

ARTIST GETS OFFER TO APPEAR IN FILM; WILL STAY IN CITY

William Heater Says He's Not Immune to High Salaries, But He Likes Great Falls.

Offers of high salaries as scenic artist which have been received by William Heater since he arrived in Great Falls several weeks ago to prepare the first of the elaborate sets used by the Associate Players in their stock productions at the Palace theatre, and an especially enticing offer to appear in a prominent part in a motion picture to be produced in a short time at Hollywood, Calif., have failed to induce him to leave this city.

WILLIAM HEATER.

more ahead in the end to remain in Great Falls. This city has a wonderful future before her. As an outsider just coming to the city, I have approached her from an outsider's viewpoint. People living in any city for a long time sometimes fail to notice its gradual growth and development, which appear startling to one not residing here.

the drama by Willard Mack, "Kick In." Aside from giving a finished performance of a difficult role, he is also responsible for the elaborate setting of the play. His work as an artist runs parallel with his work as an actor, and it is because of this fact that he is in demand elsewhere.

This week he is an exceptionally busy man. Besides appearing nightly in "Kick In," he is also painting the scenery to use in next week's production, "Which One Shall I Marry?" to which he is devoting all of his time during the day and planning the various stage settings.

SCHOOL CARD CAUSES ARREST

Identified by a school report card found in the Baltimore restaurant Wednesday morning after the place had been burglarized, Edward Golder, 12, Frank Zunchich, 13, Frank Poletto, 10, and Lawrence Hughes 10, were later picked up by Probation Officer A. A. Carpenter and at the police station the Golder and Zunchich boys admitted, says Chief Police Marcus Anderson, that they and the others were responsible for the theft of 30 pounds of butter, eight pies and a quantity of cake.

Search for the alleged thieves was made easy by the discovery of a report card on which the name of one of the boys was written. The card had evidently been dropped while the owner was in the place and admissions later made by the suspects proved the accuracy of the suspicion.

SEEKING SUPPORT OF THE MERCHANTS FOR WELCOMING ADV.

Committee Asks Aid in Raising Funds to Entertain Merchants of State.

Three teams from the Merchants association were busy Wednesday securing subscriptions to the big welcoming advertisement which the committee in charge of entertaining the state convention of the Montana Merchants association July 12-14 inclusive, proposes to print in the local daily papers on the day the convention opens.

There was one thing discovered by the committees at work and that was that the plan had not been fully understood by some of the business men. When such a case was found it required the time to explain it and then the support was readily given. Because of that fact, F. J. Perra, chairman of the executive committee in charge of the work stated at the close of the day that he believed it would be good to repeat the statement of the plan in the press.

"The merchants," said Mr. Perra, "will find that they are helping themselves and a splendid cause if they will just remember these facts. The committee is simply asking them to subscribe to a great double page of advertising of our enterprising business firms who are glad the state merchants convention is coming to Great Falls and want the visitors to know they are welcome. The plan is this: Our committee has arranged to have a welcome to the convention delegates in the form of a double-page of advertising which will be signed by every subscriber to this plan. The advertisement will invite the visitors to make the places of business represented headquarters and will urge the visitors to call upon the firms represented. In other words, it will be a sort of 'glad hand' extended to the visitor as he comes to the convention giving him assurance that the business men of Great Falls are in earnest in trying to make this the big meeting in the history of the association as well as one of the biggest meetings of the merchants ever held in the northwest."

Because of the nature of this work, there is one request we would make of the merchants. This committee is made up of business men who are giving their time to put the convention over along successful lines. Every minute that can be saved to them is a favor to them and to the association. For that reason, merchants should decide whether they will subscribe $5, $10, $15 or $25 and having decided the amount, write the check to cover it and have it ready. Then when the committee calls, all that is needed is to subscribe to the list and hand over the check. "All money raised by this plan will be used to make this a great convention. There is now assurance of between 500 and 600 merchants being here for the convention and we are going to spread the news of the entertainment planned until all merchants of the state may know and probably we can raise the attendance record almost to the 1,000 mark. We merely urge now, that our home merchants put their energy into the plan by seeing that the committee get the money for the advertisement. Let all remember the motto of 'Subscribe Today' and be prompt when the committee calls."

