DEFENDANT PAROLED TO EARN HER FINE FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Former West Butte Post Office Employee Admits Charge—Is Fined an Equal Sum.

Mrs. Katie Foley, formerly assistant postmaster at West Butte on trial in federal court before Judge George M. Bourquin, Wednesday, pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of government funds amounting to $1,385.17 and 13 months in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas. By order of the court commitment was stayed so long as Mrs. Foley continues to pay her fine at the rate of $75 per month and the court further stated that as soon as the fine was paid he would entertain a motion from defendant's attorney to vacate that part of the sentence pertaining to imprisonment.

David F. and Kirk Gilstrap who were found guilty at the last term of the embezzlement of government funds which Samuel J. Stanton of Fort Benton applied for final proof on homestead entry. They were each sentenced to 60 days in the Chouteau county jail and a fine of $75. In the case of David Gilstrap commitment was stayed by direction of the court for 30 days. Kirk Gilstrap was taken to Fort Benton, Wednesday night.

G. E. Palmer, charged with presenting a false and counterfeit withdrawal of preference right against the homestead entry of Olga K. Johnson, was arraigned in court Wednesday morning and will enter his plea this Thursday morning.

Fred Marquardt, Wednesday afternoon, petitioned court to change his plea to guilty from that of not guilty which he had entered during the forenoon session. Marquardt was charged with neglect in extinguishing a fire on the Flat-head forest which resulted in one of the large timber fires last summer. It is alleged that Marquardt was clearing some homestead land on the forest and in burning the underbrush he neglected to carefully extinguish the fire. He was fined $100 and costs.

W. E. Wellman, a merchant at Grass Range, was arraigned on a charge of bankruptcy. In the case of James W. McGuire et al vs. Frank Koester et al, which was set for trial June 4, the plaintiff appeared in court asking for the continuance of the case. This motion was denied and thereupon the plaintiff asked that the case be dismissed without prejudice. This was granted.

The case of W. K. Wellman vs. Stone-Ordean-Wellis company was set for trial September 13.

W. T. McKewen, an attorney at Kalispell, was admitted to practice. The case of the United States vs. the Great Northern railway in which the latter is charged with the burning of $10,000 worth of timber on national forests, was set for trial September 7.

This Thursday morning court will convene at 9:30 for the hearing for entry of judgment and taxation costs of the Morris-Turner Livestock company against the director general of the railroads.

Demurrers in the case of Mary Ann Wolsley vs. the director general of railroads, is set for hearing at 10 this (Thursday) morning.

Want Pink Cheeks—Red Lips?

Some unfortunate men and women are prone to wonder why some of their friends are blessed with an abundance of color—pink cheeks and red lips—while theirs are always colorless. The reason for this last named condition is—there is no color in the blood—compare it to the blood—under a microscope the blood is thin and watery. The flesh is flabby too. Well-known physicians assert that the regular administration for several months of three-grain hypo-nuclean tablets will greatly improve the color, add to the weight, make the cheeks pink and the lips red and in general be very beneficial. For self-administration, obtain from any of the best apothecary shops.

ENJOYABLE CLASS NIGHT AFFAIR BY HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1920

Members of Graduating Class Great Falls High School Entertain Schoolmates, Relatives and Friends at Pleasing Program and Ball in School Auditorium and Gymnasium.

The class of 1920 of the Great Falls high school weighs five tons, 1,152 pounds, and is 477 feet, 9 inches in height. Its foot is 859 inches long showing the class to have a good understanding, and its hand measures 672 inches—showing its huge grasp. As to its head that is 1907 inches in circumference not of pure ivory but of pure knowledge. These facts were disclosed Wednesday evening when the class history was read in the school auditorium. Wednesday night was class night for the seniors and a large audience of students, friends and parents gathered in the auditorium to enjoy the program given by the seniors. There were frequent bursts of laughter and applause at the student witticisms aimed at the follies and foibles of their classmates and teachers.

