PANTAGES AND MINSTREL SHOW WEEK'S OFFERING AT GRAND

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings Pantages vaudeville will put on six big acts at the Grand. "Thirty Pink Toes" presents three young men in a novel offering. During the action of the act they will introduce some clever tumbling and comedy hand balancing. Noodles, Fagan and Elise, show the irrepressible Noodles and his charming family. They sing a little, dance a little, and Noodles entertains in talk in his own inimitable way.

The Alaska Duo appear in a program of trick and fancy skating with a setting representing the frozen north. Jean Barrios is a clever artist wearing some of the latest work creations in an offering of song impressions. Frank Stafford and company assisted by two beautiful setter dogs, will be seen in a beautiful offering entitled "The Hunters Game." The DeMichele Brothers, Italian boys, appear in a comedy instrumental program with a harp and violin.

Saturday and Sunday, July 10 and 11, The Georgia Minstrels will put on a production which includes 40 really clever and talented people. A noon day parade will be given daily.

"LITTLE SHEPHERD" AT THE ALCAZAR Jack Ploford in the "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" has been drawing capacity houses at the Alcazar and is still showing today. The film of course is founded on the popular novel of John Fox Jr., depicting the almost primitive life of the mountain whites in the Blue Ridge mountains. It is accompanied by special musical interpretation by Kern and Town Topics. There is also a hilarious Christie comedy, the Pathe News and Town Topics.

Maner Johnson has arranged for two superb films for the middle and later part of the week. Watch for announcements.

Good Crop Prospect Out Towards Gilman

George O. Sanford, manager of the Sun River Irrigation project has just returned from a trip to Gilman, and reports crop conditions on the Fort Shaw division better than ever before. The farmers are beginning to cut alfalfa but the majority will not start until after the Fourth, he said.

"On Greenfield bench some of the crops are excellent an da very good yield will in all probability be realized from them this year," says Mr. Sanford.

"Dry land crops are good, bad and indifferent. M. L. O'Neil, a farmer on the bench near Ashuelot has in 1,500 acres on dry land and all of it is in fine shape. The winter rye is nearly four feet high and promises a fair yield."

Hugh Sutton, agriculturist on the Sun River project has gone to Havre to attend a meeting of department of agriculture men who are employed on the lower Yellowstone and Milk river projects at Havre.