LEAGUE WANTS MORE WORKERS

Many women in the city have expressed a desire to do committee work in the Cascade County League of Women Voters and to help with the preparations for the convention to take place in Great Falls, June 19 to 21 inclusive. However, there is still a place for more workers, and the officers of the league and the publicity committee are desirous of getting in touch with everyone who is willing to assist. Women who go to the library to register as voting members and who will attend the convention are being asked to write after their names whether they will help in the committee work. The registration papers are at the circulation desk in the public library.

Many Are Registering. Among the women who have registered within the last few days are: Mrs. Margaret Burdick, Mrs. L. S. Thurston, Mrs. A. H. Stewart, Mrs. G. B. Lockhart, Mrs. Howard Crosby, Mrs. Joseph E. Agnew, Miss Gertrude Skinner, Miss Leita L. Spoor, Miss Mabel H. Collins, Miss Helen M. Smith, Mrs. A. S. Chester, Mrs. T. H. Jowell, Miss Gertrude Callies, Miss Ida Perrin, Miss Ethel M. Allen, Mrs. R. S. Kiltz, Mrs. George P. Durham, Mrs. Margaret R. Kingsbury, Mrs. Sarah O. W. King, Miss Meta B. Raetzig, and Miss Ethelyn Grier. Six states, Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa, will be represented at the convention. Women of national note will be among the speakers who will explain the twofold purpose of the league in its efforts to make the new feminine electorate an intelligent voting body, and in securing the passage of legislation that will benefit women and children and home conditions. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, Mrs. Katherine Vaughn McCulloch, Mrs. Louis Slade, Mrs. James Paige and Miss Adah E. Bush will be among the speakers at the convention. All the women in the city are urged to register and attend at least one of the meetings of the convention, if they cannot attend all.

Injured City Fireman Showing Improvement

Dan O'Donnell, city fireman, who was thrown onto the pavement when the fire truck on which he was riding rounded a corner at a high rate of speed two weeks ago, has passed the crisis and hopes of his recovery are now being entertained by his physician and relatives. In the fall he suffered a fracture of the skull and for several days it was thought the injury would prove fatal. Word from the Columbus hospital, where he is a patient, Wednesday, indicated that his condition was slowly improving.

To The Summer Trails She Will Hi and Let The Rest of the World Go By —Every woman is eager to "hit the trail" to summer pleasures, and whether she rides or motors, golfs, fishes or hikes, her heart is set on the happy mission of selecting sports clothes and country club togs.

—We have planned and have received the finest collection of all sports requisites, from hat to boots, and now seek your attention.

Correct Riding Clothes. —Such as light weight tweed riding suits and heatherspun habits, belted, with jaunty pockets and reinforced breeches. Other riding suits of covert and khaki. Extra breeches and skirts for riding and hiking.

Women's Sport Suits. —It's a comfort to have a suit equally "fit" to wear on the street, or on the golf links and hikes. Smart Jersey suits, or the heatherspuns, are designed particularly for these services and what's more they are inexpensive.

Women's Motor Coats. —In a breezy roadster or country club, clever tweed coats are best appreciated by all women who motor. There are also polo and heather mixtures, that combine beauty with service. Short coats, or long coats, with double up collars.

Women's Sport Skirts. —Sports Skirts play an all important role in the summer wardrobe, developing the gay overblouse or smocks into a beautiful sports costume. We have them in fancy checks and plaids of silk or wool—reasonably priced.

Women's Bathing Clothes. —For those who love the splash of the waves, smart stylish water togs are essential to good taste and comfort. The shimmering sateen bathing suits have ruffled knees and draped hips—all wool knit suits in many bright colors. —Two piece suits that are very new. For Children, Misses and Women.