The program began with a number of the all-time choruses directed by Miss Lena Spoor. Then followed the class history by Irving Monsoos. The class boasts of being most cosmopolitan, having representatives from almost every high school in the United States. The gallery and the benches along the walls watching the enjoyment of the youngsters.

The history closes with a very clever parody on the passage from Tennyson's "Idylls of the King," beginning, "The Old Order Changeth," which was made to read, "The old students leaveth, yielding place to new."
Following the program there was an informal dance in the high school gymnasium for the students. A canopy was formed over the gymnasium, of streamers of purple and gold, the senior class in the center was a large illuminated "20" in violet letters. White lattice booths were arranged for the orchestra and for the punch bowl. Facing members acted as chaperones, and a large number of parents crowded the gallery and the benches along the walls watching the enjoyment of the youngsters.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.
Henry Torcke, 22, and Anna E. Kanikberg, 20, both of Prospect.
David P. Carson, 26, and Jennie Marie Rutledge, 21, both of Great Falls.
Hector Boque, 23, and Rachel Muir, 21, both of Sand Coulee.
Tom Manaras, 33, of Harre, and Ozema Rodgers, 21, of Warrack.

The class will, read by John McDonald, and the class prophesy, read by Paul Lynch, caused the most merriment among the audience. "The most good-for-nothing, useless, irresponsible class ever called seniors, who have been shell-shocked, war-torn, mangled, distorted and maimed by the four years of battle, through which we have successfully passed, wish, because we feel we are about to breathe our last in this beloved high school, to leave the remnant of those things we hold most dear to those who, in their dire hour of need, can make the most of them. Amongst the things we wish to pass on to our mental soundness, do hereby will and bequeath the following items."
The "items" willed were largely of a personal nature. One youth left his "passionate red sweater to any one who has crust enough to wear it." Another his "extreme good looks to any one who needs them."

The class history, written supposedly many years hence by a faculty member who remembers most clearly all of the classes he has instructed in African golf, the class of 1920. He muses on the strange irony of fate which has brought destinies the exact opposite of their desires to so many of that illustrious class.

ROTARIANS OF CITY TO BE THE GUESTS AT A PICNIC PARTY

Will Be Entertained by Big Company Officials at an Outing on June 14.

Members of the Great Falls Rotary club will enjoy a picnic on June 14 at which the Anaconda Copper Mining company and the Montana Power company will appear in the role of hosts. The invitation had been extended some time ago but not until the meeting of the Rotary club on Wednesday was the date finally determined upon. The picnic will be staged at the Big Falls and while the details have not been fully worked out, it probably will be an afternoon and evening affair at which there will be dancing.

The entertainment will be in direct charge of A. E. Wiggin, general superintendent of the Great Falls reduction works of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, and James R. Robbins, manager of the Great Falls branch of the Montana Power company.

The Rotarians at their luncheon Wednesday noon listened to a talk by James A. Johnson of Shelby in which he considered the need of a law under which irrigation districts could be more easily formed and constructed. Mr. Johnson is the chairman of the finance committee of the Montana Irrigation congress and he appeared before the Rotary club to urge support for the bill which is being initiated by the congress to be submitted to the voters at the election next November.

In addition to Mr. Johnson, the program was featured by the appearance of Alex Campbell who gave a couple of vocal solos.
Members of the Rotary club are having considerable interest in a five-dollar

BRINGS IN A KEG AND 4 CASES BOOZE

Smuggled From Canada, Says Officers—Owners Are Brought From Enid.

C. L. George, deputy U. S. collector of customs at Malta, came to Great Falls Wednesday morning bringing with him four cases and one keg of good Canadian whiskey which the custom's office had seized from Mr. and Mrs. Elwood House residing near Enid.

Mr. and Mrs. House appeared here before U. S. District Attorney E. C. Day and were bound over to the U. S. commissioner for appearance. Their bonds were fixed at $500 each.

The booze is supposed to have been smuggled by Mr. and Mrs. House into the United States from Canada.

Almost all cases of true epilepsy begin before the age of 20.
