and pineapple ices were served during the evening. Those present were:

Messrs. and Mmes. R. J. White, H. Lee, W. B. Armstrong, C. D. Smith, Scott Leavitt, D. W. Bailey, Jesse T. Owens, W. W. Hunteberger, J. E. Baker, H. Norakos, H. R. Hoffman, F. A. Barlow, C. F.
